

LOCAL NEWS.

HERALD Phone, Main 55.
Economy fruit jars at O. Wilson & Co's.
G. S. Davis, of Norway, was in town Monday.
D. W. Baker, of Lee, was in this city on Monday.
Henry Vergil was up from the lower river on Thursday.
J. D. Dyer, of Sumner, was a Coquille visitor on Friday.
Rolled barley, bran, oats and wheat at J. W. Leneve's store.
Surveyor Cathcart had business the county seat on Monday.
G. W. Sinclair went to Marshfield Monday and returned today.
D. D. Pierce is moving into the new home near the Sentinel.
We have an upholsterer in town. Have your furniture looked after by him.
J. D. Donaldson, of the lower river, went to the Bay on business Monday.
J. M. Upton, the Marshfield attorney, spent a couple of days in town this week.
Fred McLean, the Myrtle Point mill man was down this way the end of the week.
The public school library is closed and will not be opened anymore school starts.
Jack Bruce goes to the Bay today to take a steamer for Eureka. His trip is much better.
Mrs. Leneve's silk and wool underwear at J. W. Leneve's.
Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rice and Miss Lulah Walker are back from their camping trip to the Bridge section.
More new goods just in at J. W. Leneve's store.
Mrs. D. R. Lewis, of Gravel Ford, accompanied by her daughter Mrs. Bert Goetz, went to the Bay yesterday.
The perfumery at Knowlton's store.
Heller, of Dora was in town Monday. He is about ready to start out with his threshing machine.
For big bargains go to Lorenz's closing out sale.
G. F. Slankard, a late arrival from California, is in this vicinity looking for a purchase in farm or dairy land to his liking.
Order your ice from the O. K. creamery.
Henry Sengstacken, the hustling real estate dealer of Marshfield, is over to the county seat on business Monday morning.
For first-class watch repairing to W. H. Schroeder's.
Hardee Mast came to town Monday bringing his mother who is suffering from an attack of erysipelas. We hope she will be all right soon.
Great Bargains at the closing out sale at Lorenz's store.
Miss Iva Langworthy, the "no-bello" girl at Myrtle Point during the absence of Miss Lily Way who is visiting her friend, Miss Edna Parsley, at Roseburg.
Have you seen that beautiful stoneware at O. Wilson & Co's?
There is to be an ice cream social at the M. E. church, South, at Fishtrap landing, Saturday evening, Sept. 1st, the proceeds of which are to go to the furnishing of the church building. All are invited.
For SALE—New Underwood typewriter. Inquire of Mrs. C. L. Moon, Coquille.
J. L. Roberts, of the Myrtle Point Enterprise, was down the end of the week to see his wife who has been in town some time suffering from an attack of pleurisy. She expects to be able to go home tomorrow.
Ten cents per lb., live weight, will be paid for chickens by the Coquille Valley Packing Co.
Will Westbrook who came in on the Eden valley country on Sunday evening, started on his turn on Monday. He informs us at Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Roberts is well and enjoying themselves at-class in the mountains.
Geo. T. Moulton, the station agent at this city, will pay the highest cash price for Chittim bark.
Mrs. John Yoakam, whom we have mentioned several times lately as being in a critical condition, being a sufferer from Consumption, and who returned last week from Arizona whither she had gone in hopes of benefiting her health, passed away yesterday morning at her home near Green Point. The funeral takes place at Marshfield on Wednesday.

