C. J. Mahony has purchased the majority of all the stock of the Coos Bay Times and has assumed full control of that paper. Mr. Mahony has been in charge for some time of the company and has issued a very creditable paper, but in the future we expect to see decided improvement as he will put his whole efforts into the work. The people of the entire county should come forward and give the Times the support it deserves. It is no small undertaking to conduct a daily paper in a small place, and a liberal patronage should be accorded this young man in his enterprise, and prove to him that his judgment was not misplaced in this venture. We wish him abundant success.
