Have you tried SOUN RING flour?

Elegant line of new gloves just in at the White House.

John Lamont, the Bandon pioneer, was in Coquille on Friday. He extended his visit up the river.

Men's hats from $2.00 to $2.50 at Robinson's, this week 95 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Briggs, of near Riverton, were among Coquille's business visitors on Thursday.

Our line groceries and canned goods is complete and of the best grades. Skeels & Son.

The three-masted schooner Adventure arrived in the Coquille Thursday and is taking on a load of lumber at the Aberdeen mill.

Anyone wishing house moving or other heavy work done can be accommodated by calling on H. L. Varney.

Mrs. Belle Valentine, of Portland passed through town Friday on her return home after a visit with her father, J. H. Matheny, of Myrtle Point, and many friends of that section.

FOR SALE. Two nice garden lots with crop—some fruit—at west end of T bridge. Call on J. Snow at the place.

J. A. Burke, representing the "Coos Bay Gazette," spent a day or two in town last week soliciting subscriptions and advertising for that publication. He informed us that he did a good business.

SPECIAL SALE; 10 to 25 per cent off on all goods except Victor and Edison graphophones and records until Dec. 1st. at E. C. Barker & Co., Successors to V. R. Wilson.

William Elliott, the Dairyville jeweller, spent Thursday afternoon and night with his mother and brother at the Palace restaurant in this city and on Friday extended his trip to his old home on the bay side.

CARPET WEAVING. Mrs. K. Holmerson, Wickham residence east of the Christian church, does fine carpet and rug weaving. Call and see samples of her work and get prices.

Earl Goodman, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Goodman, of this city, whose health has not been very good of late, started for southern California last Friday. He expects to spend some time with a government survey crew in Arizona this spring.

The Central Real Estate Exchange, Robinson building, has several hundred acres of good timber lands for sale at reasonable figures. Better call soon, if interested.

B. B. PAUL, Mgr.

F. T. McMullen and T. P. Hughes, of the Dairyville section, had business which called them to Coquille last Thursday. These gentlemen are among Coquille's leading dairymen and are doing their full share toward the upbuilding of this section.

J. C. Watson, the fancy chicken raiser, has a large lot of fine cockerels for sale—Black Minorcas, White Rocks and White and Brown Leghorns. He also forishes pairs and trios properly mated.

Mrs. Thom and daughter, Miss Kittie, of Myrtle Point were in Coquille Thursday on their way home from a visit to Bandon. Miss Kittie, expects to take the next steamer south from the bay on her return to Eureka, California, to resume her position as nurse in a hospital in that place.

Buy your books at Knowlton's Drug Store. Here you can find everything from a child's 5 cent picture book to the latest novels, and the standard classics in both prose and poetry in elegant binding.

Theodore Hillier, machine man, and W. C. Haley, foreman, of the Coos Bay Times, were in town between trains Friday, and took a view of our city. They expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the appearance of Coquille and surroundings. Our office was accorded a friendly call by these young men which was enjoyed by the working force.

We have several desirable places for young ladies who wish to work for board and room while attending Business College. For full particulars, address:

Meeker-Futrell.

The wedding of Mr. Vernon Meeker and Miss Marion Futrell took place yesterday. The officiating minister was the father of the groom. At the conclusion of the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Meeker made quite a trip to the metropolis. The groom is the eldest son of the Rev. Geo. T. Meeker. The charming bride is one of the belles of the county, and daughter of Rev. J. L. Futrell, the pioneer optician. For the past term she has been engaged teaching at Platea school district. The young people are deservedly popular in the community. —Hollister Enterprise.

Jasper Jennings Married

Grants Pass, Or., Jan. 12—Jasper Jennings and Blanche Roberts were married at the Jennings home in this city last night. Miss Roberts is the girl who was engaged to Jasper at the time of the murder of his father and she remained steadfast to him all through his trial as well as during the days and months of his confinement in jail and in prison. They will make their home in Josephine county. Jasper has a crew employed near here cutting wood by contract.

Andrew Carnegie insists that the world is growing better, and it must be a real pleasure to him, since he has been spending so much money on it.

New York physicians are expressing the opinion that the fat man makes the best husband, but that can hardly be true of the man too fat to split the kindling and carry the coal up from the cellar.

A Cure for Misery.

"I have found a cure for the misery malaria produces," says R. M. James, of Louellen, S. C. "It's called Electric Bitters, and comes in 50 cent bottles. It breaks up a case of chills or a bilious attack in almost no time; and it puts yellow jaundice clean out of commission." This great tonic medicine and blood purifier gives quick relief in all stomach, liver and kidney complaints and the misery of lame back. Sold under guarantee at R. S. R. S. Knowlton's drug store.
