Doings.

The Country Club & Live Stock Association have bought a site for their home and work will begin at once.

A Tillamook cheese is on display here which weighs 356 pounds and represents the product for one day of 190 cows. It will be cut and sold at retail for Thanksgiving.

The noted Kikujiro Ishii, Chief of the Japanese Bureau of Foreign Commerce, was recently entertained here and took pains to say that war between his country and the United States was impossible.

The advertising habit has certainly struck Oregon. Almost every bank, business house and factory in Portland and throughout the State are distributing leaflets in their correspondence.
