Seven Bears in a Bunch.

Mr. D. W. Small, who came in yesterday from summit, tells the prize bear story of the season and if anyone has a better one the Times would like to hear about it, together with the circumstances. Mr. Small had a grading outfit at Summit, and among his employes was W. B. Hamilton, a man of truth and veracity. On Monday, Mr. Hamilton was going through the woods about 300 yards from the scene of grading, when they came upon a flock of hard bears, as the reader chooses, and thought he had found an escaped menagerie. There were seven bears in sight at one time, and Mr. Hamilton did not know how many more there were, as the bears were to the windward and scented him before he could take in the whole situation. There was one old bear, four yearlings and four cubs. One of the cubs, in running away, fell across a fallen tree and was struck for a time. Mr. Hamilton might have captured him, but he was not quite certain how he would have fared in such a bunch had he attempted to gobble the little fellow and taken him away. The bears were in a huckleberry patch when Mr. Hamilton came across them, but they soon made themselves scarce. Ooos Bay Times.

The Womens Study Club.

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the club held on Saturday last, and although the work in the main was along lines prescribed for travel day, there was one novel feature introduced in the form of a large, outline map of Austria, the country considered, upon which various members in town located rivers, cities etc. The business features of the afternoon consisted of the acceptance of registration of Mrs. Candlin from her office of Secretary of the club, and the election of Miss Anna Dudley to fill the vacancy thus made; also the admission of Mrs. Nye to full membership. The club will meet with Mrs. Hawkins on Saturday next, when Thomas Moore's works will be presented by current events.

E. A. Howey having finished the plastering of the new home of R. H. Mast on Spurgeon Hill, went to the bay Saturday to assist Mr. Kiser to plaster the new summer home of L. J. Simpson which is being erected at the mouth of Big creek below the entrance to Coos Bay. It is a large job and the hard wall plaster will be used.

For quick sales, list your property with the Pacific Real Estate Co. Capt. T. D. Holland, owner and Master of the Gasoline boat "Eagle" which has been running for several years on the bay, had his boat brought around to the Coquille river the latter part of the week and on Monday morning started regular runs between Bandon and Coquille, making two round trips daily, starting from Bandon in the morning.

If you want a good cup of coffee try that Amber coffee at Land & Lyons.

Donald Charleson, of Bandon, passed through town Saturday on his way to Coos Bay where he went to meet the body of his mother. The old lady had been a sufferer for a number of years from nervous prostration and a general breaking down, and the end was not wholly unexpected. The body was taken to Bandon on Monday for burial.

Bowlsby Acquitted

Astoria, Or., Oct. 13.—The Circuit Court jury in the case against J. H. Bowlsby, of North Bend, Or., charged with the murder of C. C. Jennings on board the steamer Alliance, while that vessel was lying at her wharf in this city on June 14, returned a verdict last evening of "not guilty on account of insanity." There was practically no dispute regarding the evidence in the case. Bowlsby admitted shooting Jennings, and the testimony showed that Jennings had been intimate with Bowlsby's wife. The defense was temporary insanity and self-defense; testimony being introduced to show that worry over relations between Jennings and Mrs. Bowlsby had caused the defendant to become mentally unbalanced, and also that Jennings had threatened to kill the defendant. The "unwritten law" was also referred to in the arguments of the attorneys, but the court in his charge instructed the jury that there is no such thing as the unwritten law, and it must be given no consideration in arriving at a verdict. The jury was out only 30 minutes before reaching an agreement.—Roseburg Review.

"I will pardon no man convicted of a statutory crime," declared Governor Henry A. Buchtel, of Colorado, sounding the death knell to the hopes of one third of the inmates of the state penitentiary. "The murderer, the thief, the forger can all look for better things from me than the man who betrays the honor of a girl. No matter what pressure is brought to bear, I will not be a party to liberating the human monsters whose prey have been little girls." The Governor will make this a strict rule during administration, cherishing the good old fashioned idea about the virtue of a woman.

Every year every local paper gives from 5,000 to 50,000 free lines for the benefit of the community in which it is located. At fair advertising rates—10 cents a line—this means $500 to $1,000. No other agency can or will do this. The editor, in proportion to his means, does more for his home town than any other man. He ought to be supported, not because you happen to like him or admire his writing, but because a local paper is the best investment a community can make. It may not be crowded with great thoughts, but financially it is of more benefit than both preacher and teacher. Today editors do more or less pay than any men on earth. Patronize your home paper, not as a charity but as an investment.—Tom Richardson, Secretary of the Portland Commercial Club.

A New Enterprise

Perry Munson, late of Michigan, and his brother-in-law, J. E. Perrott, of this city, are getting along nicely with the manufacturing of cement brick, having turned out several thousand of a first-class article, and they are daily expecting their cement-block machine and will soon be ready to furnish these in quantities to suit the customer. This material is given up to be the best of building material, it now entering largely into the construction of the large buildings of the cities—even the sky-scrapers. These gentlemen made the concrete basement for the new home of R. H. Mast on Spurgeon Hill, which shows they well understand the business. This is no experiment with Mr. Munson, he having followed concrete construction before coming west. They are now at work at the foundation for the new bank building, using the crushed rock from the Schroeder place as a filler, and are getting along nicely. Mr. Munson is an expert at constructing water-proof vaults for graves and will be prepared to do jobs of this kind when called upon.

