The Senate football team met the high school team on the gridiron in Ramble Park Saturday December 22. The Senate appeared with a full eleven, but the high school could get out only ten.

The senate boys agreed to play with ten on each team and the game was called at 3 p. m. after much bumping, clawing, and punching the first half came to an end with the score 5 to 5.

The Senate boys went into the second half with added vim, at the end of which the score stood 5 to 15 in favor of the senate.

This is the second time this year that the Senate boys have won the laurels of honor in football.

School closed for the holiday season Friday Dec. 21, and many of the students have gone home to spend the vacation.

About half of the faculty are spending the vacation at New Port by the sea.

It is to be hoped that they will return refreshed, having left all their gloom and sadness behind.

The Coos County students wish to extend Christmas and New Year greetings to their friends and relatives.

James Magee, Jr., has resigned as second mate on the Breakwater. He will enjoy a brief vacation on the bay, spending the holidays with his parents in Empire City, after which he goes to San Francisco to enter the services of the Oceanic line on a steamer running to Australia.

The street railroad proposition was discussed by the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce, last evening, there being present a large gathering of representative property holders. L. J. Simpson was in attendance and outlined the desire of his company as to franchise privileges. It was the sense of the meeting to extend every inducement to the promoters with certain restrictions. A committee is to be appointed to act in conjunction with the street committee of the city council.

Alex Evanoff was the hero of the hour, when the North Bend ran into the launch Bird, last Thursday evening. The impact upset a can of gasoline and hurled a lantern from a shelf in the engine room into the liquid, which took fire. At the peril of his life Alex seized the can of burning gasoline, and threw it into the bay, jumping himself in to the briny deep to extinguish the fire in his clothing. Alex's hands were badly burned from the flames.
