

LOCAL NEWS.

Saratoga Chips at Robinson's. Benefit ball Saturday night. Mrs. E. Lewis, of Bandon, is reported ill.

John Whobrey, of the Point, went to the Bay on Thursday.

Mrs. Moon will display the Easter hats on Wednesday, April 11.

W. P. Fuller's prepared Paints, Oils and Varnishes at J. A. Lamb & Co.

Thomas Wilson, of Myrtle Point, had business in town on Saturday.

New spring line negligee and golf shirts just opened up at Robinson's.

Albert Bright, of the North Fork, was a Coquille visitor on Thursday.

Gasene soap at Drane's. The best on the market for the prices. Try it.

Buy your garden seeds at Knowlton's drug store and get the very best.

Chick Feed is the proper thing for the young chickens. Knowlton has it.

The world's best soda cracker, Uneda Biscuit, at every store in town.

A full new line of spring goods will arrive at O. Wilson & Co's this week.

Ladies, keep in mind the dress hat opening at Mrs. Moon's, on Wednesday, April 11.

Young Fred Estberg, of Eckley, passed through town Saturday on his way to San Francisco.

O. Wilson & Co. will receive this week a full line of spring dress goods. Look out for them.

Our townsman, E. F. Roberts, returned from a business trip to Roseburg one day last week.

St. James' Sunday school will hold its usual Easter Festival on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Capt. Danielson, of near Parkersburg, was up to this city on Thursday making some purchases of hardware.

Allen Collier and son, Dale, started for Moscow, Idaho, last Monday, where the former has located for the present, if not permanently.

C. I. Green and J. L. Bean, of Lampa, were in town Saturday. Mr. Green took some cows which he had purchased here, home by steamer.

The cash customer has the advantage at T. H. Mehl & Co's. They are now giving 5 per cent off of the regular prices to all who pay cash on the spot.

Henry Holm, the Marshfield market man, came over Monday and took charge of a carload of nice fat hogs which he took to the Bay for his thriving business.

Bert McCloskey, the Norway creamery man, had business in town on Saturday. He reports business good and the output of his creamery greatly on the increase.

Sheriff Gallier reports having collected on the 1905 tax roll for county during the month of February, $20,620.37, and during March, 108,887.05 were the receipts.

F. E. Allen, of Marshfield, the gentlemanly representative of the stationary firm of Blake McFall Co. of Portland, made this valley a visit last week taking orders from his many customers.

Mrs. U. S. McFarland of Marshfield (Christian Science Practitioner) was called to Mrs. J. L. Kronenberg of Parkersburg who was very low, last Tuesday. Mrs. Kronenberg has entirely recovered.

Mrs. Carl Huges is very low at the home of her sister, Mrs. Chas. Randleman, near Parkersburg. Her father and brother, Capt. George Leneve and Hugh Leneve, passed through town on Friday on their way to see her.

W. L. Kistner, of this city, went to the Bay Friday to see his wife who has just undergone an operation at the Horfall hospital, and who is getting along nicely and will be able to return home in a short time. He was accompanied by Mrs. G. S. Davis, of Norway, Mrs. Kistner's sister.

J. DeWitt Clinton, of the North Fork, was in town yesterday, being from his mine near Etna, California. He showed us three specimens of ore which was very rich in gold, one in copper, and the other both of these metals in combination. He is on a deal and will probably sell at a big figure when his parties arrived. He came out over twelve feet of snow for a distance of twenty miles.

Attend the Farmers' Institute on the 17th.

List your property with the Home Realty Co.

The choicest city locations. The Home Realty Co.

Go to Mrs. C. O. Gilkey's for Easter Candies.

Timber coal and farm lands. The Home Realty Co.

H. Root was down from the upper river on Monday.

Mrs. Dr. Steele was over from her homestead on Monday.

John Shuck, of Gravel Ford, had business in town Monday.

Buster Brown Blue Ribbon school shoes at Robinson's.

Onion sets at 12 1/2 cents per pound at O. Wilson & Co's.

A nice line of ladies' and children's hats and caps at Mrs. Perrott's.

All dancers should attend the benefit ball on Saturday night.

Bishop Morris, of the Episcopal church, died at Portland on Sunday.

Hay For Sale.—A lot of fine rye grass hay. Henry Grady, Norway.

