

Coquille Herald.

D. F. DEAN, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

County Official Paper.

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY.

Devoted to the material and social upbuilding of the Coquille Valley particularly of Coos County generally.

Phone, Main 55.

Thos. Drane, of Parkersburg, was in town Thursday.

The best books by standard authors, classic and popular fiction, at Knowlton's

E. S. Elliott, of Bandon, was a Coquille visitor a day or so the middle of last week.

Our newest arrivals—those stylish men's hats direct from St. Louis, at Robinson's.

W. R. Beckett returned Friday from a trip up the country, having been as far as Roseburg.

L. W. Deyoe, of Fairview, returned Thursday from a visit with her son, F. W. Barker, of Prosper.

Mrs. Walter James, of Myrtle Point, visited relatives and friends in this place the middle of last week.

If you want a good comb, hair brush, tooth brush, nail brush or bath brush go to Knowlton's drug store.

Mrs. A. McCue, of Parkersburg, was in town on Thursday and made our office a pleasant business call.

The everlasting fruit jar is the best. No metal can come in contact with the fruit, Leneve sells them.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Smalley, of Arago, made us a pleasant visit on Thursday of last week while in town on business.

WANTED.—A good girl to do general housework. Wages from $15 to $20 per month. Inquire of F. S. Dowe, Marshfield.

Ed Fish, of Bandon, shook hands with many friends in town on Friday. He tells us that his father is becoming very feeble.

Opportunity for a short time 120 acre ranch 30 acres bottom 40 acres vacant timber adjoining, well situated. $1100. Home Realty Co.

John Miller, of Cunningham, who has been employed in O'Connell's hardware store at Marshfield for some time, visited his home last week.

FOR SALE.—Some fine Bottom Land Farms, in large or small lots to suit purchaser, cheap and on easy terms. E. N. Smith, Myrtle Point, Oregon.

Roy Stevens, of Myrtle Point, will soon be out with his hay baler and ready to answer calls. Mr. Stevens does good and fast work at $1.50 per ton.

For each 25-cent purchase at Mrs. Nosler's you will receive a ticket good for one guess at the number of beans, pins, coffee, etc. in a jar, winner to receive a gold eagle.

Mrs. Gorham, of the lower river, went to Norway Thursday to visit her daughter, Mrs. M. L. Randleman. She was accompanied by Mrs. Chas. Randleman.

L. H. Hazard, W. H. Lyons, L. P. Maury, Fred Slagle, Dr. Butler, Theodore Land and Bert Pinney started for Brewster valley on Thursday of last week for an outing. We presume the funny tribe has suffered.

A. G. Aiken, of Marshfield, the game warden, returned Friday from a trip through Curry county in the discharge of his duties. He tells us that most of the people are good, and that there is some game left to protect. He saw one fine, big elk and saw many tracks, while deer were quite numerous. It is the belief of many that if there are not too many violations of the elk law, that by the time the ten years are up that there will be a goodly number of these noble animals in Coos and Curry counties.

Books have been written about Theodore Roosevelt but no one has so aptly analyzed his character as Senator Rayner who said, "The President is so constituted that he cannot see a trap without examining the spring."

The Nobel prize is given each year to the person who has done most toward promoting universal peace. It is claimed that President Roosevelt will probably be honored with it this year though if it were left to Congress the President would scarcely stand a better chance of getting it than Senator Tillman.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, there was submitted to the electors of the State at the last general election as required by law an initiative petition for,

"A law to provide additional revenue for state purposes and to levy a license on the gross earnings of certain companies and corporations, to-wit: express companies or corporations, telephone companies or corporations doing business in this state; defining the manner of ascertaining the amount of such gross earnings, providing a penalty for violating the provisions of the act, defining an express company, a telephone company and a telegraph company within the meaning of the act;" and

Whereas, on the 25th day of June, 1906, the Secretary of State in my presence as Governor of the State of Oregon did canvass the votes given for and against said law, and

Whereas, it was ascertained and determined upon such canvass that there were 70,872 votes cast for said proposed law, and 6,360 votes against the same, and that said proposed law received an affirmative majority of the total number of effective votes cast thereon and entitled to be counted under the provisions of law,

Now, therefore, I, George E. Chamberlain, as Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to and by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by law, do hereby make and issue this proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, and do announce and declare that the whole number of votes cast in the State of Oregon at said election for and against said proposed law was as hereinbefore stated, and that said proposed law received an affirmative majority of the total number of votes cast thereon and entitled to be counted under the provisions of law, and that said law hereinbefore mentioned shall be and is in full force and effect as the law of the State of Oregon from the date of this proclamation.

Done at the Capitol at Salem this 25th day of June A. D. 1906.

Geo. E. Chamberlain,
Governor of Oregon.

By the Governor:
F. I. Dunbar,
Secretary of State.

Public is Aroused

The public is aroused to knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic. Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 546 St. Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months, I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters, I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at Knowlton's drug store; price 50c.

Mrs. Erla Carlock of the San Jose conservatory wishes to announce that she is permanently located in this valley, and will receive pupils in Piano and Organ at regular rates. Mrs. Carlock is an experienced teacher and uses the most modern methods of instruction; that her ability is being recognized is evidenced by her large and growing class. For particulars call at the Tuttle Hotel, Coquille; Myrtle Point Hotel, Myrtle Point, or address at Coquille, Oregon.

WANTED: By Chicago wholesale and mail order house, assistant manager (man or woman) for this county and adjoining territory. Salary $20 and expenses paid weekly; expense money advanced. Work pleasant; position permanent. No investment or experience required. Spare time valuable. Write at once for particulars and enclose self-addressed envelope. Superintendent, 132 Lake St. Chicago, Ill.

Nothing on the Market Equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This fact is well known to druggists everywhere, and nine out of ten will give their customers this preparation when the best is asked for. Mr. Obe Witmer, a prominent druggist of Joplin, Mo., in a circular to his customers, says: "There is nothing on the market in the way of patent medicine which equals Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. We sell and recommend this preparation." For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Protect your cows from the pesky flies by spraying with Fly Killers. Knowlton's drug store has a stock of sprayers and standard preparations for that purpose.

SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF COOS:

J. J. Stanley, Plaintiff,

vs.
A. J. Hackett, Jane L. Jacob, D. H. Crouter, D. W. Crouter, Otis Eastman, M. F. Walsh, P. Whittleton, I. Weaver, Charles Wolveroth, Geo. A. Thompson, M. J. Bellinger, C. F. Beamman, Charles S. Eveland, W. H. French, W. B. Smith, Mattie Cox, Defendants.
