Gravel Ford Celebration and Festival.

Another Fourth of July is in the past, and as usual a grand celebration was given at Gravel Ford. It was a perfect day, the sky was cloudless and the gentle breezes only added more perfectness to the day. Heavily loaded vehicles passed into our beautiful maple grove as early as seven o'clock; in fact some parties had come the previous day and camped in order to get the benefit of the entire program.

Of course the usual noise was there—the 13 guns at sunrise to commence the day properly, and the small boys with the firecrackers. It was a pretty procession that formed at the Bennett residence and marched quietly and orderly along the road past orchard and field and disappeared into the shady woods beyond. It was the future America led by Color-Bearer Culbertson and commanded by Marshal of the Day Bright. Uncle Sam was there in his usual quaint attire, with Liberty on the one hand and Justice on the other. Every state had its representative with the usual display of colors.

Order was called by President of the Day Weekly, and a short but interesting program was rendered by some of Gravel Ford's talent. Rep. Chase of Coquille delivered an interesting oration which was much appreciated by the people of this community.

Closing the program with an urgent invitation to dinner, we all repaired to the long rows of tables and found them completely loaded down with everything imaginable that was good, and a merry hour was spent in visiting and partaking of the bountiful repast. Indeed so much had been brought that the tables though large were unable to hold it and was carried away as it was brought.

The afternoon was spent in visiting and races, and all went home feeling that it was good to celebrate at Gravel Ford.

And here let us drop the curtain, and beg that the events of the night be not recorded in the history of our fair community. S S
