Purity crackers, fresh stock, at the Coquille Mill & Mercantile Co's.

S. R. Lushbaugh, a sawmill man on Big creek was arrested last week by Deputy Fish Warden W. L. Condon for allowing saw dust from his mill to be washed into the river. His fine was $50.

A public school entertainment will be given at the Masonic Hall Friday evening, May 25th, for the purpose of raising money to defray the expense of the commencement exercises. Admission 15, 25 and 35 cents.

A big assortment of novelties in ladies' neckwear and those large shell hair pins at Robinson's.

L. H. Pearce, the Myrtle Point harness maker, has installed a Landis wax sewing machine which was received by the train Tuesday. It means a good sized investment, but Mr. Pearce hopes to make it profitable both to his patrons and himself.

Mrs. V. L. Arrington, of Myrtle Point, the nurse, who went to Bandon last week to help take care of Miss Bushnell, who is suffering from a fracture of the skull, returned home Monday, and was accompanied from this city by her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Haynes.

The severe rains of the past several days have been of much benefit to farmers and log-rafters, but the roads have suffered some and traveling is rendered quite unpleasant. A good spell of nice warm sunshine will no doubt follow and prove highly acceptable to everyone.

O. Wilson & Co. will receive this week a full line of spring dress goods. Look out for them.

Miss Irene Lamb who has just graduated from the Conservatory of Music of Columbia College, Milton, and who possesses diplomas for both piano and mandolin, is now prepared to receive pupils for either piano or mandolin. Miss Lamb is a thorough musician and pupils entrusted to her care will receive careful and up-to-date instruction at the usual prices. Pupils will please call at the residence of J. J. Lamb, Coquille, Oregon.

Bonus.—At National City, California, May 14, 1906, to Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Snook a son. A card from the doctor to Mrs. Figg of this city informs her that all are well.

A good lot of cull lumber at the Coquille mill at $4.50 per thousand.

Miss Rachael Wilson, who makes her home with her sister, Mrs. David Fulton, in this city, who had the misfortune to fall and fracture her collar bone a week or so ago, is recovering nicely.

Chick Feed is the proper thing for the young chickens. Knowlton has it.

Mrs. Ada Howard, of Everett, Washington, state organizer for the Royal Neighbors, the ladies' auxiliary to the Modern Woodmen of America, has been in town several days, and is doing some good work for the camp at this place.

A big lot of sugar and fresh groceries just in from Portland at Robinson's.

The mill of the Coquille Mill and Mercantile Co. has been closed down since Friday for want of logs. It is the purpose, we believe, to get logs from L. J. Cody's camp and start up shortly. Mr. Cody has the boom at his landing heavily stocked at the present time.

WANTED.—Cook and housekeeper in small family. Inquire at the Herald office.

The protracted meetings which had been going on at the Christian church the past three weeks by Rev. F. E. Billington, closed Sunday afternoon. Nine accessions were added to the church, and arrangements were made by which a minister will take charge of the work here, dividing his time between this city and Myrtle Point.

FOR SALE.—One fine yoke of work oxen. Price $80 or will trade for cows. Nelson Jones.

Miss Mary Chase, a gifted lecturer on woman suffrage, spoke in support of the equal rights amendment at the court house last evening, and was given a cordial welcome by our people. The Herald goes to press too soon to give its wished-for report of the meeting, but is confident that Miss Chase, who is traveling in the interest of her subject, made a good impression here. Our suffrage advocates kindly yielded their set date, Monday evening, to Chas. V. Galloway, the Democratic nominee for Congress.

Besides a full stock of grass seeds, Knowlton has the best varieties of Corn, Beets and Carrots.

W. T. Estberg, the mine operator, passed over to the Bay Monday, and returned yesterday. He, in company with his son-in-law, H. J. Kingston, will soon start for Philadelphia where they will spend the summer, there not being sufficient water on his claim for summer-working. He will continue the placer mining next winter, and next summer he expects to put in a steam engine with which to hoist the ore and then he will be able to continue operations on his quart ledge during the next summer. Mr. Estberg is highly pleased with the prospects of his mines, and has all faith in Coos county as a rich gold producing section as soon as it is thoroughly whoked.

This is the time of year that the best results are obtained by using Stock Ford. Knowlton has a large supply of all different kinds.

A. J. Sherwood and W. L. Kistner, last week, consummated negotiations for sale of the large tract of land across the river from Coquille, known as the Beale tract and belonging to D. Grant Beale and his sister, Mrs. LaBrie. The purchaser is Z. Russ & Sons company, of Eureka, California. These people are amply able to improve this body of land, and in all probability a 35 foot ditch will go from the river to the foot hills the coming summer. Mr. Sherwood and Mr. Kistner have been working on this sale several months. The price paid was $50,000, and is the largest sale of farm lands ever made in Coos county.

Ladies' neck wear and laces at O. Wilson & Co's.

Fred Moser of Gravel Ford was in town Saturday.

J. E. Doyle was down from Myrtle Point on Thursday.

Our sportsmen are getting a considerable number of pigeons these days.

Try the After Dinner Mint for indigestion. At Drane's.

The copious showers of the past week are making grass and other vegetation grow very rapidly, but retarding logging by team to a considerable extent.

Muslin underwear for ladies and children at Mrs. Perrott's.

