Dear Notice

Since I lost a cow by careless hunters we put up a dozen notices but they still sneak in the back way and occasionally a deer is run with dogs, as I have gone into the sheep business, I want the dogs kept out. I own the land, and the game belongs to me, and there is danger of being shot for a deer while hunting on my own land, by some careless hunters. So I therefore warn you from now on not to hunt on Fat Elk. If you do you will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.
