On account of rain it was necessary to postpone further racing till Friday and Saturday of this week, when it is expected the association program will be completed and a number of match races run.

We are in receipt of a letter from F. M. Langlois, whom we recently mentioned as having received some fine thoroughbred Cotswold sheep from a Wisconsin farm, which he offers the following corrections and further information concerning the sheep: "The ram came from England and rested one week in Wisconsin and was then forwarded on here, and according to the Secretary of the Cotswold Association there are only 4 rams of his age—one year old—in America that are larger than he is, and these four were fitted up for show purposes. The one I got weighs nearly 300 lbs. The two ewes that came with the ram were yearlings and both from imported sire and dam. About six weeks ago I received three fine ewes, one of them having taken first prize at the International and Charleston when one year old. These also came from England."

Mr. Dow informs us that a new, large and commodious dock is to be constructed at the river directly even with his new warehouse, and a substantial incline from it to the warehouse, and that all goods going through his hands will be put on board the steamers without being hauled around to the city wharf. A gasoline engine will be put in place to do the hard pulling when goods are brought up from the steamers. It is probable that a switch will be put in between the depot and warehouse in the near future to further facilitate the handling of freight. These will be great conveniences.

The Monumental Mining Co., of Los Angeles, California, are putting in a sawmill of 10,000 feet daily capacity, and it is their intention to extend their flume from the mouth of Sucker creek down to the old Melah Bar on Johnson creek where they have a good showing of coarse gold, and we are informed by the manager, Mr. J. A. Connon, that the company intend to extend the present system down to the Coquille River where they have large holdings.

J. B. Snedden, foreman of the Riverton coal mine, was in town Saturday and reported that the work of sinking an incline to tap the vein will begin next week. It is the purpose of the company to mine and ship coal to Eureka, California. L. C. Collins is general manager for the company.

State Fair Receipts $30,000.

Salem, Or., Sept. 23.—The total gate receipts for the State Fair, President W. U. Downing announced this morning, amount to $30,000 approximately, as against $18,000 last year, or an increase of $2,000. This is exclusive of the receipts from concessions and grandstand, which were also large, and will bring the grand total to nearly $30,000.

Gans Wins Over Burns.

Los Angeles, Sept. 27.—Joe Gans was awarded the decision over Jimmy Burns, at the end of twenty rounds of hard fighting. Gans was too clever for the aggressive Burns.

T. J. Thrift, H. N. Lorenz and M. J. Hartson have purchased the furniture store of Arthur Ellingson.

Passing Away of A Pioneer

It has again become our duty to chronicle the demise of a Coos county pioneer. This time it is our old friend, N. W. Moon, of near Fairview, who lays down the cares and troubles of this world and goes on to receive his reward in the great beyond. The subject of this sketch was born at Morgantown, Pennsylvania, April 25, 1813, where he lived till a young man when he went to New Orleans, at which place he remained till the breaking out of the civil war when he went to Kansas where he joined the army, and in which state he met Miss Nancy L. Flinn to whom he was married in 1863. To this union were born eleven children—ten sons and one daughter, the latter and four sons of whom, with their mother, survive him. After the war was over he moved to California where they remained till 1875 when they moved to Coos county and located near Fairview where he, with the help of his sons, made a good farm. The deceased was a member of Gem Lytle, Post, G. A. R., and had been a life long Odd Fellow, having joined that order as early in life as eligible at Janive, Pennsylvania.

A few days before his death he called all his children to his bedside and talked to them. He retained consciousness up to within an hour or so before the end came and was perfectly resigned to go.

He leaves property of the probable value of $25,000 to his wife. Thus ends a good and useful life at the ripe old age of 84 years, 5 months and 3 days. Peace to his ashes.

Mrs. Nova Landrith who had been here visiting from Santa Rosa, California, started home last Wednesday, going with Fish's stage to Roseburg, and at the half-way place had quite a serious experience. When the stage reached the half-way house it seems that the keepers of the place were preparing to move their quarters and were partly packed up and not prepared to keep the parties over night, and they were obliged to drive on. Night overtook them on the road and they made their way very well till just as they reached the place where they expected to remain for the night, the horses left the road in the darkness and the rig was upset. All escaped with minor bruises but little Nova, who sustained a fractured arm. A physician who lived five miles from the scene of the accident was summoned and dressed the arm and on the day following they went on to Roseburg. At last accounts the little fellow was getting along all right.

From Myrtle Point.

EDITOR HERALD: One of the saddest accidents that has occurred in this section for a long time happened on Friday the 27th ult. when the little two-year-old son of Robert Parish wandered from home about two o'clock in the afternoon, fell into the river and was drowned. Searchers were out all during the storm Friday night until one o'clock, when a large party having gone from Myrtle Point to assist the nearly distracted parents in their search. Near the Sunset creamery the father found the remains a little below where he evidently slipped into the water. The little one was laid to rest in the cemetery at Norway on Saturday afternoon.