Gone to Her Rest

At this time it becomes our painful duty to record the sad and sudden taking off of Mrs. R. E. Buck of Bandon, a former resident of this city, which occurred at an early hour Saturday morning. For several years this lady had been in declining health caused from a weakening of the heart, and while her condition was known to be serious, the end came as a shock to her large number of friends and acquaintances throughout the entire county.

She leaves a husband, an adopted daughter, Mrs. James Walstrom, of Bandon, a sister, Mrs. Fanny E. Dyer, and two brothers, Messrs. Grant, one of California and the other of Iowa, to mourn her loss. Lucy E. Grant was born in Lee county, Iowa, February 13, 1847, and passed away at the age of 60 years, eight months and six days. She was married to R. E. Buck on November 28, 1867, and they came to Coos county in 1873 and have lived here ever since until called to cross the dark river.

Having lived in this city for something like 30 years, her acquaintance is large and her friends legion. She had always lived the life of a good, moral citizen up to about 12 years ago when she united with the Christian church, since which time she has enjoyed the fullest blessings of a sincere and devoted Christian life. She was also a charter member of Maimie Rebekah Degree lodge, I. O. O. F., and has been a leading factor in that noble order in its good work.

She was laid to rest in the Odd Fellows cemetery in this city on Sunday in the presence of a large number of sorrowing friends. Elder Ford conducted a short service which he termed the benediction, stating that she had been preaching her own funeral sermon these many years by the upright life she lived, and the members of the lodge conducted the services with their beautiful ritualistic ceremonies.

A Grand Trophy

Not a little excitement was caused on Front street of this place last Thursday afternoon when Otto Epps, E. C. and Glenn Barker and W. C. Rose got in from the head waters of Middle creek with the hide and horns of what we have reason to believe was the finest specimen of elk that was killed in Coos county during the open season just closed. They had removed the hide with the view to having it mounted, and it was certainly a beautiful animal. The horns measured between four and five feet in length and spread, and would have weighed about forty pounds, and one contained eight points and one nine. This was truly a monarch of the forests of Coos. Mr. Epps was the one who brought the animal down with his 30-30, and was very proud of his success. The carcass was cared for as best they could, and they sold the hide and horns to Dave Perkins for $250 who sent them to the bay to be mounted by Mr. Rogers.

No home is so pleasant, regardless of the comforts that money will buy, as when the entire family is in perfect health. A bottle of Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup costs 50 cents. It will cure every member of the family of constipation, sick headache or stomach trouble E. J. Slocum.

$8.50 PUNCTURE-PROOF TIRES ONLY $4.80 PER PAIR
Notice the thick rubber tread "A" and puncture strips "B" and "C" also rim strips "D" to prevent rim cutting. This tire will outlast any other make—SOFT, ELASTIC and EASY RIDING.
Description: Made in all sizes. It is lively and easy riding, very durable and lined inside with a special quality of rubber, which never becomes porous and which closes up small punctures without allowing the air to escape. We have hundreds of letters from satisfied customers stating that their tires have only been pumped up once or twice in a whole season. They weigh no more than an ordinary tire, the puncture resisting qualities being given by several layers of this special prepared fabric on the tread. That "Holding Back" sensation commonly felt when riding on asphalt is quenched out between the tire and the road thus overcoming all suction. The regular price of these tires is $8.50 per pair, but for advertising purposes we are making a special factory price to the rider of only $4.80 per pair. All orders shipped same day letter is received. We ship C.O.D. on approval. You do not pay a cent until you have examined and found them strictly as represented.
We will allow a cash discount of 5 per cent (thereby making the price $4.56 per pair) if you send FULL CASH WITH ORDER and enclose this advertisement. We will also send you nickel plated brass hand pump and two Sampson metal puncture closers on full paid orders (these metal puncture closers to be used in case of intentional knife cuts or heavy gashes). Tires to be returned at OUR expense if for any reason they are not satisfactory on examination.
We are perfectly reliable and money sent to us is as safe as in a bank. Ask your Postmaster, Neighbor, Express or Freight Agent or the Editor of this paper about us. If you order a pair of these tires, you will find that they will ride easier, run faster, wear better, last longer and look newer than any tire you have ever used or seen at any price. We know that you will be so well pleased that when you want a bicycle you will give us your order. We want you to send us a small trial order at once, hence this remarkable tire offer.
COASTER-BRAKES, everything in the bicycle line are sold by us at half the usual price charged by dealers and repair men. Write for our big BICYCLE CATALOGUE.
DO NOT WAIT until you are in a postal today. DO NOT THINK OF BUYING a bicycle or a pair of tires from anyone until you know the new and wonderful offers we are making. It only costs a postal to learn everything. Write at NOW.