Purity crackers at the Mill store.
Mrs. W. H. Logan, of Bandon, was in town Monday.
Chas. Lyons returned from a trip to Eureka, Cal., on Friday.
Judge Sehlbrede came over from Marshfield on business Monday.
J. L. Kronenberg, the sawmill man, went to San Francisco last week.
BORN.—At Fairview, Oregon, August 18, 1906, to Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Barker, a son.
Ice cream social at Methodist church at Fishtrap landing, Saturday evening, Sept. 1st.
E. N. Smith, the hustler of Myrtle Point, returned from a business trip to the Bay Saturday.
Gents' hats of all styles and kinds at the C. M. & M. Co's store.
Soldiers' Encampment and Pioneers' Reunion at Myrtle Point today, tomorrow and next day.
Closing out sale at Strang's store beginning the 6th.
Joel Patterson arrived home Thursday from a sojourn of several weeks in the Eden valley country.
New laces and ribbons at Robinson's.
Mrs. Wilber Hoover, of Norway, went to Bandon Saturday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Felter.
Timber coal and farm lands. The Home Realty Co.
Peter Axe, the vegetable grower of the Middle Fork, was in town last week with a couple of loads of nice garden sauce.
Robinson expects his large stock of fall dress goods in soon.
Mrs. A. L. Nosler, of Bridge, came to town last Wednesday and is enjoying a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. P. Messer, and many friends of this city.
Large stock of fall dress goods to arrive at Robinson's.
Frank Shannon, and wife of Bandon, was in town Monday. He visited his old comrade, J. A. Wilson, who has been ill for some time, but who is much better.
The fruit season is here and so is Drane's fruit jars. The Everylast-ing.
Bud Mansell has navigated our streets on crutches the past few days, the result of a fall he got from the staging from which he was helping to paint the residence of L. H. Hazard.
See the advertisement of Nels. P. Nelson, of Prosper, in another column.
Earl Simpson, who had been working at the Farrin mill, got a couple of his fingers pretty badly mashed one day last week. Dr. Wetmore dressed the injury which is doing nicely.
The Coquille Valley Packing Co. pays 10c per pound for chickens—live weight.
W. F. Riley, formerly publisher of the Port Orford Tribune, who now resides in San Jose, Cal., arrived in town Monday on his way to his old home in Curry county for an outing and to look after some business matters.
A tract of Red Cedar timber out for shingle mill. The Home Realty Co.
Jas. Waltermier, one of the young men falling trees at R. J. Dean's place for the Ferrin sawmill, had the misfortune to fall from a spring board Monday, and in an attempt to catch himself, struck his hand against the saw, severely lacerating the back of the hand.
Robinson has a complete line of men and ladies' underwear coming in this week.
Guerin Bros. expect to begin shipping apples and crabapples to the city next week, though the shipping facilities are more or less uncertain and not to be depended upon for large future business. In addition to buying much of the crop in this section they have purchased some of the best fruit in the Coos river valley.—Enterprise.
Dr. Tatom, the dentist, is now located in rooms over Pierce's store and ready to wait on customers at any and all times.
The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. Church will give a social entitled "A Trip Around the World," on Wednesday Sept. 5th. Passengers will meet at the Union Depot, residence of Mrs. D. D. Pierce opposite Sentinel office, where tickets can be purchased 25 cents for the round trip; children under 12 years 15 cents. Trains will leave every 30 minutes in charge of a Pullman car conductor, and will visit New York city, Germany, Japan, Ireland and Home. Fine scenery & good entertainment guaranteed.

The Coquille band boys have received their new uniforms.
Wm. Richardson, of Parkersburg, went to the Bay on Monday.
Mrs. Fannie Dyer, of Bandon, visited Mrs. Buck here Monday.
Thomas Devereux, of Parkersburg had business in town on Monday.
Attorney Blake, of North Bend, was among the business visitors to the county seat on Monday.
Attend the Soldiers' Encampment and Pioneers' Reunion at Myrtle Point, beginning today.
New Goods! New Goods!! New Goods!!! at Robinson's.
All who can should attend the Encampment and Reunion at Myrtle Point today, tomorrow and next day.
C. M. & M. Co. agents for Selig Bros. & Sacks.
Mrs. J. G. Fish, of this city, returned last week from a visit with relatives and friends at Myrtle Point.
Special sale of all summer goods every day at O. Wilson & Co's.
W. R. Miller, of the Myrtle Point section, made our office an exceedingly pleasant business call while in town on Saturday.
The People's Market always keeps fresh vegetables.
Peter Johnson required the services of Dr. Wetmore on the 23d, inst. In a mixup with an ax he came out second best.
Pasture for stock about one mile from town. Good feed and water. Call at the Herald office.
Mrs. Bullock and her sons have sold out their ranch of 320 acres on Cunningham to W. F. Squires Monday for $12,000. They are dickering now with J. P. Messer for his place on the same creek.
Knowlton's drug store carries a large line of blank books, also a complete line of legal blanks.
Elijah Smith, of the Southern Oregon Co., and R. E. Shine, secretary, passed through to Myrtle Point Saturday. Mr. Smith went on to Portland via Roseburg while Mr. Shine returned this way Monday.
Ladies' shoes and ties, right from the east, up-to-date and reasonable in price at the C. M. & M. Co's store.
Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Mehl went to Marshfield Saturday with a rig, and on Sunday returned, bringing Mrs. D. L. Albert, of Hardy, California, who is here to see her mother, Mrs. Alfred Johnson, who has been ill for some weeks.
Licorice Liver Laxative, the best bowel cleanser. Price 50 cents. For sale by R. S. Knowlton, Coquille City; C. Y. Lowe, Bandon.
Rev. G. H. Gibbs, D. D., agent of Milton college, Milton, Oregon, of the M. E. church South, will preach in that church in this city next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and will speak on "Education" at 8 p. m. of the same day. All are cordially invited to attend these services. H. M. Branham, pastor.
Economize your barn room by having your hay baled. Roy Stevens will do the work quickly and cheaply. Write him at Myrtle Point.
J. C. Shields, of Fourmile, came up to the county seat on Monday to file on a homestead. He drove over the Bandon-Coquille road, and he says that the new portion of that thoroughfare is something of which our people may justly feel proud. The grade is easy and the road in perfect condition, makes it a pleasure to drive over that portion from Riverton to Lampa. Mr. Shields took an active part in the promotion of this road and naturally feels a keen interest in its success.
Robinson has just received a full and complete line of Brown Shoe Co's shoes for men, women and children, in fact more than he can get on his shelves.
The Coos Bay Publishing Co. announces that they will publish a magazine, to be called The Coos Bay Monthly, the first issue to appear Sept. 1st. It will contain 64 pages, comprising local stories and pictures, editorial comment, short stories etc., and the subscription price will be one dollar a year. P. C. Levar, late of the Daily and Weekly Coast Mail, will be editor. Mr. Levar is a good writer and is thoroughly capable of conducting the magazine along lines that will meet with the approval of the reading public, not only in this limited section, but throughout the broader field outside. The Monthly will help Coos Bay, and coupled with the fact that every subscriber will get more than his money's worth, it should meet with hearty encouragement and a liberal patronage.—News.