O. Wilson & Co. sells nice fresh onion sets at 12 1/2 cents per pound.

R. C. Dement, of Myrtle Point, was a county seat visitor on Monday.

Miss Ora Devaul, of Norway, was a passenger to the Bay by yesterday's train.

S. J. McCloskey, the Norway merchant, had business in town Saturday.

George Clinton was down from Norway looking after business matters on Thursday.

A suitable reward will be paid the finder of a large leather pocket-book belonging to Walter Sinclair.

Three choice 50 ft. lots, near the school house, for sale; price $400. Address Wm. Candlin, owner, Coquille.

Robinson's store has a big line of ladies' shirt waists, muslin underwear, corset covers, dress skirts and underskirts.

For Sale.—A three-inch Studebaker wagon, good as new. Also a good work horse, weight 1000 lbs. Enquire of J. E. Quick, Coquille.

For Sale.—Eighty-five acres, all clear, house, barn and outbuildings. Good for dairy purposes. Apply to C. A. Peterson, Riverton.

The difference between "You need a biscuit," and "Uneda Biscuit" is but 5 cents, and you can split that difference at any of our stores.

We have a way of selling some goods which results in us selling more and more of them each day, for instance Schilling's Best. P. M. Drane.

How is it we are able to offer advantages when selling Schilling's Best? We handle it in larger quantities hence sell under favorable circumstances. N. Lorenz.

Why not buy your Schilling's Best from us? We carry a full line, T. A. Coffee, Baking Powder, Spices, Flavoring Extracts, and sell at minimum prices. Drane's.

The steamer Elizabeth arrived at Bandon from San Francisco, bringing a large amount of goods for our merchants which are being brought up by the lower river boats.

Thomas Heaton, the contractor, whom we mentioned last week as being in feeble health, is gradually going down in strength and small hopes are entertained for his recovery.

We give announcement of W. F. Disher as an aspirant to the candidacy for representative on the Republican ticket. Mr. Disher is well known throughout the county and it will please many of his old friends to be able to support him.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Sanford, of Vancouver, Washington, arrived here last Saturday and are enjoying a visit with Mr. Sanford's brother, Oliver, of this place, as well as many friends of his boyhood days. They also visited on the bay with Mrs. Sanford's parents and friends.

Capt. Hans Christensen, who has been assisting in the construction of the new steamer being built by Mr. Heuckendorff at Prosper, passed through town Monday on his way to the Bay for a few days visit, while work on the vessel is suspended for want of lumber.

George Martin and Capt. O. R. Willard have purchased the thoroughbred stallion, "Thad," known as the Taylor Dement horse. Mr. Martin has the animal in charge and will make his headquarters in Coquille, but will spend the season at Myrtle Point, Coquille, and as far down the river as Bandon.

Following is the musical program which will be rendered by our band next Saturday evening at their music stand: No. 1, March, "Excelsis;" 2, Overture, "What's Tramps;" 3, March, "Palm Limited;" 4, "Woodland Whispers;" 5, "Lazarus Waltzes;" 6, March, "Our Directors."

Mrs. Perrott will receive a nice line of ladies' shirt waists and muslin underwear in a few days. Don't forget the place opposite Coquille Mill & Mercantile Co's store.

Lessons in Art Needle Work.

Mrs. Frances Hill of Charleston, West Virginia, will have a display of Art needle work, April 10, at Mrs. Wickham's. Ladies interested, who desire lessons or stamping done are invited to call.

Olives in bulk at Robinson's. Wright's medicated underwear at Drane's.

Go to Lorenz's to get a phonograph free.

James Hervy was down from Lee on Monday.

Fred Moser was down from Gravel Ford on Monday.

For a nice ready made wrapper or waist go to O. Wilson & Co's.

Dave Mathers was up from Riverton doing some trading on Monday.

Farmers institute at this city on April 17th. All should turn out.

T. P. Haynes, who is teaching school at Lee, was in town on Saturday.

The Home Realty Co., has the buyers. List your property with them.

S. B. Cathcart, the surveyor, come over from Marshfield on Saturday.

A tract of Red Cedar timber out lay for shingle mill. The Home Realty Co.

For Sale.—A fine lot White Nile Peas at 2 1/2 per pound. Glenn Collier, Coquille.

