

Dowie Passes to Real Zion City.

Chicago, Ill., March 9.—John Alexander Dowie, the religious leader and so-called "apostle and founder of Zion City, died suddenly at 7:40 a. m. today. Overseer Voliva states that the death would not affect the future of the Christian Catholic church in any manner. Voliva adds that now that Dowie is dead all the bitter feeling formerly existing within the membership of the organization has disappeared.

Myrtle Point Enterprise. Mr. and Mrs. Mack Baker of Lee, welcomed a little daughter to their home on Wednesday, March 6th.

C. T. Riley, an old war veteran and a Coos county pioneer, passed away at the City Hospital on Saturday afternoon. The old gentleman has made the Myrtle Point section his place of residence for a number of years, where, a year or so ago he noticed his health was failing, and he sold out and went to California with the hopes that the change would do him good, but was disappointed, and later went to Bandon and still got no relief, but continued to go down till death relieved him of this world's troubles. His body was taken to Myrtle Point Saturday, by W. H. H. Benfro, of the G. A. R., under the auspices of which order the interment was made.

The local skating rink continues to enjoy a liberal support at the hands of our younger population. The rink is conducted in a very creditable manner, its owners, Messrs. Gage and Nosler, being determined that patrons shall have their money's worth and no cause for complaint about the order maintained. Skating nights are Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week, with the privilege also of Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.
