About Apples and Pears.

The great difficulties in getting a market and proper returns for our apples and pears have caused a great laxity in interest in these industries, and many orchards have been neglected and do not grow as much nor as nice fruit as they did years ago. This is a burning shame and a remedy should be sought at once. There is no branch of industry being pursued in the county that gives the returns that the raising of apples and pears would do under proper conditions, and we believe these conditions can be brought about for this year's crop, if properly looked into.

We are in possession of a letter in which these words are used:

"I want to find out all about the apple and pear crop of the Coos Bay country possible; where the most apples are raised in that section, about what they can be bought for per ton, and about how many hundred tons a person could likely buy up there in the course of a season. The same thing in regard to the pear crop, if there are many grown there, where located, what varieties and about how many hundred tons one could possibly find if he were to go into that section."

We have the assurance that the writer is a practical fruit grower, as well as a reliable packer and shipper, and that he will come here and take the fruit in bulk, relieving the grower of all the trouble of packing and marketing, the two points upon which all trouble and losses heretofore have hanged, and it seems to us that considerable encouragement should be given the inquirer, and the HERALD would be glad to receive from every apple and pear grower of the county an estimate of his crop that he would be willing to contract with this gentleman, to drop us a line, giving an estimate of his crop as early as possible so that he may be informed as to what he may expect to do this year.

There is no doubt that if the proper understanding could be brought about between our people who have orchards and an honest and reliable dealer in San Francisco or Portland, that the quantity of marketable fruit grown by them would double in one year's time, and the number of trees planted would soon do the same, while the care and attention paid to trees already being grown would soon give the orchards of the county an entirely different appearance.

Entries Flood Roseburg Office.

Congestion of timber land and homestead entries in the United States Land Office at Roseburg has grown from bad to worse. Six weeks ago when special inspector N. J. O'Brien arrived here from Denver for the announced purpose of assisting to relieve this congestion, there were on file in the land office 850 entries. Thursday morning when Inspector O'Brien left for Oakland, Cal., pursuant to a transfer order from the Interior Department at Washington, there were on file 925 entries, an increase of 75. J. M. Lawrence, receiver of the land office, says there is no immediate relief in sight, as the Interior Department has made no provision for extra clerks needed to clear away the held-up entries.—Times.

Judge Hall's court was occupied Monday and yesterday with a case in which C. S. Andrews, of this city, and Miss Rose Ferry, of River-ton, were the contestants, and the care and custody of the 10-year-old daughter of Mr. Andrews the cause of the contention. It was claimed that Mr. Andrews was not the proper person to raise the child, its mother being dead, but the jury did not see it that way.

C. J. Millis, who has been appointed general manager of the Harriman interests on Coos Bay, is one of the most earnest, hardworking men in industrial lines in the railroad service in the Pacific Northwest. His appointment is a well-deserved promotion, and in his new position he can be of value both to Mr. Harriman and to Oregon.—Oregonian.

Judge Loving, of Virginia, was continuously drunk for years, yet he killed the man that got his daughter drunk. The Judge was a fine old Virginia gentleman with chivalric notions about correct conduct in others.—Oregonian.

Oregon Development League Notes.

Hon. James R. Garfield, Secretary of the Interior, and party, will spend Saturday, July 12th, in Portland. They will be guests of Dr. Henry Waldo Coe for a drive over the city and luncheon at his residence and for a banquet at the Commercial Club in the evening.

All Oregon is indebted to Mr. A. L. Craig, Passenger Traffic Manager of the Great Northern Railway, for publicity given this state in many of the leading papers of the country, including those of New York, St. Louis, and other great cities. Mr. Craig feels that the $5000 prize offer of the Portland Commercial Club should result in an enormous advertisement for the state.

Vice President Fairbank, will be the guest of the Astoria Chamber of Commerce July 15th with banquet at Seaside.

Portland Business Men have in contemplation an excursion covering about twenty-five points in Northwestern Oregon and Western Washington July 24th-28th.

Many complimentary reports are being received from the newspapers of Nebraska, contained good words about Oregon as a result of the Omaha business men's excursion to this state.

It is the consensus of opinion among the best advised grain men that the wheat crop of the present year will leave in the hands of the farmers of the Pacific Northwest from $35,000,000 to $40,000,000, assuring good times.

Large delegation will go from Oregon to attend the Christian Endeavor Convention at Seattle, the National Educational Association Convention at Los Angeles, and the Baptist Young Peoples' Convention at Spokane, and all should bear in mind that every ticket is good to any railroad point in Oregon. Judging from advance preparations being made by the different delegations, there will do a great work in advertising the resources of this State.

Good reports are being received from all the fruit sections of Oregon. The crop is satisfactory, the prices are good at the present time and the prospects for the fall fruit crop are the brightest in the history of the State.

Fails to Agree.

Findlay, O., June 28.—The jury in the case of the state of Ohio against the Standard Oil Company, charged with violating the anti-trust laws, this morning, reported to Judge Duncan that it had been found impossible to agree upon a verdict. The court thereupon ordered the jury discharged.

According to rumor, the jury when it first retired, stood six for conviction and six for acquittal. Subsequently, it is said, the jury stood eight to four for acquittal and when the disagreement report was brought in, the vote stood seven to five. The case was given to the jury on Wednesday last.

The progressive club has taken steps to get the county to co-operate with them in the beautifying the court house yard. They wish the county to put down cement walks from the gates to the house before the flowers, shrubs, etc., are put in place. A committee will wait upon the county court Friday afternoon.

Nosler-McPhail Nuptials.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. M. Nosler in this city on Wednesday evening, June 26th, in which M. Earl Nosler and Miss Hazel E. McPhail were united in marriage.

At exactly 9 o'clock the happy couple marched to the beautiful strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played by Miss Esther Boyd, to the parlor where the beautiful and solemn ceremony administered by the Rev. H. L. Ford, of Myrtle Point, made them husband and wife. While the ceremony was being administered, Miss Boyd sang in her sweet soft voice the song, "Oh! Promise Me." After congratulations were over Mr. and Mrs. M. Earl Nosler led the way to the dining room followed by the twenty invited guests, where a table long to be remembered, was spread and where the happy crowd did honor. The young couple received many beautiful and expensive presents consisting of silver, cut glass and hand painted china.

The groom is a native son of Coos county and is well known throughout this section, while the bride has only lived here a few years, having come here from California, but has made many friends during the time she has lived among us. The HERALD joins a host of friends in most hearty congratulations.

A New Enterprise.

Coquille is to have a new enterprise in the form of a boot and shoe factory, conducted by Frank Carr, formerly of Eureka, California. While Mr. Carr has established a reputation in California as being a thorough and reliable workman, he is not an entire stranger in Coos county, as his goods have been coming into this section for a number of years and are admired by all who wish good foot gear. The factory is located on the second floor of Drane's new store building, opposite the HERALD office, a large, light airy place where it is hoped by Mr. Carr to have several skilled workmen employed in the near future. He expects a good man to arrive by the next Plant, as well as a lot of fine materials from the east.
