Among the samples of fine fruit and vegetables brought into our office of late was a pear grown by J. W. Clinton, of near Norway, which measures 17 inches in circumference one way and 13 the other, and weighed even two pounds. The tree which grew this one has grown them which weighed three pounds. It is of winter variety and is very nice for canning and preserving.

The editor of the Memphis, Tenn. Times writes: "In my opinion Foley's Honey and Tar is the best remedy for coughs, colic and lung trouble and to my own personal knowledge Foley's Honey and Tar has accomplished many permanent cures that have been little short of marvelous." Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package Sold by E. J. Slocum, druggist.

Port Orford Tribune.
Mrs. McBride is again at her home in Port Orford, where she will hereafter reside and look after her uncle John Deadwood whose health is not good.

Miss Nettie Carey, daughter of Dave Carey, formerly of this county, is visiting her friends and relatives in Port Orford. Miss Carey is a trained nurse and a specimen of womanhood that Vassar College could not eclipse.

Judge Woodruff arrived at Port Orford yesterday evening by private conveyance, having been two days from Bandon, and left this morning for his home. His is a bad case of dropsy, and he is very much changed since he went below. He stood the trip remarkably well up by his anxiety to get home, Chas. Lockwood drove the team down from Bandon.

Randolph Tichenor, an old pioneer who has resided in Curry Co., since the early "fifties," dropped dead at his home on Rogue river, near Gold Beach, Feb. 7th, 1908. He was born in New York, July 18, 1827, came to this coast in 1851. He was one of the miners at Bandon in Coos county, came to Port Orford soon after and helped to form the first settlement at Big Bend on Rogue river. He took an active part in the Indian war of 1855 and 6, after which he lived on lower Rogue river all his days. He was well educated and of a quiet disposition. Only a few more of these veterans remain.

Keeping Open House.
Everybody is welcome when we feel good; and we feel that way only when our digestive organs are working properly. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the action of stomach, liver and bowels so perfectly one can't help feeling good when he uses these pills. 25c at R. S. Knowlton's, drug store.

Reason Enthroid
Because meats are so tasty they are consumed in great excess. This leads to stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation. Revise your diet, let reason and not a pampered appetite control, then take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be well again. Try it. For sale at R. S. Knowlton's drug store. Samples free.

Save Money by Buying Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

You will pay just as much for a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as for any of the other cough medicines, but you save money in buying it. The saving is in what you get, not what you pay. The sure-to-cure-you quality is in every bottle of this remedy, and you get good results when you take it. Neglected colds often develop serious conditions, and when you buy a cough medicine you want to be sure you are getting one that will cure your cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always cures. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Neighborhood Favorite.

Mrs. E. D. Charles of Harbor, Maine, speaking of Electric Bitters says: "It is a neighborhood favorite here with us. It deserves to be a favorite everywhere. It gives quick relief in dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney derangement, malnutrition, nervousness, weakness and general debility. Its action on the blood as a thorough purifier makes it especially useful as a spring medicine. This grand alternative tonic is sold under guarantee at R. S. Knowlton's drug store. 50c.
