R. O. Stevens, state game warden of Forest Grove, who visited this section a week ago, informed us that the greatest trouble the game wardens experiences this year was the running of deer with dogs. It is a shame that some of the people will persist in using dogs to kill deer. If they would train their dogs to assist them in getting panther and bear, deer would be enough more plentiful that they could get more of them than they do at present, and that without the aid of a dog and the violating of the law.

SUMMONS.
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Coos.
Janet B. Robinson, Plaintiff, vs. H. J. Dexheimer, and G. W. Dexheimer, Defendants.
To H. J. Dexheimer and G. W. Dexheimer; the above entitled defendants:
In the name of the state of Oregon—You, and each of you, are hereby notified that you are required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: Within six weeks from the 28th day of October, 1908, and if you fail to appear and answer on or before the 9th day of December, 1908, that date being the last day of the time prescribed in the order of publication, judgment will be taken against you for want thereof for the relief demanded in plaintiff's complaint, a succinct statement of which is as follows: That plaintiff's title to lots one, two and three, of block three of Portland Addition to the town of Bandon, in the County of Coos and State of Oregon, according to the plat of said addition on file and record in the office of the County Clerk of said Coos county, be quieted as against defendants and each of them, and that defendants be forever enjoined and restrained from setting up any claim of right, title or interest in or to said land or any part thereof, for her costs and disbursements in this suit, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem meet and equitable.

Service of this summons is made by publication in pursuance of an order made by Honorable John F. Hall as county judge of Coos county, Oregon, dated the 27th day of October, 1908.

Dated this 27th day of October, 1908.