Full stock of A. A. Cutter shoes Lorenz's.
H. Bettys, of Fairview, was among Coquille's business visitors on Friday.
I. N. DeLong, the machinist, was up from the lower river on Saturday.
C. I. Green, the rushing farmer, of Lampa, was transacting business in town Thursday.
Miss Ora Conger, of Bandon, visited her cousin, Miss Esther Boyd, returning Monday.
The schooner San Beuna Ventura, which came into the river on Friday, is now taking on a cargo of lumber at the Riverton mill.
Nobby suits for small boys at J. W. Leneve's.
The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Foulkes, of Beaver Hill, was quite ill last week, but was very much better at last accounts.
Ladies go to the Mill store for bargains in fine shoes.
A. P. Miller, of this city, started yesterday for the hop yard of Dan Root with the Misses Gertrude Miller, Cella Webb, Amie Kelly and Gladys and LeAnna Gage, who will enjoy an outing and pick hops.
Big closing out sale on after the 6th at Strang's.
Robert Graham, one of the young men who got into trouble at Empire some time ago, and was held to appear at circuit court, died suddenly at North Bend on Friday last. Cigarette smoking is said to have caused his death.—News
FOR TRADE—Good milk cows for team. Write or call at ranch just below Coquille. L. N. Gregory.
Prof. Victor Boyd, of the Willamette valley, made Coquille a short visit on Friday as he waited over at Myrtle Point for an opportunity to get over the stage road to Dairyville where he has been engaged to teach a ten-months' term of school.
We are in a position to offer a good piece of water front of 2½ acres near town; good for mill or factory site.
C. S. Andrews, a former resident of Coos county, who has spent several years in eastern Oregon and California since leaving here, returned Friday, having come up from San Francisco on the Breakwater. He resided in the San Jacinto valley the past year or so. He is accompanied by his three children.
Robinson has a big variety of flannels, flannelettes, teale down, valour velvets, etc., to choose from. Call and see them.
Prof. O. V. White, of the Philomath College, arrived here on Friday and is looking about the country and incidentally interviewing some of our young people regarding entering that institution of learning for the coming school year. This is a highly moral school and no one would make a mistake by patronizing it.
The cash customer has the advantage at T. H. Mehl & Co's. They are now giving 5 per cent off of the regular prices to all who pay cash on the spot.
E. A. Howey, the brickmason and plasterer, who went to San Francisco several weeks ago to work at his trade, returned Thursday evening. He reports the condition of tradesmen in that city in an exceedingly unsettled and unsatisfactory condition. While wages seem to be high enough, there are conditions which make things very unsatisfactory. One of the worst features seems to be that the bigger the wages some of them get, the more booze they get away with and the less satisfactory work they do.

