Bryan Abroad. W. J. Bryan will write a series of letters while on his two-year tour of foreign lands. These letters will appear once a week in a select list of the leading American daily newspapers, among which is the Journal.

The Bryan letters in the Sunday Journal will make clear the point of view of foreign countries on many of the questions which now confront us.

Few men are better qualified to treat large questions in a large way than Mr. Bryan, and no one who wishes to keep abreast of the times can afford to miss these letters.

The Sunday Journal is a great newspaper, filled with "good things." With its beautiful color supplements, its cartoonists like Oppen, Swinerton, Sullivan, Howarth and others of like renown; with its special staff of famous writers, including such stars as Ella Wheeler Wilcox, Mrs. John A. Logan, Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. Henry Symes, Lady Henry Somerset, Beatrice Fairfax, Max Nordau, Maurice Maeterlinck, Count Tolstoi, Prof. Garrett P. Serviss, and humorous sketches by George V. Hobart (Dinkelspiel), Wex Jones, William F. Kirk and others, and with all the world's news by leased wire, and the home news, The Sunday Journal is a thoroughly representative newspaper.
