A. J. Hartman, head keeper of the light-house, has tendered his resignation, to take effect April 1st, or as soon thereafter as possible. Mr. Hartman has been in the service for thirteen years, and has had charge of this station for more than seven years. He has not decided on what he will do in the future, but has several positions open to him.

The basket ball games last Saturday night between the Marshfield and Bandon teams ended in a rag chewing match and neither game was finished. At the end of the first half in the boys' game the score stood 5 to 3 in favor of Bandon. During the second half the umpire and referee got to questioning each other's authority and the game came to an end, the score standing, Bandon 8, Marshfield 6. The girls then started to play but did not finish the first half. One of the Marshfield players was hurt, and the substitute would not play. The score stood 6 to 0 in favor of Bandon. It was pretty well demonstrated that the Bandon teams were a little too fast for the Marshfielders. It is to be regretted that the games were not finished as there was a good audience who had paid a good price for admission to see the games, and the Bandon team was at fifty or sixty dollars expense in getting the Marshfield teams here. After the games were broken up the Marshfield teams were given a supper, and most of the spectators went to the Bank hall, where a dance was in progress, and made an effort to forget that they had ever attended a basket ball game.

Bryan Abroad.

W. J. Bryan will write a series of letters while on his two-year tour of foreign lands. These letters will appear once a week in a select list of the leading American daily newspapers, among which is the Journal. The Bryan letters in the Sunday Journal will make clear the point of view of foreign countries on many of the questions which now confront us.

Few men are better qualified to treat large questions in a large way than Mr. Bryan, and no one who wishes to keep abreast of the times can afford to miss these letters.

The Sunday Journal is a great newspaper, filled with "good things." With its beautiful color supplements, its cartoonists like Oppen, Swinnerton, Sullivan, Howarth and others of like renown; with its special staff of famous writers, including such stars as Ella Wheeler Wilcox, Mrs. John A. Logan, Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. Henry Symes, Lady Henry Somerset, Beatrice Fairfax, Max Nordeau, Maurice Maeterlinck, Count Tolstoi, Prof. Garrett P. Serviss, and humorous sketches by George V. Hobart (Dinkelspiel), Wex Jones, William F. Kirk and others, and with all the world's news, the Sunday Journal is a thoroughly representative newspaper.

The Journal is "the paper of the multitude," in sympathy with and pledged to the cause of the masses of mankind—"equal rights to all"—a square deal.

Champion Liniment for Rheumatism

Chas Drake, a mail carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the store keeper here recommended this remedy and it completely cured me." There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. One application gives prompt relief and its continued use for a short time will produce a permanent cure. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Everyone should subscribe for his home paper, in order to get all the local news, but to keep in touch with the world's daily events should also read

Knowlton's drug store.
