Henry D. Baldwin, Supt. City Water Works, Shullsburg, Wis., writes:

"I have tried many kinds of liniment, but I have never received much benefit until I used Ballard's Snow Liniment for rheumatism and pains. I think it the best liniment on earth." 25c, 50c and $1.00. R. S. Knowlton.

Ashland Normal News

Pres. Mulkey is attending institute at Central Point and Grants Pass.

The first meeting of the Euterpean Club was held last night at the home of Mrs. Neil. The club was reorganized and Mr. Leonard Smith was made president and Miss Maude Rippey secretary. A good program was rendered by both vocal and instrumental student, followed by light refreshments.

The foot ball game, played Wednesday between the Grants Pass high school and normal teams, was won by the normal. The score was eight to nothing. In the evening the boys were given a reception by the basketball girls. This game ends the football season and the basketball teams are soon to be organized.

The regular meeting of the Y. W. C. A. met Wednesday. The subject was "Prayer."

The last meeting of the boys' "Congressional" society was very interesting. Especially so was the debate. The question was: "Resolved that ancient heroes were braver than modern heroes." Good points were brought out on both sides, but the judges' decision was in favor of the affirmative.

Myrtle Point Enterprise.

Rev. H. L. Ford, formerly of Moscow, Idaho, has arrived in Myrtle Point with his wife to take up the pastorate of the Christian church here and at Coquille. Mr. Ford comes well recommended for the place and his wife, who is a pleasing vocalist, will prove a worthy helpmeet in the work. Mr. and Mrs. Ford have rented the Walker house. They expect to remain a year and perhaps much longer. Mr. Ford is a native of Melbourne, Australia, but has been in this country about nine years completing his education at Drake University, Des Moines.

Elder C. B. Barklow and family, Mrs. Annie Reed and little girl, Miss Nila Wise and Hiram Barklow of Kansas who had been visiting here, narrowly escaped the wreck on the Southern Pacific at Sargent, Calif. on the 11th. The Myrtle Point party was on the Second section of the train and arrived at Sargent fifteen minutes after the wreck, where they were delayed eleven hours. The wreck was caused by the bursting of a defective locomotive boiler. Three men were killed and several were severely injured. Besides demolishing the engine and a coach or two, the station was blown to bits and the agent killed. The Myrtle Point party was bound for Los Angeles and Covena.

Health is absolutely impossible, if constipation is present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A. Lindsay, P. M., Brouson, Fla., writes, Feb. 12, 1902: "Having used Herbine I find it a fine medicine for constipation." 50c a bottle. Sold by R. S. Knowlton.

TIMBER LAND ACT, JUNE 3, 1878. NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION. U. S. Land Office, Roseburg, Oregon, October 10, 1906.

NOTICE is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An Act for the sale of Timber Lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory, as extended to all Public Land States by Act of August 4, 1892, Fred T. Rust, of Everett, County of Snohomish, State of Washington, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 7168, for the East half of East half of Section No. 12 in Township No. 27 South of Range No. 10 West, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office at Roseburg, Oregon, on Tuesday, the 8th day of January, 1907. He names as witnesses: John Romberg, James E. Casew, and William M. Fryman, of Everett, Wash.; George W. Taylor, of Roseburg, Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adversely to the above-described land are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 8th day of January, 1907. BENJAMIN L. EDDY, Register.

THE BOND SUPPLY CO. Bond Building Washington, D. C.

Don't Cut a Corn. Blood poisoning is liable to result when a corn is cut with a knife or razor. Cutting or trimming a corn affords but temporary relief because the corn comes back. The only safe and sure way to be free from corns and bunions is by the use of Indian Corn Leaf.

Indian Corn Leaf. This magic leaf applied to the corn causes the pain instantly after which the corn is removed entirely, permitting the foot to resume its natural shape. Recommended by all who have tested its merits. Send 25 cents for large size package and obtain free our booklet "HOW TO TREAT THE FEET." If bothered with corns, send 50 cents for "INDIAN PILLS." Agents make money selling these guaranteed remedies. Write for terms. Address:

NOTICE
