Bar Association Formed.

The Coos County Bar Association was organized Monday evening last at a meeting of the different lawyers held in the court house in Coquille. All the members of the county bar with two exceptions were present and signed the roll. These two are absent from Coos and will no doubt join on their return. A. J. Sherwood was elected president of the association, Judge John F. Hall vice-president, J. J. Stanley secretary, and C. A. Schilbrede treasurer.

All the important counties of this and other States have their bar associations for the general uplifting and protection of the legal profession, and this move by our attorneys is in keeping with the unquestioned growth and up-to-dateness of Coos county.

A committee of three was immediately appointed to wait upon and invite Judge Hamilton and District Attorney Brown to the meeting, and the invitation as extended was accepted promptly. The Judge and Mr. Brown were both elected to honorary membership, and each delivered an appropriate address.

The following committees were appointed: Permanent Organization—J. D. Goss, E. D. Sperry, J. F. Hall, L. A. Liljeqvist and C. F. McKnight. By-Laws—C. A. Schilbrede, A. S. Hammond, N. C. McLeod, L. A. Roberts and G. T. Treadgold. Resolutions of Sympathy for J. W. Bennett—J. M. Upton, John F. Hall and Walter Sinclair. Rules of Court—E. D. Sperry, J. W. Snover and A. H. Derbyshire. The latter committee was instructed to consult with Judge Hamilton before making its report.

On motion, the meeting adjourned after deciding to meet at Marshfield the fourth Tuesday in January.

New G. A. R. Post.

At Modern Woodman Hall last Wednesday afternoon Coquille Post, Grand Army of the Republic, was formally mustered in by W. E. Thorp, commander of Baker Post at Marshfield. Once previously Coquille had a Grand Army Post, but it surrendered its charter about five years ago, its members thereafter commingling with the other posts of the valley.

The new post starts out with a healthy membership, and there is every indication that it is here to remain. The meeting day will be the first Wednesday in each month at 2 p. m. at Modern Woodman Hall. An earnest invitation is extended to all Civil War veterans of this section to unite with the new organization. Its officers for the first year are as follows: Commander, Walter Sinclair; Sen. Vice Com., E. W. Ferris; Jun. Vice Com., D. P. Strang; Adj., G. E. Brewer; Chap., J. Quick; Q. M., John Rowan; Officer of Day, Jos. Waltermier; Officer of Guard, J. B. Davis; Surg., W. A. Custer. Other members of the post are: W. Drane, A. J. Wilson, L. Harlocker, B. F. Hill and J. L. Samson.

Visitors as follows were present from other posts: Bandon.—Thos. Coates, J. W. Felter, John Morris, M. Rowan, J. H. Akers and R. F. Shannon. Myrtle Point.—D. A. Huling, R. W. Lundy, Manual Hermann, W. King, S. C. Endicott and B. H. Haskins. North Bend.—W. E. Thorp and S. Miller.

Captain Robt. J. Dunham and Chief Engineer A. D. Dunham of the steamer Ronoke are members of a new company which will operate a boat line between Portland and Tillamook. They have secured the little steamer Argo which formerly plied in the Coquille trade, but which more recently has been running between Eel River and San Francisco. Captain and Chief Dunham are nephews of Hark Dunham of Coquille, and once handled craft on this stream.

Wanted.—A good dining room girl. Address Box 163, Coquille.

Hersey's Racket Store is the place to get Holiday Goods of all kinds; something new by every steamer.

Mrs. McAdams last Saturday sold her place on the opposite side of the river from Coquille to Mr. T. J. Fromm, late of Port Orford. The place embraces about ten acres with buildings, and it sold for $300 per acre. Mr. Fromm and his bride will reside upon the property, they having but recently been wedded.

Knowlton's Drug Store has a very large stock of books, consisting of everything from 5c toy books to most beautiful gift books.

Seelye & Anderson closed their logging camp near Riverton last Saturday noon, and the crew was discharged. All the timber at that point having been cleaned up, the camp must be moved before operations are once more resumed. It has not been settled just where the camp will be located.

Anyone wishing house moving or other heavy work done can be accommodated by calling on H. L. Varner.

J. W. Clinton, who lately returned from his trip through the Middle West and South, paid the Herald a pleasant call last Monday. His trip carried him through Canada, down the Mississippi River, to his old home in Missouri, and thence into Texas and Mexico on his return home. In the old Mexican Republic he had the displeasure of witnessing a bull fight, and brought home some pictures of the cruel exhibition. No more bull fights for him, he says.

More goods to arrive on the Steamer Elizabeth for the Racket Store. Be on hand when the goods land and make your selections.

Sam Johnson, our guardian of the peace during nocturnal hours, had an experience last Wednesday evening that actually lifted his hair and the hat on top of it. He was engaged in ringing the curfew when the big clapper broke from its fastening and came down with a thud, striking the ground not two feet from Sam's toes. If it had landed on his cranium there would have been no more noisy "exuberants" go to the cooler under his protecting wing. The bell was repaired the next morning.

Oh Say, if you want to see the best line of Christmas Goods ever brought to Coos county call at M. H. Hersey's Racket Store, Second St.

The adjourned term of Circuit Court convened at the court house in this place Monday morning, and the few criminal cases to be tried will probably hold court in session the remainder of the week. Judge Hamilton is presiding as usual; District Atty. Brown is also present. The Grand Jury was sworn in Monday morning, and will investigate various criminal matters. The first jury case disposed of was the suit of Louise J. Hicking vs. Edwards Bros. and Merchant Bros. to recover on a promissory note for $1,017, affecting the sale of a donkey engine. A verdict was given for plaintiff. Hattie Bruce was granted a divorce from her husband.

A young man named Ben Aker was arrested at Dashney's logging camp on Cunningham Creek last Wednesday afternoon by a deputy sheriff from Oregon City, this State. Aker is charged with criminally assaulting a 10-year-old girl of Oregon City last July, leaving the country immediately afterward and disappearing from sight. He came to this place about three weeks ago, and secured a job running a donkey engine at the camp named. It was only by chance that the Clackamas officers succeeded in locating the fellow, which they did with the aid of Sheriff W. W. Gage. Aker readily yielded and was kept in jail here until the officer started with him Friday for Oregon City.

Fatality at Bandon.

Word reached Coquille yesterday afternoon that Grant Ames, a well known resident of the Bandon vicinity, had been thrown from a horse that morning while riding along the beach and sustained injuries from which he died a few hours later. Deceased was a nephew of H. L. Cooper and Mrs. E. J. Wright, who reside in this city.

At a meeting of the citizens of the Coquille road district, held yesterday afternoon, it was voted to impose a special road tax of 5 mills in the district to improve the highways of this section.

Stmr. Coquille's Trial Trip.

The new steamer Coquille, lately built near the depot for the Coquille River Transportation Co., is in full readiness to assume her place on the Bandon run, lacking only the formality of an official inspection, which will be made any day. The inspectors have been sent for, and should have arrived ere this.

On last Thursday afternoon the new craft made a trial run to Beaver Slough and back, and everything worked in a most satisfactory manner. The engines of course, being new, worked a trifle hard, but nevertheless the six miles to Beaver were covered in just 27 minutes. A few were aboard as deck hands and stewards, and the ride was immensely enjoyed. Captain John Moomaw officiated at the wheel and Gurley Boak was master of the engine room. The Coquille is what is known as a "keel condenser." She is one of the fastest and prettiest little steamers afloat.
