WEDNESDAY, AUG. 7, 1907.

Fined 29,240,000.

New York Aug. 3.—The Standard Oil Company will appeal to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals from the sentence imposed by Judge Landis today.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—Judge Landis in the United States District Court today, imposed a fine upon the Standard Oil Company, of Indiana, of $29,240,000, the maximum amount upon each of the 1462 counts of the indictment on which that company was recently convicted of rebating.

The Judge also recommended that a call be issued for a special grand jury which is to consider the other party to rebating operations of which Standard Oil Company was found guilty, and it is, therefore, probable that within a short time, proceedings will be commenced against the Chicago & Alton Railroad Company for the alleged commission of similar offenses.

The reading of the opinion by Judge Landis aroused almost as much interest as the presence of John D. Rockefeller and other officials of the Standard Oil Company upon the witness-stand. The courtroom was crowded to its utmost capacity, and the United States Deputy Marshals were finally compelled to refuse admission to all late comers.

Woodmen to Welcome Their Head Consul

Head Consul I. I. Boak, of the W. O. W., will arrive in Portland tonight, and tomorrow afternoon will meet a delegation from each of the camps of the organization in this city at Woodmen's Hall and deliver an address. With the head consul will be General Organizer Gilroy, of California, and 16 state organizers.

At this meeting plans for conducting a membership campaign in Portland and vicinity, will be formulated. It is proposed to add several hundred members to the various camps in this city within the next few months, and local members are eager to receive instruction from those high in the order regarding how the campaign should be conducted.

Last night Webfoot Camp, No. 65, entertained eight state organizers at its meeting and afterward gave them a banquet. Among the visitors were State Organizers Yanner and Kennedy, of Utah; State Organizers Price and Hagermann, of Colorado; State Organizers Crow, Flood and Kelsey, of California, and State Organizer Moon, of Washington.—Evening Telegram.

“Los Angeles, Cal., July 29.—‘Captain’ Howard C. Clover, who today pleaded not guilty in the United States District Court to an indictment charging him with impersonating a naval officer, is said to have imposed upon a lot of farmers in the Coos Bay, Or., region. He went there it is stated, as a retired naval officer, and said he would erect a factory for manufacturing alcohol from potatoes. He told the farmers, according to the story, to plant all the ‘spuds’ they could and he would handle them, also that if they needed seed the government would provide it. It is claimed that before the factory scheme matured Clover got a draft for $350 cashed and decamped. The draft was returned, it is alleged, as worthless, and Clover never went back to Coos Bay.

Loeb Confirms Naval Move

Oyster Bay, Aug. 1.—Secretary Loeb said today there was no change in the plans to send a battleship squadron to the Pacific and that the necessary preparations were now being made. When these are completed the voyage will begin. Loeb's statement is significant, because it is the first utterance to that effect from Oyster Bay. Loeb said there was no criticism whatever of Secretary Metcalf for making the announcement as he did and there is no foundation for the report that Metcalf has been asked to resign.

The big premium list for the Greater Oregon State Fair, September 16-21, is ready for distribution, and will be mailed on application to all persons interested. Prospective exhibitors should secure this book at once.

“The World and its Ways.”

Col. William Jennings Bryan announces a new book of travel entitled “The Old World and its Ways,” which recounts his recent tour around the world and his journeys through Europe. It is profusely and elegantly illustrated with 240 artistic engravings representing men and things seen in the various countries of the earth during that noted journey. The engravings are made from photographs taken by him or his party specially for this publication.

It is the monumental literary work of his life, and is published under his special supervision. He has, by special contract with his publishers, made the retail price low down with the view to putting it within the easy reach of every reader and book buyer.

The book gives his experiences—what he saw and did—whom he met and his impressions and conclusions. He made a profound study of men and things as he saw them in this noted journey around the world. He gives governmental, educational, religious and other conditions, from the standpoint of a student and one profoundly interested in all the people of the earth.

While Col Bryan traveled as a private citizen he went with the prestige of having made two memorable contests for the Presidency of the United States, and he was everywhere recognized and entertained as a great representative American, having a leading part in the direction of American affairs. He was given of opportunity for observations never before accorded to any one traveling in private capacity.

If one wants to see the world, and the people who are at the head of affairs in all countries, as well as the masses, he has in this book an opportunity of seeing them through the eyes of Col. William Jennings Bryan. It is sold by subscription, and the Thompson Publishing Company of St. Louis, Mo., are the fortunate publishers. They offer an especially inviting opportunity to solicitors in another column of this issue.

The reunion of Coos County Pioneers' Association, and the annual encampment of the G. A. R. Veterans take place at Bandon this year on August 28th, 29th and 30th, a good turnout and interesting time are looked for.

Mr. Price, the shipbuilder, whose yard was recently burned out on the lower river, returned from San Francisco last week with renewed contracts, and will proceed at once to reestablish and get the construction of vessels under way soon. The site had not yet been decided upon according to our latest information, but it was thought the one near Cody's new mill would be chosen.

Men Past Sixty in Danger.

More than half of manking over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate glands. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rockport, Mo., writes: “I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 91 years old.” E. J. Slocum
