The schooner C. T. Hill sailed from Bandon on Wednesday of last week.

John Snyder, of the Central Hotel, Marshfield, came over Thursday and shook hands with many old friends in this city.

Wm. Jenkins, one of Myrtle Point's business men, went to Bandon Friday, where he accompanied his daughter, Mrs. Gus Gross.

D. D. Pierce, manager of the mill at this place, returned last Friday from a business trip to San Francisco. He was accompanied by his wife.

Mr. Samuel Morris, assistant light keeper at Slip Point, was made happy last Friday by the arrival of his family from Tillamook, Oregon.

The Coquille Valley Real Estate Co., Coquille City, Oregon, are handling city property, and all kinds of real estate. List your property with us. J. H. Cecil, Manager.

Keep the little ones healthy and happy. Their tender, sensitive bodies require gentle, healing remedies. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will keep them strong and well. 35 cents. Tea or tablets. R. S. Knowlton.

Walter Drane, of this city, started last Wednesday for his place in Eden valley. He will begin farming operations and will look after his mining interests while on this trip. However, if there is much snow he will not be able to do a great deal and will soon return and go again in a short time.

For a good pair of shoes, go to Drane's.

Photographs given away at Lorenz's.

New and heavy winter drygoods at Oliver Wilson's.

C. I. Green, of Lampa, had business in town Thursday.

Sewing machine needles and oil for all kinds of machines. Wilson Jewelry Co.

Mr. O'Conner, of Marshfield, visited the county seat on business last Thursday.

Mrs. Perrott's millinery store is now located in the Alexson building opposite the C. M. & M. Co's store.

We are in a position to offer a good piece of water front of 2 1/2 acres near town; good for mill or factory site.

Three little rules we all should keep. To make life happy and bright, Smile in the morning, smile at noon. Take Rocky Mountain Tea at night.

360 acres Coquille River Bottom Land 3 1/2 miles from Coquille City Price $20 per acre for a short time only. Enquire of D. D. Pierce, Coquille, Oregon.

Ed Gundelfinger, the popular commercial traveler representing W. P. Fuller & Co's paint house of San Francisco, visited his many customers in the valley this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hofess, late arrivals from Missouri, passed through town on Thursday en route to Dairyville, where Mr. H. will join a couple of brothers who live in that section.

H. M. Brownell, the attorney, whom we mentioned lately as having decided to locate in Jackson county, took his departure on Thursday, going out over the Myrtle Point stage line.

A. P. Alford is home again after spending some time out on the Coos Bay Wagon road. He is suffering from a fall he recently received while there. He was helping Neva Harry fall some trees along the road, and in getting out of the way of one which was falling he stumbled over some logs onto a stump and came near caving in some ribs.

Peter Loggie, the contractor and builder of the bay side, made a business trip to Myrtle Point on Thursday.

If this beautiful summer-like weather continues, our popular bicycle man, Albert Fish, will open up his shop in good shape soon. He has ordered new goods and will be in shape to accommodate the wheeling public to the satisfaction of all.

C. R. Barrow, a prominent attorney of Cherryville, Kansas, paid Coos county a short visit last week and was highly pleased with the appearance of the country. He expects to bring his wife out in the near future for a change and recreation, and may decide to locate with us.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Sherrick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago.

"Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Incredible Brutality. It would have incredible brutality if Chas. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklin's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at R. S. Knowlton's drug store.

Announcement. I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the Republican nomination for the office of sheriff of Coos county, subject to the decision of the Republican voters at the primary election on April 20th, 1906.

Announcement. I wish to announce myself as a candidate for the nomination for the office of sheriff of Coos county, subject to the approval of the electors of the Democratic party at the primary election to be held April 20, 1906.
