Jas. W. Duncan of the Coos Bay Furniture company of North Bend, paid his first visit to this section the first of the week in search of myrtle lumber for fine furniture. The company has just completed a new plant that will employ about twenty-five men to start with and expect to begin active operations next week, using electricity for power. The company will make a specialty of fancy furniture and fine fixtures for banks, bars, hotels and business houses. The factory contains sixteen fine machines and the men employed are experts in their line.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

Littlefield-Manciett

The many friends of Warren Littlefield and Miss Estelle Manciett were surprised at the announcement of their marriage at six o'clock last Tuesday morning. The groom was formerly of Bandon, but now employed with Wakefield and Jacobson, as engineer in Portland, and was in Bandon on his vacation. The young couple decided to be married at once so as to return to their new home together.

The ceremony was conducted at the home of the bride, Reverend Horsfall officiating. Both young people are well known here and have a host of friends that extend their best wishes for a long and happy voyage over the sea of matrimony. They left on the Breakwater for Portland.—Recorder.

G. B. Burhans testifies after four years

G. B. Burhans, of Carzisle Center, N. Y., writes: About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured, to stay cured and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble." Sold by E. J. Slocum.

A number of the prosperous ranchmen of this vicinity are making important improvements in the way of houses and barns and other conveniences. Sam Huff has commenced the building of a big three-deck barn for Ben Shull which will cover a ground space of 60 by 100 feet, almost as large as the average town lot. Alva Lee is another who is to have a new barn 56 by 76 feet in dimensions, and a new barn is also to be erected on the John Neal farm. Town improvements are keeping pace with those in the country and the carpenters will find little time to squander during the entire building season.—Enterprise.

Was in poor Health For years

Ira W. Kelly, of Mansfield, Pa., writes: "I was in poor health for two years, suffering from kidney and bladder trouble, and spent considerable money consulting physicians without obtaining any masked benefit, but was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure, and I desire to add my testimony that it may be the cause of restoring the health of others." Refuse substitutes. Sold by E. J. Slocum.
