Mrs. Ben Schupler, of Bandon, visited in Coquille on Thursday.

Mrs. H. M. Branham, was down from Myrtle Point on Friday.

H. W. Holverstott and P. C. Hatcher were in from Fairview on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hunt, of Bandon, visited Mr. and Mrs. Dave Perkins and other friends in this city two or three days last week.

Have you examined that fine Panama dress goods at O. Wilson & Co's.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene O'Connell, of the bay side, came over Thursday and took the steamer Liberty for Bandon, where they go to visit friends.

W. P. Fuller's prepared paints, oils and varnishes at J. A. Lamb & Co's.

Jonas Dimmitt who has spent the last few years in his vicinity, leaves soon for Eugene, Oregon, where he will probably spend the winter with his father.

Are you preparing something for the fair? You should do so if it be possible.

Capt. Danielson, of Parkersburg, was in the city Friday. He informs us that the health of Mrs. Danielson is still delicate with but little signs of improvement.

P. E. Drane keeps puffed rice, a delicious dish for breakfast and for sick folks.

Chas. Housor, of Myrtle Point, was in town Friday, and informed us that his wife who has been operated upon for cancer of the breast in a San Francisco hospital, is getting along nicely.

Foley's Kidney Cure will cure any case of kidney trouble that is not beyond medical aid. E. J. Slocum.

Mrs. Marshall McDonald has purchased the equipment and bakery business of Mrs. Nettie Meeker and has consolidated the same with her bakery and lodging house in the Little Hotel.

Anyone wishing house moving or other heavy work done can be accommodated by calling on H. L. Varney.

We take the following from a Santa Rosa, California, paper: Judge Thomas C. Denny granted an interlocutory decree of divorce Friday morning to Rosa Martin, who sued her husband, Christian W. Martin, for a separation.

S. W. P. signifies Sherwin Williams Paints, the most popular on earth and the best to put on your house.

A. J. Seed, formerly of this city, arrived here Friday, having been summoned to the bedside of his aged mother, Mrs. Ala Seed, who has been lying very low for several days at her home in the north part of town. He is greeting many old friends.

Do your shopping at home. Call phone 251 and Land & Lyons will deliver your order any time during the day.

MARRIED. In this city, October 11, 1907, Albert T. DeMoss and Miss Anna M. Nelson, both of Marshfield, Judge E. G. D. Holden officiating. The ceremony took place in the Judge's office, and the party at once took the train for home followed by the best wishes of all who knew them.

That hand painted china at E. C. Barker & Co's is the finest ever brought to town. Don't miss seeing them.

The McAdams Bros., the all-round blacksmiths, horse shoers, machinists and general mechanics, have made another important change in the equipment of their shop in this city. They have set aside their steam engine and have installed a nice Fairbanks-Morse gasoline engine. Their idea for this is to save the time required in getting up steam, it often happening that power is needed on short notice. The new engine will furnish ample power for their blowers, drill, trip-hammer, emery wheel, etc. The shop is doing a good business at the present.

Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system. E. J. Slocum.

Mrs. Jas. Conger, of this city, visited friends at Lee last week.

W. P. Murphy, the Marshfield tinner, was a Coquille visitor a day or two last week.

Amos Hatcher came over from South Slough Saturday, being somewhat under the weather.

FOR SALE: One bay mare, 7 years old, well broke. Must go at once. Call or address this office.

E. N. Harry was in town from Sitkum on Saturday. He brought in a fine pair of elk horns which he is having mounted on a shield by A. W. Sleeper, of this city. Those are an old pair. However Mr. Harry got a nice buck this season, but the horns are not very large.

Soap! Soap! Soap! Call at Land & Lyons' for soap. They can supply your wants.

John Miller, eldest son of Mr. Mrs. S. J. Miller, of Cunningham, who had been in San Francisco the past year arrived home Friday and is greatly enjoying a visit with the folks at home. He has been in the street car service for a number of months and has become a thorough car man, being able to take charge as either conductor or motorman.

Straw and crash hats, canvas shoes for women, men and children at J. W. Leneve's.

M. Bredemeier, of Portland, spent several days in the Coquille valley last week in the interest of the Eastern Manufacturers' Company, Inc., for which company he took many liberal orders from the merchants of this city as well as at Myrtle Point and Bandon. Mr. Bredemeier is highly pleased with this country, and is fully convinced of the great future that awaits it with the development which is certain to come within the next few years. The beautiful summer-like weather he has seen since he arrived here, and the general appearance of the pastures and growing vegetation that it is an ideal dairy country as well as fine climate in which to live. It is probable that he may interest himself in Coquille property.

Many children are called "dull" and backward at school. The reason is their eyes need attention. I correct errors of vision quickly and scientifically.

Timber Land Act, June 3, 1878.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office,

Roseburg, Ore., Aug. 7, 1907.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892,

SIVERT E. AASON, of Arago, County of Coos, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 8486, for the purchase of the SE 1/4, SE 1/4 of Section No. 2 in Township No. 29 S., Range No. 13 West, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before L. A. Liljeqvist, U. S. Commissioner, at his office in Marshfield, Oregon, on Tuesday, the 5th day of November, 1907.

He names as witnesses: John F. Munford, John S. Root, David Peterson and Andrew Smalley, all of Arago, Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adverse to the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 5th day of Nov., 1907.