John Neil of Etelka was down to town Saturday, he having come to Johnson's mill to see about the lumber for the erection of a new school house in his district.

For a nice ready made wrapper or waist go to O. Wilson & Co's.

T. B. Wheeler of San Francisco, who has been in Coos county for several weeks past looking at the country, accompanied by his son, E. L. Wheeler, and Clarence L. Johnston, who had just arrived from the city with the object of giving things a little time to readjust themselves after earthquake disaster, went to Bandon Thursday, since when they have visited the bay. The two young gentlemen are members of the real estate firm of the Edgar L. Wheeler Company of San Francisco, which firm was doing a good business before the quake.

O. Wilson & Co. has just received a fine line of ladies' neckwear and laces.

George W. Moore, a leading citizen of Port Huron, Michigan, was sojourning in this section of the valley a few days since our last. The gentleman holds the responsible position of Bank Commissioner for the state of Michigan, and was formerly associated in the lumber business there with L. J. Cody, now a prosperous logger of the lower Coquille. He spent Saturday night under the hospitable roof of Mr. Cody near Lampa, returning to Coquille Sunday evening. On the morning following he started on his return to Michigan, via Roseburg and Sacramento.

Drane keeps the celebrated Cahn-Nicholsberg shoes. The place for bargains.

Hon. Chas. V. Galloway, Democratic nominee for Congress from this district, spoke to the people of Coquille at the court house Monday evening, and was accorded a rousing meeting and rapt attention throughout his 50 minutes' address. Mr. Galloway is one of McMinnville's brightest young men and very best orators. His presentation of the political issues, as seen from the Democratic viewpoint, was an eloquent and convincing one, and he was frequently interrupted by applause. A. J. Sherwood presided over the meeting in the absence of Chairman Stanley of the Democratic County Committee, and the local brass band rendered inspiring music. The speaker, who paid the Herald a pleasant call, left for Marshfield by yesterday's train.

Good pasture for stock, on Marshfield road one mile from town. Inquire of Allen McLeod.

Miss Gertrude Bushnell of Myrtle Point is at the Tupper House, Bandon, in a rather serious condition, the result of striking her head against a shelf as she was raising up after stooping for some napkins. It was at first thought she was not seriously hurt, having gone on with her work the balance of that day and the morning of the next; but later her head began to pain her, and since then she is becoming paralyzed, and it is quite evident that the skull is fractured to that extent that an operation will be necessary to give relief. Her father is with her, and Mrs. V. L. Arrington of Myrtle Point also went down Friday. Everything is being done that loving hands can do, and it is hoped that she will be able to be taken to a hospital on the bay soon.

We have a way of selling some goods which results in us selling more and more of them each day, for instance Schilling's Best. P. E. Drane.

V. R. Wilson, the jeweler, has become an expert student of the ills of the dog family, and it is not unlikely that he will soon have a full-fledged hospital for the treatment of canines in our growing community. For some weeks past the gentleman has been struggling to stay the ebbing vitality in his interesting pet "pup," who threatened to turn his toes toward the moon, and the treatment resolved upon is having a "howling" effect for convalescence. The dog is a very intelligent animal, and it is but natural that his master, who is strongly attached to him, should strive to prolong his days. So in view of the beneficial treatment in this case we would urge that all owners of suffering poodles confide their troubles speedily in V. R. Wilson, D. D. (doctor of dogs).

The HERALD last week in giving a list of the candidates endorsed by the Law and Order League inadvertently omitted the name of W. W. Gage, Democratic candidate for Sheriff. We cheerfully make apology for the oversight.

A pretty home wedding was celebrated Wednesday, May 9, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Morrison, of East Second street, Miss Minnie Nesler, was united in marriage to George Hartley, formerly of San Diego, the Rev. Mr. Dixon, officiating.—Los Angeles Examiner.

Marshall McDonald, one of our popular tansorialists, took a drive to the poor farm the other day, accompanied by Mrs. McDonald, and spent a few hours very pleasantly with Supt. and Mrs. Odburt. Marshall is said to have made a careful study of gardening while there, and gotten some valuable pointers from the luckless dependents who are experts in the raising of "truck." He regards it as not at all unlikely, perhaps, that he may some day become the man with the hoe instead of the man with the razor, though this is not intimating an expectation on his part to weed "taters" under the sympathetic eye of Supt. Odburt. However, as a precautionary step against just such unforeseen and unhelped-for contingency, Mr. Odburt has had made a muck-rake and hoe of a design appealing to the fancy of the visiting tansorialist.

All smart up-to-date women of today, know how to bake, wash, sing and play. Without these talents a wife is N. G. Unless she takes Rocky Mountain Tea. R. S. Knowlton.

Mammoth Log Drive.

The recent rains having perceptibly swollen the waters of the North Fork, another big log drive was begun last Friday, and it was expected to get the logs to the main stream by Monday. The Herald is informed that the moving mass embraces about 8,000 logs, or from six to eight million feet, all good fir timber. Some forty or more men were engaged in rafting the mass down the North Fork, and as usual it was no trifling task to perform. The logs in most part are for L. J. Simpson, of North Bend, and on reaching this section will be taken out at Cedar Point and loaded on cars for transportation to the bay. A small portion of the lot were disposed of to Alfred Johnson, the millman, and landed at his boom south of Coquille.
