Dr. Tatom's Dental Parlors will be open the balance of the winter he having taken his last trip away for the present.

Rev. G. I. Breivik, Evangelical Lutheran Pastor, of Chenook, Washington, held services in town Tuesday evening and at Prosper Wednesday evening, returning to the bay Thursday. It was his purpose to look out a field for a pastorate on the Coquille.

Duprey's Celery Headache Powders, give instant relief. Price 25 cents. R. S. Knowlton, Coquille City; C. Y. Lowe, Bandon.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Bingham, whom we spoke of as having sold their place at the east side of town, went to the bay Friday to take the steamer for Portland, where they will stop for a time at least, in the hopes of benefiting Mr. Bingham's health, he having been suffering some of late from rheumatism. He will visit with a nephew who lives in that city.

Those wishing fine carpet and rug weaving done, will remember that Mrs. K. Holverson now resides in the Hoberg home near the Academy.

W. R. Poler, of Velva, North Dakota, who is in Coos county with a view to finding a suitable location, came over from the bay on Friday. He was delighted with the looks of our section. The beautiful green grass, vegetables and flowers showed a great contrast between this and the part from which he came. He was accompanied by Rev. W. R. F. Browne, of Marshfield.

FOR SALE. Good Shingle mill, with or without engine, also including ranch if desired. Inquire of Young & Albee, Fishtrap, or address at Coquille.

J. A. Armfield, who passed through town last week on his way home to Bandon from the North fork, told us a narrow escape experienced by himself and J. L. Crosby recently. They were engaged in currying down some trees and one large one which had burned more rapidly than they expected it to and fell where they were not looking for it, and came near catching them. When they saw it was falling it was coming rapidly, and had it fallen straight down it would have been impossible for them to have escaped, but it having burned unevenly, it sheared to one side, just enough that their efforts just took them from under its limbs.
