Tablet we are closing out our entire line at reduced prices, O. Wilson & Co.

Assessor T. J. Thrift went to the bay Thursday with his daughter, Miss Belle, who took a steamer for Frisco on her way down to San Diego, California, where she goes to see her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Thrift.

Remember we carry every thing you need in grocery line, Land & Lyons.

John Billings, a pioneer of Curry county who settled on Rogue river in the early 50's, died at his home at Mule creek Friday, Sept. 27. The deceased was 85 years old and the father of a large family who mourn his loss, nearly all of whom are residents of this county.—Port Orford Tribune.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little liver pills. They are small, sure, safe pills. Sold by R. S. Knowlton.

John Lindebeck was called home from Marshfield last week on account of a fire which was burning in close proximity to his place at Arago. He returned to Marshfield the latter part of the week, since when we have had several mists at night which are checking the spread of fires considerably.

If you want a nice suit of clothes, call on Land & Lyons, as we wish close out our stock of clothing. The prices are right.

Peter Axe was down from Bridge one day last week with a load of fruit, etc., from his farm among which were a lot of peaches which were as nice as you would wish to see. He tells us that he has about 600 trees just coming into bearing and that in two years he will be able to furnish a large amount of that luscious fruit.

Registered Berkshire pigs, both sex, for sale. Call on J. C. Watson, breeder of registered Jersey cattle, at the farm near Coquille.

J. E. Walstrom is adding a five ton wagon scale to the equipment of the Central Warehouse, and is also having a large coal shed built. The capacity of the shed will be about 130 tons. These are both much needed utilities in Bandon, and Mr. Walstrom says that he will see to it that there is no coal famine in our city this winter.—Bandon Record.

FOR SALE.—Half of a well selected herd belonging to a lower river dairyman, thirty-five in number, at thirty dollars a piece, for particulars address F. E. F., care of this office.

H. Hulbert, a practical orchardist from Montague, Michigan, is here looking over the country with a view to locating and determining the ability of this section to raise certain kinds of fruit, peaches in particular. He is fully convinced that certain kinds would be a thorough success if properly located, and that is one point upon which he is an expert. Since there are several trees in different parts of the county which are doing fine, it is certain that they can be grown with profit under proper conditions.

CARPET WEAVING. Mrs. K. Holverson, Wickham residence east of the Christian church does fine carpet and rug weaving. Call and see samples of her work and get prices.

Mrs. M. A. Tupper, of Hotel Coquille, had business at Bandon Saturday.
