Coquille Wins Pennant.

Another year has shown that Coquille leads the county with respect to baseball performance. The pennant is hers once more, an empty pennant though it be, and our boys are jubilant to a marked degree over the honors that have befallen them.

By a score of 11 to 4, in a game that was slow, full of wrangle and one-sided, the Bandon fans went down to defeat last Sunday, and the league contests of the season found their ultimate close. Coquille was already one game ahead of Bandon, and had she lost would have simply been tied. Marshfield and North Bend were distanced—down and out as it were.

The closing set-to occurred on the local diamond, and the largest crowd ever gathered at a game in this city was in attendance. Not alone did Bandon's populace turn out en masse, crowding the decks of the river craft, but a special train ran from Marshfield to Myrtle Point and returned in the evening. The crowds thus brought were added to the hundreds of our own people who swarmed to the scene of hostilities, the day being delightful—not at all too warm.

The game was a disappointment to those who had hoped to see an absence of wrangling, a close contest, and both teams at their best. From the very outset it was chew the rag, and at one stage in the proceedings Sheriff Gage had to interfere to prevent a fight and enforce the commands of the umpire. Bandon objected strenuously to Washburn as umpire, Coquille claiming the right to select him. Washburn served nevertheless, and it was cause for continual kick from some of the seaside visitors, but he appeared to act squarely and intelligently and made few if any mistakes.

Bandon's nine, so expected to be a hard competitor on this particular occasion, fell short of expectations, though in the early part of the contest she did some excellent cross-play work, and later one of her men knocked a beautiful two-bagger far into the field. Her new pitcher, however, was no match for our irrepressible Gardner. Some of Coquille's players appeared to experience an off day, and showed a liberal sprinkling of errors. Kelly of Marshfield and Flanagan of North Bend played with Coquille, and both did very good work.

Manager Bedillion came up with his seaside team of fans. It was rumored that the seashore would bring good sized bank rolls to wager on the result of the battle, but if they brought them they were not much in evidence. Coquille money found very few takers.

Our attention has been lately called to the existence of several pestiferous weeds which are gaining a foothold in several localities in the county, and it is the opinion of some of our farming people who are interested that a concerted action by the people will be necessary to eradicate them, or even hold them in check. The good farming lands of Coos county are far too valuable to allow a little negligence to work their destruction or render them almost worthless, when if due diligence and a little hard fighting will put them out of the way. Burdock is becoming quite common about many farms along the river, and while it would not be a very large task to put it out of business at the present time, if it be allowed to increase at will for a few years, it will become a very much larger one, or cause the farm on which it grows to depreciate very materially in its usefulness. Canada thistles is supposed to exist in a few spots, and many of the people in the eastern states have become aware of the great nuisance it becomes, and if our farmers allow it to get a firm hold the consequences are apparent.

Passed Examination Successfully

James Donahue, New Britain, Conn., writes: "I tried several kidney remedies, and was treated by our best physicians for diabetes, but did not improve until I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. After the second bottle I showed improvement, and five bottles cured me completely. I have since passed a rigid examination for life insurance." Foley's Kidney Remedy cures backache and all forms of kidney and bladder trouble. E. J. Slocum.

Burkholder-Moon.

Mr. Frank Burkholder and Mrs. Annie M. Moon didn't deceive their many friends in this city when they journeyed to Portland and returned as husband and wife. The pretty ceremony which wedded the hearts of this gentleman and lady was performed Aug. 26th at 7 a. m. at the residence of W. J. Ferrall in the Oregon metropolis, Rev. Mr. Staub officiating, and was witnessed by only a few, including the Ferrall family, who are old friends of Mr. Burkholder, the groom. Following the ceremony all sat down to an elegant wedding breakfast, and by the 8:30 a. m. train the happy couple started for Roseburg, from which point they journeyed to Coquille by private conveyance.

Mr. and Mrs. Burkholder are now at home to their host of friends in this city, and it is fitting to remark that everyone joins with the Herald in wishing them all manner of joy and prosperity. Very soon they will be snugly domiciled in their pretty new residence lately completed in the northern addition.

Mr. Burkholder is one of our successful real estate men and a member of Coquille's municipal board. Mrs. Moon is a daughter of Pioneers DeWitt Clinton and wife, and grew from early girlhood in this section of Coos county, being at one time a prominent as well as popular school teacher of the Coquille country.

CHEAP CANDY IS UNHEALTHY

California State Board's Startling Disclosures - Situation on Coos Bay

Sacramento, Aug. 23. Secretary N. K. Foster, of the State Board of Health, said today that an analysis of several thousand samples at the State laboratory at Berkeley showed that nearly all the cheap candy sold in California is grossly adulterated, some of the chewing candies containing as much as 25 per cent paraffine.

Many other adulterations are used, but the indigestible quality of paraffine makes its almost universal use in the cheaper grades of candies a matter of special concern to the State Board of Health.

Of seventy-six manufacturers and dealers in food products that are to be given a hearing before the board on August 24, a large proportion are candy merchants.

MODERN COMPANY FOR PURITY

The above press dispatch has occasioned something of a sensation in many sections, striking as it does at the world's most cherished possessions, its boys and girls. Everyone uses candy now and then, but the children are the most regular patrons of the candy trade. Desiring to secure some information as to conditions on Coos Bay a Times reporter interviewed W. C. Bradley, of the Modern Co., in reference to the extent that adulterations is practiced by candy manufacturers.

After being shown the above dispatch Mr. Bradley said:

"You will notice by this dispatch that paraffine is the most largely used adulterant as well as it is the most indigestible and injurious ingredient and is strictly forbidden by the pure food laws. I cannot make any statement regarding other candy manufacturers, but I can say absolutely and with the greatest emphasis possible that there is not and never has been an ounce of paraffine in the candy factory of the Modern Company. Not only is there none of this poison but no other adulterant or injurious ingredient of any character in 'Modern Sweets.' The most critical analysis and careful examination of these candies will prove that they conform not only to the Oregon pure food law but to the national pure food law as well, for nothing but the purest sugar and pure fruit flavors and extracts enter into the composition of 'Mod. Sweets.' I am glad to see the papers taking this matter up for it is something the public should be informed upon. It is a matter of very great importance that a food so universally used and one going into everyone should be free from contamination of commercial greed which would not hesitate to use poisonous adulterants in order to increase profits."

In parting Mr. Bradley remarked "You cannot be too emphatic in your statement that the Modern Confectionery Company's products are free from all adulterants."

When Teifles Become Troubles

If any person suspects that their kidneys are deranged they should take Foley's Kidney Remedy at once and not risk having Bright's disease or diabetes. Delay gives the disease a stronger foothold and you should not delay taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. E. J. Slocum.

Avoid Quarantine, but Lose Children.

Lodi, Cal., Aug. 22. In order to avoid quarantine regulations the parents of 7-year-old Arnold Perrin failed to call in a physician and as a result the child lies dead today, a victim of acute Bright's disease. The Perrins are well-to-do residents of this city. Two of their children became ill with scarlet fever, and fearing their house would be quarantined the parents did not call in a physician, but endeavored to treat the little ones with home remedies. They were getting along nicely until one day they were allowed to play in the yard. Both children amused themselves by running under the spray of a lawn sprinkler and becoming thoroughly wet, contracted Bright's disease. Little Arnold died within a few days and the other child is not expected to live.
