Mrs. G. R. Wickham, the boarding house keeper, with her son and daughter, Eugene and Miss Katie, returned Saturday from their visit to Mrs. Wickham's old home in the Calaveras mountains in California. This was her first visit to the old home for 35 year, and was certainly enjoyed. There have been a great many changes in the appearance of the country around as well as in the people, many of the old timers having passed over or moved away, making a streak of sadness appear along with the many pleasures she had her 58th birthday dinner at at old home. George Leach and family who accompanied them did not stop at Klamath Falls, but remained with them the whole trip through.
Rev. J. N. McConnell, of Eugene, who conducted revival meetings in the Christian church in this city during April, will be back again the last of the week and will take up regular pastoral work in the county for a year. Mr. McConnell had good success, adding to the church about 22 members during the meetings referred to, and there is no doubt but that great good will be accomplished during his stay with us. He is expected to arrive by Pownder's stage line the latter part of the week and occupy his pulpit next Sunday. He was to have been here for last Sunday, but he was in the midst of a revival service at Portland and could not start as soon as he expected.
This is what Hon. Jake Moore, State Warden of Georgia, says of Kodol for Dyspepsia: "E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Dear Sir—I have suffered more than twenty years from indigestion. About eight months ago I had grown so much worse that I could not digest a crust of corn bread and could not retain anything on my stomach. I lost 25 lbs; in fact I made up my mind that I could not live but a short time when a friend of mine recommended Kodol. I consented to try it to please him and was better in one day. I now weigh more than I ever did in my life and am in better health than for many years. Kodol did it. I keep a bottle constantly, and write this hoping that humanity may be benefitted. Yours very truly, Jake C. Moore, Atlanta, Aug. 10, 1904." Sold by R. S. Knowlton.