E. D. Myers was down from the North Fork on Monday.
J. F. Hamblock was up from Parkersburg on Saturday.
Dr. Abbott, the veterinary surgeon, is in town for a few days.
Don Green and Marshall Way, of Myrtle Point, were in town Monday.
Mrs. T. P. Hanly, of Lampa, went to Arago yesterday to see her mother, Mrs. J. H. Schroeder.
Miss Kate Wickham and Master Jack Leach visited Mrs. E. C. Holland, of Marshfield, one day last week.
BORN.—In Coquille, Oregon, August 13, 1906, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Matheson, a daughter. Dr. Wetmore was called to attend.
Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Whetstone, and daughter, Miss Agnes, of North Bend, visited Mrs. Mehl and other relatives and friends in town Sunday.
Ladies' fine shoes, Eastern made, at the Mill store.
Miss Nettie Morse, of Empire city, came over on Saturday and is visiting with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. I. Hacker and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hazard.
The choicest city locations. The Home Realty Co.
F. B. Odert, H. N. Lorenz, George Lorenz, S. S. Norton and Chris Long have returned from their hunting trip, having had a fine time and plenty of venison.
The Czarena brought a big lot of heavy rails for our railroad recently which are now being put in place and the light ones which are being taken up will be laid on the Cunningham road at once.
Fine Stationery, all kinds, at Knowlton's drug store.
Mrs. Joseph Haynes, a pioneer resident of Curry county, residing at Eckley, was taken severely ill last week from neuralgia of the heart. Dr. Wetmore was summoned and gave relief, and at last accounts the old lady was about alright again.
Purity crackers, fresh stock, at the Coquille Mill & Mercantile Co's.
Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Stover, who were married, at Myrtle Point, started Monday morning for their future home at Boise, Idaho. David Stone, father of Mrs. Stover accompanied them as far as Roseburg. Manley Barklow of Myrtle Point took them as far as Roseburg.
A good lot of cull lumber at the Coquille mill at $4.50 per thousand.
L. S. Anderson, a late arrival from Tacoma, Washington is in town and has decided to open an upholster shop in our city. He has a room from J. G. Fish, the furniture man, and has begun work in good earnest. He has a number of orders and more are coming. If you have some good furniture on which the upholstering is giving way, give him a call.

Announcement!

We wish to announce to the public that we have bought the firm formerly operated by Wilson Jewelry Co., and will continue to operate the same and solicit a share of the public patronage.

Our Watch and Jewelry Repairing Department is in charge of a competent Jeweler and we guarantee all work done.

E. C. BARKER & CO.

JOHN YOAKAM, President.
J. M. WAGNER, Vice President.
W. T. DEMENT, Sec'y & Mgr.

ENTERPRISE MEAT CO.,

Successors to Dean & Morgan.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Fresh and Salt Meats, Lard Ham and Bacon.

PRINCIPAL PLACE OF BUSINESS, COQUILLE, OREGON

BOARD OF DIRECTORS
JOHN YOAKAM J. W. WAGNER W. T. DEMENT

ABTRACTS ABSTRACTS ABSTRACTS ABSTRACTS

TITLE GUARANTEE AND ABSTRACT COMPANY

Marshfield and Coquille, Oregon.

We have completed a thorough, up-to-date Abstract Plant.

We are now ready to furnish correct ABSTRACTS at short notice, and orders will receive careful and prompt attention.

Marshfield office adjoins Flanagan & Bennett Bank Coquille " " Coquille Post Office.

MARSHFIELD PHONE, 143.
COQUILLE PHONE, 191.

Phone at our expense when ordering ABSTRACTS.

TITLE GUARANTEE & ABSTRACT CO.,

R. H. Smith, Abstractor. Henry Sengstacken, Manager.

BSTRACTS ABSTRACTS ABSTRACTS ABSTRACTS

C. M. & M. CO.

Manufacturers all kinds of Lumber, Mouldings, etc.

General Merchandise, Hats, Caps, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Flour and Feed.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

Fancy and Staple Groceries

Coquille Mill and Mercantile Co

Bargains in

REAL ESTATE

$7,000. Finest Dairy Farm in Coquille Valler.
$6,000. 282 acre Dairy and Pasture Land. Good new buildings, abundance of water piped into house and Barn.
$1,050. Creamery plant well located.
$450. Fine Residence property, well located.
4,000. 120 acres, Dairy Ranch, a choice location in Coquille Valley.

We have some choice Timber Lands, Coal Lands and other numerous bargains. Can offer you good business propositions. Call on us at our office in Martin Building one door west of Knowlton's Drug Store.

Home Realty Co.

DR. WETMORE'S PRIVATE HOSPITAL

I am prepared to treat all Medical and Surgical Cases.

Special Rates made for Accouchement.

Train Nurses in Attendance.

For Further Particulars Address

Dr. WETMORE,

Phone 111 COQUILLE, OREGON