Looking Oregonward

In the Sacramento Union, of recent date, there appears editorial comment upon the fact that of late quite a body of California capital has come to Oregon, and notably to Portland, for investment. The Union takes a broad and generous view of the matter, indicating that Oregon appears a splendid field for investment, and that the movement of California capital in this direction should be a source of pride to the citizens of the Golden State.

In this attitude the Union speaks the liberal attitude of the genuine Californian, the approval of a people who have accomplished great things themselves and are ready to enlist their surplus energy and their surplus cash to the development of territory and the building of enterprise in which their neighbors are interested. This movement of California capital Oregonward is not philanthropy, to be sure. It is simply the indication of that breadth of business principle which makes for the co-operation of communities in the largest measure possible, and the advancement of the general interests.

The Union expresses itself in terms of felicity that California has reached that stage where it can spare capital for investment outside the state. We, of Portland, join in the sentiment most heartily, and with the more enthusiasm from the fact that Oregon appears to be the chosen field for California exploitation.

We can assure the Union, or any of the Union's friends or patrons, that California capital makes no mistake in coming to Portland or to any part of Oregon. Whatever is worth the money that is seeking investment we have it to show. We have opportunities and advantages which cannot be excelled anywhere, cannot be equaled elsewhere we will assert, excepting, as of course, we must in courtesy, the State of California. We have an indefinite lease on the advantages, and the supply of resources is as inexhaustible as the ozone of our mountains and forests. Just now it is bargain day in Oregon for the wide-awake investor. We depend upon the shrewdness of our California brothers to take due and proper notice of all these facts.—Portland Telegram.

While the above is so of Portland and the Willamette valley, it also a fact that the superior advantages of Coos county were recognized by Californians, particularly Humboldt, several years ago, and now a very great number of our best dairy farms are owned or controlled by ex-California dairymen, and more are constantly arriving.

Rainier Takes a Smoke.

Seattle, Wash., March 6.—Huge clouds of steam and smoke were emitted from Mount Rainier this morning. Thousands of people are watching it. It comes in puffs, then clears away, and then comes again. Observers at the weather bureau state the university is watching it with intense excitement.

The Best Cough Syrup.

S. L. Apple, ex probate judge, Ottawa co., Kansas, writes: "This is to say that I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup for years, and that I do not hesitate to recommend it as the best cough syrup I have ever used." 25c, 50c and $1.00. R. S. Knowlton.

For Sale.

A three-disc Hancock plow will be sold at a bargain, also a span of young horses well broke. Inquire at this office.

Champion Liniment for Rheumatism
Chas. Drake, a mail carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the store keeper here recommended this remedy and it completely cured me." There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. One application gives prompt relief and its continued use for a short time will produce a permanent cure. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Voters, Attention.

The primary law of our state is not as well understood by many as it should be. It is no trick of the politician. It is one of the best safe-guards against his tricks the people have today. It only needs to be understood and used by the people to prove its merits. The fact that the politician and some of the papers noted for graft are opposed to the law, should warrant a thorough trial of it by the people. If the law does not give good results in this election it will be because the people do not understand or appreciate it, and give it a fair trial.

Politics are corrupt and controlled by corrupt men, mainly because good men took no interest in the caucus or convention in the past. The primary law was framed to give all men an equal chance to name the candidates of their party, and if all Republicans and Democrats would register their politics and attend the primary, good men, with few exceptions, would be nominated on those tickets for the various offices. Many good men are registered as Independents who ought by all means to register as Republicans or Democrats. By so doing they may help to name the ticket of their party, and may vote independent in the election if the ticket named does not suit them.

Our Australian ballot system guarantees every one independence in voting. Our primary law gives all a chance to take part in naming the candidates of our party if our party polled 25 per cent of the votes cast at the last election.

Both are safe laws for the people and should be upheld by them. Let good men announce themselves for office and let all men of both old parties attend the primary, and let us prove the merits of this law in this section. It may be an injustice to new parties but that can be remedied later.

W. W. ROSEBAUGH.

Repeal of Timber and Stone Act.

Yesterday's dispatches recorded the refusal of the public lands committee of the House to allow the bill prepared in accordance with the recommendation of the Public Land Commission for the repeal of the timber and stone act to have a show for its life in the House. By repetition of last year's tactics the bill has been killed for this session also. This will be glad news to many a man who has his eye on a quarter section that he can buy for the Nation for $400 and then sell to a syndicate for $1000; also to those speculators who, by this means, have a chance to round off their ownership and pick up some leavings from their last gathering-in.

It will administer yet another snub to the forestry officials, who have been trying to establish a wise, rational forestry system, of which the foundation should be the ownership by the Nation of the land on which the timber grows, the sale of the timber, as it ripens, at something like its real value, and the chance to reforest the lands. And the reclamation service will see another proof that its teachings, on the function of timber lands in conservation of water supplies, has fallen on deaf ears.

So the weary work has to begin again. The deciding impulse in the Wyoming congressman's mind seems to be that because in his own state there is no timber land worth preserving, therefore no other state shall have a chance to have its forests protected.—Oregonian.

In the spring time you renovate your house. Why not your body? Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea drives out impurities, cleanses and enriches the blood and purifies the entire system. 35 cents. R. S. Knowlton.

For every 25c worth of goods you purchase at Mrs. Nosler's store the purchaser will be entitled to a guess at the $10 gold piece to be given to the best guesser.

FOR SALE—Or trade for cattle, two fine mares, weight 1100 and 1300. Enquire of W. B. Rohrer, Arago.

A Safe Cough Medicing for Children.
In buying a cough medicine for children never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it and relief is always sure to follow. It is especially valuable for colds, croup and whooping cough. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Students Form Club.

