DEATH OF A PIONEER

Edward Bender Summoned to His Long Home.

Tuesday and Wednesday of this week will long be remembered in the Bender family of this city as epochs in the family history as in the two days were crowded three events that are seldom known to occur in such order.

News of the death of Mr. Bender came as a shock to the entire community. It was not even generally known that he was sick, and certainly not that his condition was serious.

The funeral takes place this (Friday) afternoon. Services will be held in the German Baptist church. Rev. Thomas Barklow, an old-time friend and acquaintance of the deceased, will preach the sermon.

Edward Bender was born at Baltimore, Md., on February 5, 1841, and there spent his boyhood days and received his education.

Besides the wife and mother, Mr. Bender is survived by three sons, all of whom are married and are in business in Myrtle Point.
