Myrtle Point School Notes.

After two weeks vacation the school has settled down to work again.

The teachers say that all the pupils are more interested in their work than they were before the holidays.

Two of the high school students are preparing for the teachers examination and about thirty-two of the eighth grade pupils are preparing for the state examination to be given in February.

Those exempt from the examination before the holidays are as follows:

Eighth grade "B" Lucy Huff and May Hall; eighth "A" Leafy Kendall, Rena Neal and Dora Biglow.

Those ranking highest last month in their class work are as follows:

First grade, Zena Dement; second grade, Lola Green and Pearl Davis; third grade, Cleo Dickson; fourth grade, Herbert Davis; fifth grade, "B" Eva Farber "A" Lula Hale; sixth grade, Harold Adams; seventh grade, Clark Giles; eighth grade "B" Lucy Huff, "A" Leafy Kendall; ninth grade, Alice Hillis; tenth grade, Claude Giles.

The new pupils are: Ray and Guy Devault and Roslyn Bridges. The total enrollment at present is 278.

Visitors are always welcome.

DEAN.

Notes and Comments.

The New York Herald says "The Currency Question is Acute." This is no news to the most of us.

Mr. Depew has had time to be a director in seventy corporations not counting the United States Senate.

New York is demanding better prisons but with Jerome still at the helm the most urgent demand will probably be for bigger prisons.

Carnegie in a letter says he wishes he were a boy again in the melon patches along the Ohio. This too when he is able to buy melons in January.

Pittsburg is boasting of a banquet at which the sixty guests represented $200,000,000. If the waiters knew it at the time the guests are not so rich now.

The only trouble with all the investigation of grafting that is going on in the country is that it has come so late that the men who are retired are already rich enough to afford it.

Governor Vardaman of Mississippi, says there is no hope for the improvement of the negro race. In that respect it seems to be in about the same condition as Governor Vardaman.

Ohio has already had its share of representation among the presidents, but the Longworth-Roosevelt engagement proves that there is no way of keeping Ohio out of the White House.

Cuban capital to the amount of $150,000, is the amount to be expended on a race track near Havana. If the affair is to be financed by the Cuban Congress the creditors will have a run for their money.

The House of Representatives proposes to investigate the use of the franking privilege by its members. The story of the member who franked the family cow through the mails will make interesting reading.

Some disgruntled newspapers are trying to make an issue of the ejection of an obstreperous woman from the lobby to the White House, and a member of congress from Texas has clutched the skirts of the occasion in an effort to attract attention to himself. The incident is not of national or even local importance. The president knew nothing about the incident until it appeared in the papers, and his only comment was to instruct the official in charge of the lobby to exercise more patience and tact in protecting his time from violent female bores. If the Texas member is really as solicitous for the vindication of American womanhood and motherhood and wifehood as he claims to be, let him prove it by speaking and voting for a whipping post for wife beaters as advocated in the President's message.

The Government Departments in Washington have on their pay rolls 676 clerks each more than seventy years of age. This should be sufficient to make Dr. Osler or the government revise age-limit theory and practice.

W. M. Ivins, late candidate for mayor of New York, says: "We are suffering from the contagion of luxury." That's what happens to a man who gets within fifty thousand votes of being elected to the office of New York Mayor.

Jack O'Brien, the pugilist, has been refused accommodations in the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York. He need not feel hurt about that though. We know of nothing more considerable that the Waldorf-Astoria can do to a man. It is sometimes better to be discharged than charged.

"I am sorry General Bingham, police commissioner of New York, swears. No one who swears is a gentleman," says Dr. Parkhurst. But the things that Col. Bingham will say when he reads that will make his speech to the police force on his induction into office look like a Sunday school tract.

FOR SALE.—One fine fresh milk cow. Inquire of George Belloni, Coquille.

Bancroft Items.

The recent rains brought a raise in the creek sufficient to carry out logs, and a few are going out today (Tuesday.) Several hands have been at work for two days opening the jams.

Dick Rice's little girl has been sick for some time with a swelling in her throat, but is much better and we hope will soon be well.

Frank Fish has been making havoc among the mink and Civet cats since he got home from the county seat with his new traps.

James Evernden sent off two parcels of furs lately and has a bear skin in course of preparation. We wish all the trappers success.

There was rejoicing among the sheep men last Tuesday when Finley Mast brought in a large old coyote which he had trapped. He has done the community a fine favor and himself a good turn, as he got a goodly reward in cash. T. S. Evernden who has lost more than one hundred sheep since the coyotes began operations, headed the list with 110, followed by W. Lett, C. D. Price, J. V. Leep and Charles Warner with smaller sums. Bring on your coyotes, Finley, they are all wanted.

Bryan Abroad.

W. J. Bryan will write a series of letters while on his two-year tour of foreign lands. These letters will appear once a week in a select list of the leading American daily newspapers, among which is the Journal.

The Bryan letters in the Sunday Journal will make clear the point of view of foreign countries on many of the questions which now confront us.

Few men are better qualified to treat large questions in a large way than Mr. Bryan, and no one who wishes to keep abreast of the times can afford to miss these letters.

The Sunday Journal is a great newspaper, filled with "good things." With its beautiful color supplements, its cartoonists like Opper, Swinnerton, Sullivan, Howarth and others of like renown; with its special staff of famous writers, including such stars as Ella Wheeler Wilcox, Mrs. John A. Logan, Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. Henry Symes, Lady Henry Somerset, Beatrice Fairfax, Max Nordau, Maurice Maeterlinck, Count Tolstoi, Prof. Garrett P. Serviss, and humorous sketches by George V. Hobart (Dinkelspiel), Wex Jones, William F. Kirk and others, and with all the world's news by leased wire, and the home news, The Sunday Journal is a thoroughly representative newspaper.

The Journal is "the paper of the multitude," in sympathy with and pledged to the cause of the masses of mankind—of "equal rights to all"—a square deal.

THE JOURNAL,
Portland, Oregon.

Pleasant and Most Effective.

T. J. Chamberlin, Ed. Vindicator, Liberty, Texas, Dec. 25, 1902: "With pleasure and unsolicited by you, I bear testimony to the curative power of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I have used it my family and can cheerfully affirm it is the effective and best remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used." Sold by R. S. Knowlton.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that my wife, Elva Haga, has left her bed and board and refuses to return thereto, and the public is hereby warned against trusting her upon my credit, and that I will not be responsible for any obligations she may contract.

Dated at Coquille, Oregon, November 12, 1905.

G. C. HAGA.

Imperfect Digestion

Means less nutrition and in consequence less vitality. When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. Herbine will rectify this; it gives tone to the stomach, liver and kidneys, strengthens the appetite, clears and improves the complexion, infuses new life and vigor to the whole system. 50 cents a bottle. Sold by R. S. Knowlton.