The members of the Coos County Club of Albany College want their friends at home to know what they are doing, so the writer was instructed to send a letter to the HERALD, as that is the paper seen by most of our families. The object of the Club is, as one of the members aptly expressed it, "To keep each other from getting homesick," and the aim is purely to promote a feeling of good fellowship among the members, rather than actually along literary lines. Our meetings are held whenever all the members decide it best to have one, and on such occasions all formality is thrown aside and each one endeavors to be happy himself and make the others happy.

At our last meeting officers were elected. Walter Hodge was unanimously chosen president, John Leggett was made vice president and Gladys Easton secretary. After the business was completed a brief program was rendered, adding much to the enjoyment of the evening. Miss Neva Hattberg, of North Bend, was warmly welcomed by the society early in the term, and a few weeks later we were pleased with the return of Miss Nellie Kerrigan, of Coquille, one who was an enthusiastic member of our Club last year. The members not already mentioned are Miss Myrtle Hodge, of Fishtrap, Mr. H. O. Nettleton, from the banks of the bonnie Pulaski, and Mr. Roy Morgan, of Coquille.

Although we are sorry that several who were with us last year were unable to return, we feel greatly encouraged with the condition of our society, and rejoice in the hope of a much larger membership next year.

Primary Law is Construed

Salem, Oregon, Feb. 28.—That one man may be the candidate of both political parties was decided by Attorney General Crawford today, in an opinion rendered in response to an inquiry from W. J. Moore, District Attorney at Lakeview. The hypothetical case submitted was that of a candidate, who in the primaries, was on both the Republican and the Democratic tickets and received a plurality vote for the office in each instance. The ruling of the Attorney General is that the office-seeker thereby becomes the nominee of both parties, and his name must be printed on the general ballot at the election in June.

The same would be true if a man were an aspirant for a Republican nomination and his name were written into the Democratic primary ballots, thereby giving him a plurality of the Democratic votes.

Gives Health, Vigor and Tone.

Herbine is a boon for sufferers from anemia. By its use the blood is quickly regenerated and the color becomes normal. The drooping strength is revived. The languor is diminished. Health, vigor and tone predominate. New life and happy activity results. Mrs. Belle H. Shnel, Middlesborough, Ill., writes, I have been troubled with liver complaint and poor blood and have found nothing to benefit me like Herbine. I hope never to be without it. I have wished that I had known of it in my husband's life time." 50c. R. S. Knowlton.

HOUSE FOR RENT.

Full stock of A. A. Cutter shoes at Lorenz's.

Gravelford Items.

As it has been some time since I saw any news from this place in your paper, I concluded to write some.

The North and East Fork loggers have been very busy around Gravelford for several days and business is booming in our little town.

Mr. Fred Moser has gone to Prosper on a business trip.

Miss Ines Bunch, who has been attending the Academy all winter, left for her home last Monday.

Miss Ida Hammerloff visited the Misses Angie and Litha Krantz, last week.

Miss Lillian Clinton who has been absent for a couple of weeks visiting friends and relatives in Myrtle Point, returned home last Saturday.

George King passed through our town the other day with a drove of cattle.

Tom Wright and Ray Lewis visited at the boarding hall the other evening, and report a pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Krantz gave a swell reception last Saturday evening in honor of Miss Litha's eighteenth birthday. The supper which was a splendid affair was served at half-past eight o'clock, and the table fairly groaned beneath its load of dainties. After the refreshments were partaken of, games were in order and indulged in until past midnight. A large number of guests were in attendance, and Miss Litha was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents. Following are the names of those present: Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Krantz, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wright, the Misses Angie Krantz, Ines Bunch, Susie Stemmler, Opal Krantz, Susie Knight, Georgia Leep, Luda Krantz, Sylvia Culbertson, Metta Hansen, Maud Weekly, Verna Weekly, Nellie Clark, Edith Swan, Anna Swan, Ray Carey, Ida Hammerloff, Lottie Carey, the Messrs. Tom Wright, Harry Slagle, Walter Krantz, Mattie Weekly, Louis Folsom, Vance Weekly, Robt. Slagle, Vake Stemmler, Archie Hollenbeck, Tom Weekly, Taylor Bunch, Sautie Weekly, Alec Culbertson, Arthur Bennett, and Earl Slagle. A very pleasant time was had by all, and we wish to thank the kind young hostess and wish her many happy returns of the day.

BLUEBELL KATZENHAMMER.

The National Educational Association will hold its annual convention in San Francisco from July 7th to July 14th of this year. The people of San Francisco, of California and, in fact, the people of the whole Pacific Coast, are preparing a welcome and a reception to the teachers, the equal of which has never been given to any similar organization. The people of California have established a reputation for generous hospitality and those who have attended any convention held within the Golden Gate of late years eagerly attest that fact. But the preparations now in progress for the reception and entertainment of the teachers surpass all former efforts at entertaining.

Low rates of transportation, improved facilities and the exceptional attractions on the Pacific Coast will undoubtedly induce many teachers to make the trip. The teachers that will go and those whom circumstances may keep away will take much interest in the trip across the continent, in the reception and entertainment which will be given in their honor, and in matters pertaining to the convention.

Strikes Hidden Rocks.

When your ship of health strikes the hidden rocks of Consumption, Pneumonia, etc., you are lost, if you don't get help from Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. J. W. McKinnon, of Talladega Springs, Ala., writes: "I had been very ill with Pneumonia, under the care of two doctors, but was getting no better when I began to take Dr. King's New Discovery. The first dose gave relief, and one bottle cured me." Sure cure for sore throat, bronchitis, coughs and colds. Guaranteed at R. S. Knowlton's drugstore, price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
