R. B. PAUL, Mgr.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Robinson, of this city, is receipt of an invitation to the wedding of Miss Welma Carothers, of Oakland, California, which is to take place on the 15th of this month, when she will become the bride of Mr. Henry Bill. Miss Carothers has a number of relatives and a host of friends in Coos county who wish her well. Mr. Bill is a stranger here but we trust he is an honorable and upright gentleman who is worthy of her hand.

Buy your books at Knowlton's Drug Store. Here you can find everything from a child's 5 cent picture book to the latest novels, and the standard classics in both prose and poetry in elegant binding.

J. B. Rohr, the painter and expert sign writer, of Marshfield, was a passenger homeward on Wednesday's train, being on his return from Myrtle Point where he had been to do some of the finishing up work on the new Flanagan & Bennett Bank at that place. We have heard the work complimented very highly. The old gentleman informs us that the new bank is a very neat and conveniently arranged affair, and is an institution of which any town may justly feel proud.

We have several desirable places for young ladies who wish to work for board and room while attending Business College. For full particulars, address.

Interesting Home Wedding.

In the presence of a large company of guests, including friends from Hollywood, Pasadena and Los Angeles, Miss Meryl L. Dixon, daughter of Mrs. F. G. Dixon, 1919 Temple street, was married at 8:30 o'clock last evening to Mr. Henry C. Greve of Sherman. The ceremony took place at the bride's home, Rev. Will A. Knighton of the Union Avenue Methodist church, officiating.

Miss Daisy Weiss, presiding at the piano, rendered the march from "Lohengrin," and Mrs. May Scarborough Fowler sang, "Beloved, It Is Morn." Miss Dixon, attired in a becoming gown of white organdie and lace over taffeta, with veil, and carrying a shower bouquet of white carnations, was attended by her cousin, Miss Mabel Lehnerr. Mr. Fred Greve, stood with his brother as best man, and his little cousin, Louise Greve, in a white organdie gown over silk, assisted as ring bearer.

Miss Lehnerr was gowned in white silk mull over taffeta and carried pink carnations. During the ceremony the couple stood under a wedding bell of white carnations suspended with white ribbon streamers from a canopy of greenery in the parlor, where all the decorations were in white and green. Poinsettias and asparagus plumosus, banked around the dining room, added to the beauty of the arrangement there.

Mr. and Mrs. Greve have gone North for their wedding trip and on their return will be at home to their friends in Sherman.—Los Angeles Express.

A Cure for Misery.

"I have found a cure for the misery malaria poison produces," says R. M. James, of Louellen, S. C. "It's called Electric Bitters, and comes in 50 cent bottles. It breaks up a case of chills or a bilious attack in almost no time; and it puts yellow jaundice clean out of commission." This great tonic medicine and blood purifier gives quick relief in all stomach, liver and kidney complaints and the misery of lame back. Sold under guarantee at R. S. R. S. Knowlton's drug store.

Chas. Stanley has a board and lodging house business for sale at a bargain.

Anyone wishing house moving or other heavy work done can be accommodated by calling on H. L. Varney.

FOR SALE. Two nice garden lots with crop—some fruit—at west end of T bridge. Call on J. Snow at the place.

It Does the Business.

Mr. E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Maine, says of Bucklin's Arnica Salve, "It does the business; I have used it for piles and it cured them. Used it for chapped hands and it cured them. Applied it to an old sore and it healed it without leaving a scar behind." 25c. at R. S. Knowlton's drug store.
