Anyone wishing a good renter for a dairy farm will do well to call on the HERALD. We have several calls.

O. Wilson & Co. will be headquarters for Santa Claus this Christmas. The boys and girls will remember this.

J. W. Bowers, of Lampa, was in town Friday. He is all right again having recorded from an abscess of the tongue.

CHARIE WEAVING. Mrs. K. Holmerson, Wickham residence east of the Christian church, does fine carpet and rug weaving. Call and see samples of her work and get prices.

Vane Maury, of this city, who has been in San Francisco for a number of weeks, returned last Saturday and is enjoying a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Maury.

The Central Real Estate Exchange, Robinson building, has several hundred acres of good timber lands for sale at reasonable figures. Better call soon, if interested.

B. B. PAUL, Mgr.

Wm. Hise who came here from North Dakota last spring and purchased a home in town with the intention of remaining, has been obliged to sell and return on account of the party who purchased his place there, failing in his payments. We are very sorry as they are good citizens and wished to remain with us. We hope they may soon succeed in getting rid of their place, in which case they will come back and make this their home, being highly pleased with our mild winters.

J. C. Watson, the fancy chicken raiser, has a large lot of fine cockerels for sale—Black Minorcas, White Rocks and White and Brown Leghorns. He also furnishes pairs and trios properly mated.

Coos Bay News

Seymour H. Bell informs us that the gas plant at Porter is being finished as rapidly as possible, and it is hoped to have it ready for operation within a few weeks.

Some bogus quarters and half-dollar pieces are circulating in town. Look out for them. They are a splendid imitation, but do not give out the true ring.

We received an old country newspaper by Sunday's mail, sent by Henry H. Baldwin from Bandon, Ireland, which shows that the Coos county pioneer has arrived safely at his old home.

Attorney Chas. F. McKnight returned from the city on the last Plant, enjoying excellent health, and his appearance indicates. He was treated at the St. Thomas hospital for the injury to his face, which he received when a child, and a complete cure is anticipated.

J. R. Roehon and family intend leaving on next steamer for Portland, where Mr. Roehon has painting contracts amounting to over $4,000. He has been a resident of Coos county for eight years, part of which time was spent in Coquille but most of it in Marshfield, where he and Mrs. Roehon made many friends who are sorry to see them leave and hope they will again return to the bay.

W. H. Thomas returned from the bay Friday.

Mrs. Nosler has just received some swell new suitings.

Attorney Douglas of Marshfield, visited the county seat on Friday.

Anyone wishing house moving or other heavy work done can be accommodated by calling on H. L. Varney.

Before purchasing a watch elsewhere, call on Schroeder the jeweler, and get his prices on all kinds of time pieces.

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung trouble by R. S. Knowlton, druggist. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