The gasoline schooner Berwick arrived in the river from San Francisco on Saturday.

Besides a full stock of grass seeds, Knowlton has the best varieties of Corn, Beets and Carrots.

Fine, thoroughbred Brown Leghorn eggs for setting at J. C. Watson's. Per setting $1.00; $5 per 100.

We are in a position to offer a good piece of water front of 2 1/2 acres near town; good for mill or factory site.

Those who have tried all kinds claim the Northern grown seeds the best. Three papers for 10 cents at Knowlton's drug store.

For Sale.—Six head of good milch cow, enquire of F. L. Smith, Fishtrap, Oregon, or J. C. Wilson, Prosper, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Holst, Mrs. C. Holst, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Heller, of Eureka, California, registered at Hotel Coquille on Thursday.

Bobby Folk, of Hotel Coquille, had the misfortune to fall down stairs last week. It required several stitches by Dr. Wetmore to patch up his smiling face.

Oscar Edwards, county surveyor of Douglas county, and city engineer of Roseburg, spent several days in town last week, having had business before our county court.

There will be a benefit ball given Saturday night for the benefit of Mr. Porter, the young man who got his hand sawed off Monday night. All dancers should attend.

S. L. Curry, of this city, who has been operating a planer at the Aberdeen mill, had the misfortune to so bruise one of his fingers last week that amputation was necessary.

Capt. W. S. Steep, who has been helping Ralph Hunt in gathering statistics, etc., for a railroad company, went to the Bay last Monday, having been at Bandon for several weeks.

About three thousand logs came out of the North Fork the forepart of last week by the slight rise in the river at that time. There are many more near the mouth of that fork which can be brought out on the slightest rise.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson, of this city, received a letter from their daughter, Mrs. Dave Albart, of Hardy, California, last Friday stating herself, Mr. Albart and their two little daughters, had had a runaway accident, in which all were hurt to a greater or less extent, while little Dorothy received an ugly cut in the face, necessitating her being chloroformed and requiring nine stitches to close. The other little girl got a severe scalp wound. We sincerely hope for them all a hasty and complete recovery.

Following is the musical program which will be rendered by our band next Saturday evening at their music stand: No. 1, March, "Excelsis;" 2, Overture, "What's Tramps;" 3, March, "Palm Limited;" 4, "Woodland Whispers;" 5, "Lazarus Waltzes;" 6, March, "Our Directors."

Mrs. Perrott will receive a nice line of ladies' shirt waists and muslin underwear in a few days. Don't forget the place opposite Coquille Mill & Mercantile Co's store.

Lessons in Art Needle Work.

Mrs. Frances Hill of Charleston, West Virginia, will have a display of Art needle work, April 10, at Mrs. Wickham's. Ladies interested, who desire lessons or stamping done are invited to call.

Local Option Loses.

The supreme court handed down a decision in the local option case from this place, reversing the lower court, and deciding that the election was illegal.

Robinson's store has ladies' shirt waists from 50c to $5.00.

John Donaldson had business which called him to this city on Monday.

For a good bargain in a single buggy and harness or either, call at this office.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Abernethy, of Dora, passed through town Monday on their way home from the bay.

Look out for the largest and finest stock of drygoods ever opened in Coquille, to arrive at N. Lorenz's soon.

Wm. Coats, of Bandon, paid Coquille a visit a day or so last week and shook hands with many old comrade friends.

It pays to use Stock Food at this time of the year. Better get a package at Knowlton's drug store and try it with your cow.

Nelson Jones who spent last season at Maxwell has rented the Geo. Conger place, opposite town and will move to it this week.

This is the time of year that the best results are obtained by using Stock Food. Knowlton has a large supply of all different kinds.

J. D. Hamlin, bookkeeper and manager of the Company's store at Beaver Hill, had business in Coquille on Monday. He reports the outlook for business as being very flattering.

Our farmer friends should not forget, nor neglect to attend the Farmers' Institute which convenes at this city on the 17th. It will doubtless be a meeting of great importance to each and every one who attends.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

M. E. Volkman, timekeeper for Dean & Co. at the new railroad work on Cunningham, informs us that they have a crew of twenty-five men at work now and are adding to that number as fast as places can be made. They will probably have twice as many in a short time.

