

Encampment and Reunion.

Concluded from last week. Very interesting addresses were made by different veterans, giving reminiscences of their services which proved exceedingly instructive and entertaining.

Rev. T. P. Haynes, of the M. E. Church, South, made a very interesting talk from the Southern's point of view, he having seen service in the South, and while his remarks ran considerably to the humorous, his reminiscences were highly appreciated.

The exercises for Thursday were begun upon the arrival of the train, which brought a large number of new visitors, both old soldiers and pioneers, who were escorted to the grounds by the Myrtle Point brass band, the drum corps, Company Q and the reception committee accompanied by many veterans, pioneers and citizens who were already in attendance.

After a short program consisting of music by the band, songs by the choir and a number of short talks by veterans, after which a grand, free-for-all dinner, prepared by the local G. A. R. and their ladies, aided by the enterprising people of that place.

The afternoon exercises were opened with music by the band, after which an exceedingly interesting program by the school, followed by a flag drill by twenty little girls trained by Miss Bertha Prey which was a beautiful sight, and reflects great credit upon Miss Prey as a teacher of small children.

Major Tower who expected to be present, was unable to be on hand, but sent along his "Recollections of Life in Libby Prison," which were read by a comrade of that selfsame experience who was willing to vouchsafe for the truthfulness of the narrative. All were delighted with this story.

Friday, the last day, was given over to the pioneers. Judge Lowe president of the Coos County Pioneers' Association, was master of ceremonies and made the opening address. Song, Auld Lang Sine, was then rendered by the choir. Judge C. A. Schibredde, of Marshfield, then gave a splendid address, showing quite clearly that he knows something of frontier life, and entertained the large crowd for a time. A beautiful poem by Mrs. Lockhart was read to the delight of all present.

Dinner was again served, giving pioneers and soldiers the preference, however, there was again a great plenty for all.

During the afternoon addresses were delivered by Messrs Haynes, Pohl, Quick, Hermann, and Giles, and songs by Misses Miller and Haines.

After the exercises a business meeting was held, at which Col. Ross was elected president and Mrs. Rosa was re-elected secretary, and E. W. Hermann, treasurer. It was decided to hold the next reunion at Bandon and again in conjunction with the G. A. R. encampment.

Marshfield, Oregon, Sept. 3, 1906

My visit to Coos county last year was cut short by a message to "hurry home" on account of sickness. Now, however, I hope to meet all my old patrons.

I wish to state that my work is not limited to tuning pianos—the action of pianos in my care is carefully attended to and will need nothing else done to them as long as in my charge. Unusual cases of polishing, and repairing at reasonable prices to be agreed upon.

In view of the fact that other tuners are claiming to be "partners of Warner," and that "Warner is not coming here any more," and others of like import, a word of caution might save you money.

Warner can do anything necessary to be done to pianos, and do it right, and at right prices. Warner will be in town soon. So save your work for him.

Simpson Asks for Franchise.

L. J. Simpson has asked the Marshfield city council and the Empire town board for an electric railway franchise.

It is stated that if North Bend, Empire and Marshfield grant Mr. Simpson the franchise he asks for, and he is not held up for a right of way between here and Marshfield, a modern street car system will soon circle the bay.

The fact that the Southern Pacific is building a transcontinental railroad to this port has made it evident that Coos Bay is an ideal place for the development of a street car system.

Mr. Simpson has made all financial arrangements for building the road and putting in a power plant. The plant will also furnish power for other industries.—Harbor.

Camp Meeting on Coos River.

The United Brethren campmeeting which has just closed on South Coos River was one of the most successful ever held in the county. Large crowds assembled each evening for eight weeks and listened attentively to the work as preached by Rev. R. G. Summerlin, who earnestly told them of a better way. Many believed and a general awakening was the result. There were twenty-seven accessions to the church and a strong class who organized. With the exception that Prof. O. V. White was with him three days, Rev. Summerlin had no help from man, but drew largely from the bank of Heaven where he has much treasure, and the result was that the windows opened and the blessing was poured out upon that campmeeting in a way that the influence will be felt for many years.

ONE WHO WAS THERE.

A Toy dog.

A copy of Mr. John E. Diehl's latest book on the Toy Dog has just been submitted to us for criticism. We can speak of the neat little volume only in terms of the highest praise. The author who was recognized for years as an authority on domestic pets of all kinds has evidently put his best efforts on his last production so that this becomes almost invaluable to all who admire or intend to provide themselves with a toy dog. The book has been published by the Associated Fan- ciers, 400 North Third Street, Philadelphia, Pa., who offer to mail it to any address on receipt of 25 cents, preferably in postage stamps.

Card of Thanks.

We the undersigned, wish, by this means, to express our sincere and heart-felt thanks to our neighbors and friends for the many acts of sympathy and kindness during the late illness and death of our infant daughter, and sickness of our little son, as well as valuable assistance in a time of sorrow and trouble. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. MORLEY.

We'd like to have a special sale And clean out all our stock, But how to tell our little tale Our purpose seem to block. We've had a "clearance sale" before, Our neighbors had a "fire" Across the street they're "cleaning store" Elsewhere they'll "soon retire" We don't just like the "action sale" The "alteration's old" Of course we can't say we've "failed" The "marked down" tale's been told, "Discarded styles" doesn't sound so well, The "over-stocked" won't go; We guess we'll try a "sale to sell," And see what that will do.

Ours is a continuous "sale to sell," For your own protection look at the pianos offered at other sales at so-called sacrifice prices, but always fortify yourself before going with the determination not to buy, until you have first seen what we have to offer you as a strictly reliable piano house. You certainly will be amply rewarded for putting yourself to the trouble as others have.

We refund your transportation to and from Marshfield including a day's musical entertainment to anyone purchasing a piano.

We carry a complete line of pianos, organs, Zano O Phone and Edison machines and records. 6000 copies sheet music. Instruction books and strings for all instruments. Give us a call. W. R. HAINES MUSIC CO. Phone 1441 Residence 548. C and Broadway, Marshfield, Or.
