Heirs Seek Large Sum.

Washington, Oct. 31.—(Special.) Heirs of George Washington are seeking to recover a large sum from the Government on account of lands granted to him along the Ohio River and which subsequently were inadvertently given by Congress to actual settlers. An administrator of the undistributed assets of his estate was appointed today by the Circuit court of Fairfax County, Virginia, on a petition of the heirs-at-law, Lawrence Washington and S. W. Washington.

Robert E. Lee was appointed administrator. He is the grandson of General Robert E. Lee and great grandson of "Light Horse" Harry Lee General Washington's Chief of Staff.

University of Oregon, Eugene, October 30, 1907: The next qualifying examinations for the Rhodes Scholarships for this state will be held at the University of Oregon, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 21st and 22nd, 1908. The arrangements for conducting the examinations will follow closely those of last year, with the exception that an examination fee of $5.00 will be charged all candidates. The examinations will be under the direction of the Oregon Committee of Selection, composed of President P. L. Campbell, of the University of Oregon, chairman, President Ferrin of Pacific University, President Coleman of Willamette University, President Crooks of Albany College, and President Riley of McMinnville College.

We thank Hon. Binger Herman, member of Congress, for "Regulations of Railway Rates," comprising six volumes, and containing a full digest of the hearings before the committee on interstate commerce of the senate, held from December 16, 1904, to May 23, 1905, inclusive, together with certain data in response to a letter of instructions of the chairman of the committee, dated July 3, 1905. It contains a great deal of information which is of great interest to the public.

C. H. Grays, Deputy Commissioner and factory inspector, from Portland, was in town the last of the week looking over the different institutions in the city which employ machinery driven by power, making suggestions for improvements for the safety of employes as well as visitors. This is in compliance with a state law which provides for a heavy penalty for noncompliance with the rules and regulations laid down therein.

Jesse Hale, of Curry county, is now a patient at the General Hospital as a result of a hurt he got at Boutan's camp near Beaver Hill last Sunday at about 11 a. m. It seems that the fallers were behind with their part of the work, and he with others were doing falling on Sunday in order to keep up with their part of the work, and as he and his companion were sending a tree down, it "kicked" back over the stump, catching Mr. Hale inflicting severe bruises about the lower part of his body and lower limbs. While his wounds are very painful, no bones were broken and we hope to see him out before long.

There was a meeting of Royal Arch Masons at Marshfield Wednesday night of last week and C. M. Triplett, L. H. Pearce and Dr. Endicott of Myrtle Point attended as candidates for that degree. They were accompanied by Chas. Adams, Dr. M. O. Stenmler and C. E. Huling, members of the order.

Alfred Johnson III celebrated his fifth birthday at the home of his grandfather, Alfred Johnson, Sr., the lumberman, on the 30th inst. Sixteen of his little friends were present and a jolly good time was had by all. An elaborate dinner was served and a large number of presents were in evidence.

Hardy Mast, of Lew, was a passenger to Bandon by Saturday's Liberty. He tells us that a recent letter from his brother, Web, states that he and party are having a fine time; that that they were on the way from West Virginia to North Carolina.

The Coquille Educational League meet in the High School room Friday afternoon at 3:30. Subject to be discussed: "Social Environments vs School Duties." A collection to defray the expense of printing program for this year will be taken.

Laird-Weekly Nuptials.

A very beautiful wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith on East Fork, Wednesday evening, October 30, 1907, when Binger H. Laird and Miss Annie I. Weekly were united in the holy bonds of wedlock.

Promptly at 7:26 the parlor door was thrown open and the guests were invited in. They had only time to assume a comfortable position and silently admire the beautiful decorations when the soft strains of the piano sounded forth as Miss Verna Weekly played the Wedding Bell March. Instantly all eyes were turned toward the door and beheld the bridal party descending the stairs. The party was led by Misses Ethel and Eya Laird who at the door received streamers of white ribbon which they carried to the altar, thus making an aisle (of white) from door to altar. They were followed by little Eunice Smith as ring bearer, and the bride and groom who took their place beneath a large wedding bell. Here they were met by Elder A. A. Baker who very impressively said the words that made them husband and wife, while Miss Weekly played "Dearie" very softly.

After congratulations from relatives and friends present, and many by telephone, all were invited into the dining room where a most bountiful supper had been prepared.

The bride was very becomingly attired in a gown of soft cream silk crepe de Paris set off with the veil and orangeblossoms, and carried a beautiful bridal bouquet of white chrysanthemums and ribbon. The groom looked stately in the conventional black. The parlor was beautifully decorated in white and green, chrysanthemums ivy and Oregon grape being most effectively used. Across the front of a bay window was an arch of white and green from which suspended the bell of white flowers. Green was used in the hall, while autumn leaves and red predominated in the diningroom. On the table were bouquets of red dahlias and sprays of holly berries while the cakes were decked with fuchias and white ribbons. The rooms all had profusions of flowers which gave the whole house that happy appearance for the occasion which all present will remember.

This happy couple is a native son and daughter of Coos county the groom being the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Laird Jr. of Brewster Valley and the bride a daughter of Mrs. Wm. Smith, and grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. McCloskey of Norway.

The next day Mr. and Mrs. Laird started for Roseburg where they expect to make their future home.

Cured of Bright's Disease

Mr. Robert O. Burk Elnora, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50 cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease." E. J. Slocum.