Hand Cut Off.

F. R. Porter, nightwatchman at the Coquille Mill & Mercantile Co's mill, had the misfortune to lose his right hand while cleaning up the mill on Monday night. It seems he had started up the engines to run the elevators to carry out the sawdust, and while working about the edger, his hand was caught by one of the saws and so mangled that amputation was necessary. Mr. Porter is a young man and this loss, while being irreparable, is also inestimable. He has our deepest sympathy.

He was attended by Dr. Wetmore, assisted by G. W. Shelly, a traveling man who is a pharmacist and who administered the chloroform like an old hand at the business.

Phonographs given away at Lorenz's.

Paul Peralta, bookkeeper for the Coquille Mill & Mercantile Co., made Bandon a visit the last of the week.

H. M. Tuttle, of Marshfield visited friends in town the latter part of last week. The Herald acknowledges a pleasant call.

Mr. Hansen got mixed up with the logging engine and the ties at Aasen Brothers' camp, requiring surgical attendance by Dr. Wetmore.

Mrs. Geo. Martin came down from Eckley to Myrtle Point the part of the week and on Saturday made her husband a short visit at this place.

Fred Muetzel had the misfortune to lose part of the thumb, index and middle fingers of the left hand, the 9th. Dr. Wetmore dressed the injured member.

L. H. Morgan, of this city, who has been at a hospital in San Francisco for several weeks being treated for a nervous affection from which he has been suffering for some time, returned home last Thursday very little, if at all, improved. He was accompanied by Mrs. Morgan, who went down to return with him.

L. H. Morgan, of this city, who has been at a hospital in San Francisco for several weeks being treated for a nervous affection from which he has been suffering for some time, returned home last Thursday very little, if at all, improved. He was accompanied by Mrs. Morgan, who went down to return with him.

L. H. Morgan, of this city, who has been at a hospital in San Francisco for several weeks being treated for a nervous affection from which he has been suffering for some time, returned home last Thursday very little, if at all, improved. He was accompanied by Mrs. Morgan, who went down to return with him.

L. H. Morgan, of this city, who has been at a hospital in San Francisco for several weeks being treated for a nervous affection from which he has been suffering for some time, returned home last Thursday very little, if at all, improved. He was accompanied by Mrs. Morgan, who went down to return with him.

L. H. Morgan, of this city, who has been at a hospital in San Francisco for several weeks being treated for a nervous affection from which he has been suffering for some time, returned home last Thursday very little, if at all, improved. He was accompanied by Mrs. Morgan, who went down to return with him.

L. H. Morgan, of this city, who has been at a hospital in San Francisco for several weeks being treated for a nervous affection from which he has been suffering for some time, returned home last Thursday very little, if at all, improved. He was accompanied by Mrs. Morgan, who went down to return with him.

L. H. Morgan, of this city, who has been at a hospital in San Francisco for several weeks being treated for a nervous affection from which he has been suffering for some time, returned home last Thursday very little, if at all, improved. He was accompanied by Mrs. Morgan, who went down to return with him.

L. H. Morgan, of this city, who has been at a hospital in San Francisco for several weeks being treated for a nervous affection from which he has been suffering for some time, returned home last Thursday very little, if at all, improved. He was accompanied by Mrs. Morgan, who went down to return with him.

L. H. Morgan, of this city, who has been at a hospital in San Francisco for several weeks being treated for a nervous affection from which he has been suffering for some time, returned home last Thursday very little, if at all, improved. He was accompanied by Mrs. Morgan, who went down to return with him.

L. H. Morgan, of this city, who has been at a hospital in San Francisco for several weeks being treated for a nervous affection from which he has been suffering for some time, returned home last Thursday very little, if at all, improved. He was accompanied by Mrs. Morgan, who went down to return with him.

L. H. Morgan, of this city, who has been at a hospital in San Francisco for several weeks being treated for a nervous affection from which he has been suffering for some time, returned home last Thursday very little, if at all, improved. He was accompanied by Mrs. Morgan, who went down to return with him.

L. H. Morgan, of this city, who has been at a hospital in San Francisco for several weeks being treated for a nervous affection from which he has been suffering for some time, returned home last Thursday very little, if at all, improved. He was accompanied by Mrs. Morgan, who went down to return with him.