

Coquille Herald.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 4, 1908.

With this issue of the HERALD the editor in chief retires for the time being, while C. O. Dryden takes charge. We have been connected with the paper since it was founded, its first appearance being on September 9, 1882, and sole proprietor and editor for the past eight years, and have been constantly at the work since the first date with the exception of two years spent in the county clerk's office, which, we think entitles us to a vacation of a year at least. Mr. Dryden has spent most of his life in the office and fully understands the work which he has well in hand and we feel assured that the business will be conducted along former lines and to the satisfaction of our large number of patrons.

Respectfully Yours,
D. F. DEAN.

With this issue of the HERALD I assume management and will in the next year endeavor to give the readers and patrons a fair clean up-to-date newspaper that will merit the continuance of its already large patronage.

C. O. DRYDEN.

COURT MARTIALED.

To be Played at Masonic Hall
Tuesday, November 10th.

"Court Martialed" is a comedy drama in four acts, with a strong situation, without the burning of gun powder or the flashing of cold steel. The story of the play is, in part, as follows:

Captain Randall, of the U. S. army is court-martialed and condemned to be shot for striking his superior officer, who has unjustly accused him of cowardice during a fight with the Apaches. While awaiting the execution of the sentence he dictates his will to his friends Colonel Randall, leaving his large property in the East to his wife. Randall substitutes another will which he has drawn, making himself the heir, and this substitute is signed by Randall just before being led out to be shot. The will is contested by Mrs. Randall, but she is defeated through the testimony of a private who has witnessed the false will in collusion with the Colonel.

The play opens with Randall (Wallace Howe), in possession of the property, and being blackmailed by the private, who has developed into a full-fledged tramp, Sandy Walker (Joe Thompson) and who has possession of the unsigned draft of the genuine will. Then another tramp, Stormy Jordan (Herbert Cramer) appears on the scene, who also knows all about the will and claims a share of the spoils. At the same time Randall discovers that the new tenants in one of his cottages are Mrs. Jordan, now blind and poor; and her daughter Ethel. He tries to drive or bribe them to go away, and even tries to compass the woman's death, but without success.

In the mean time, things are happening between Randall's niece Alice (Margaret Lee) and her lover Dick Holland, (Edson Elliott) Ethel (Louise Kirkwood) and Bob Chumley (Jack Haley) Alice and Chumley have become engaged to please their relatives, but Alice and Dick have fallen in love with each other, and Ethel and Bob proceed to do the same. Chumley, who is an absent minded young doctor, furnishes a great deal of delicious comedy. In fact there are plenty of hearty laughs scattered through the play, and there is one great surprise, while the plot is worked out to a satisfactory conclusion.

The Masked Ball.

The first masked ball of the season last Saturday evening in Nosler's hall, given under the auspices of the baseball club, was a success in every particular.

There was large number of maskers and a most enjoyable evening spent. It was a success financially as well as socially.

MARRIED—At Parsonage of M. E. Church South, Saturday, Oct. 31st at 8:30 p. m. Mr. John C. Fish and Miss Elsie L. Campbell were united in marriage Rev. E. B. Jones, officiating. The wedding was a very quiet affair, no guests being present but the necessary witnesses. Both young people reside in Coquille, and will doubtless continue to make their home here. The best wishes of a host of friends follow the happy couple.

Coos bay is to be fortified and an Artillery corps is to be organized in the near future. Adj. General Finzer who recently made an investigation of the fort has made a report to the government favorably and recommended that Coos bay be fortified and that an artillery corps be maintained. It is expected that all arrangements will be made and work started within a few months.

The Halloween excursion of Laurel Camp, R. N. A. to Bandon was a very decided success. The Wolverine was chartered for the occasion and all enjoyed the trip. Upon arriving at Bandon the boat was met by a large delegation of Bandon Royal Neighbors who escorted the visitors to the K. P. hall where the evening was passed very pleasantly. Laurel Camp's drill team put on a few fancy drills after which the young people indulged in games until supper was served at 11:30. The Bandon Neighbors deserve much credit for the efficient manner in which they looked after the welfare of their guests. The excursionists arrived home at 5 p. m. Sunday well pleased with their trip.

Sweet and sour pickles in bulk at Robinson's.

What Would You Do

In case of a scald what would you do to relieve the pain? Such injuries are liable to occur in any family and every one should be prepared for them. Chamberlain's Salve applied on a soft cloth will relieve the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a severe one, will cause the parts to heal without leaving a scar. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

The O. E. S. Entertainment.

The Halloween social given by the ladies of the Eastern Star was certainly a success and the attendance was very large, the lodge room of the Masonic Hall being crowded to its utmost.

The decoration of the hall including the different booths, where all the good things were dispensed, was a marvel of beauty being in vine maple with its beautiful autumn colors and gaily lighted with Jack-o-lanterns.

The fish pond was a decided success with the children and the patronage afforded it taxed it to its capacity. The ice cream and candy and pumpkin pie booth certainly did a good business with the good old article "like mothers use to make down on the farm."

The ladies in charge of the entertainment deserve great credit for the successful manner in which it was carried on.

How to Cure a Cold

Be as careful as you can you will occasionally take cold, and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and that is certain to effect a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. During the many years in which it has been in general use we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

The Tendency in Clothesmaking

And buying has been along radical lines. By general consent the fancy or "freak" styles have been given over to the college or high-school boys. The point with us has been to get goods of this kind that will bear inspection as to workmanship; goods that we are willing to stand back of to the limit. There isn't a style we carry that isn't in good taste.
