State of Oregon, } ss.
County of Coos, }
I, James Watson, County Clerk ex-officio Clerk of the County Court of the State of Oregon, in and for the County of Coos, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct synopsis of all bills allowed by the County Court during vacation and at the regular July, 1907, term, and of the whole thereof as the same appears upon the journal of said Court now in my office and custody.

Witness my hand and official seal this 16th day of July, 1907.
JAMES WATSON,
County Clerk, Ex-officio Clerk of the County Court of Coos County, State of Oregon.

The Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis will provide an attractive exhibit at the Greater Oregon State Fair (Sept. 16-21) at Salem. They have applied for the entire space in the main pavilion west from the entrance to the auditorium. The Government Experimental Station of Union will also anticipate, using 500 square feet of wall space for the display of grains and grasses. The exhibit of the Agricultural College with a special view of attracting young people to the school. A stereopticon show, presenting views of Oregon, on the same plan as was seen at the Lewis and Clark exposition in Portland, free to all visitors, will be a feature of this department.

Timber Claims.

HAYWOOD NOT GUILTY

Jury Arrives at Verdict Freeing Federation Official on Third Ballot.

Boise, Idaho, July 29.—Wm. D. Haywood, defendant in one of the most noted trials involving conspiracy and murder the country has ever known, left the jail Sunday a free man, acquitted of the murder of former Governor Frank Steunenberg. It was after being out 21 hours that the verdict was arrived at. The jurors were at first divided, eight for acquittal, two for conviction and two blank, and then seemed deadlocked at ten for acquittal to two for conviction, and finally came to an agreement shortly after day-break Sunday.

Events moved rapidly after this and hardly had the principal actors in the trial been gathered into the court room a few moments before 8 o'clock when a white envelope was handed by the foreman to the judge. Judge Wood opened the envelope, hesitated, looked again, and then in some amazement said: "There is nothing in here."

"There's the right envelope in your coat pocket," said Juror Russell to Foreman Gess.
The foreman was palpably nervous and this added materially to the strain felt by all in the court room. The second envelope was handed up, Judge Wood glanced at it and tossed the paper to the clerk who read: "State of Idaho against Wm. D. Haywood. We, the jury in the above entitled cause, find the defendant, Wm. D. Haywood, not guilty. Thos. B. Gess, foreman."
Then came congratulations of Haywood, in the midst of which Judge Wood said: "The defendant will be discharged and the jury dismissed for this term."

Where to spend the summer vacation is a problem not easily solved. The seashore and mountain resorts, special conventions and excursions, all furnish means for an outing. Many persons in this section of the state are planning to attend the Oregon state fair (September 16-21) at Salem, where the greatest pleasure and profit can be obtained at the lowest cost. Camping sites are free and pleasure seekers say that the outdoor life in the oak grove with all modern utilities accessible, and the fair is a special attraction, excels any other form of outing to be found anywhere.
