His opponents, in fact-those who would defeat the people's will and have pledged members violate their solemn pledgehave abandoned their best hopes of success. Even Senator Fulton is credited with the statement that "it is useless to try longer for the defeat of Governor Chamberlain." He is discouraged-his spirit broken by the refusal of Roosevelt and Taft to enlist their aid for his reelectic :

There will be some important legislation of a general nature to consider at this session, much of which will be outlined and recommended in the Governor's message. Among the measures that should be passed is the one to increase the bounty on panthers, coyotes, wildcats, and other destructive animals so numerous and multiplying in the State at present. Some of these varmints are as destructive of deer as they are of sheep and other stock. There should also be better protection for elk.

Senator-elect Chase of Coquille started for Salem via Coos bay Monday. That evening he met with the North Bend Chamber of Commerce to discuss some proposed legislation affecting Coos bay harbor. Representative-elect R. E. L. Bedillion is reported to be sick in San Francisco, but will be able to travel from that city to Salem by rail.
