Public School Notes.

The literary society meets every Thursday evening in the High School room. A good deal of interest is being shown in the debates. The public are invited to attend these debates and lend their aid in keeping up the spirit of the work. Any body may become a member of the literary society whether attending school or not.

Owen Knowlton, Mildred Slosum and Gretchen Sherwood, the representatives of this school in the Coquille-Myrtle Point Debate are working over time in the preparation of the argument. Debate comes off Feb. 12th. at Myrtle Point.

The Basket Ball games between North Bend and Coquille on last Friday evening were very interesting from start to finish. The girls' game did not start in with as much vim as it ended. The game was very clean and good character was shown by both teams. The score was 8 to 3 in favor of North Bend.

The boys' game was decidedly fast and clean. Both teams seemed to be in the middle of the game from beginning to end. The score at the end of the first half was 8 to 8. The excitement at the beginning of the second half was intense. For a time the North Bend boys were ahead; the Coquille boys pulled up their score and for the rest of the time we could only hope. Every one from Coquille hoped within himself that time would be called when our boys were ahead and the North Bend people must have hoped the same thing, when their boys were ahead. From the standpoint of playing no one was weary of the game and it could have lasted much longer with interest. The score at the close of the game was 15 to 12 in favor of Coquille. It seems safe to say that not the first thought of unfairness entered the mind of any player in either game.

The girls' defeat was a victory to them. One of the players was heard to say "I don't care if they did beat us they were so nice." This seems to be the spirit of all the players.

There was some disagreement in regard to fouls that was possibly unnecessary. No man can be perfect. That the referee was trying to do the right thing is the opinion of both teams from Coquille.

The conduct of the crowd was far from commendable during the boys' game. During the girls' game it was very commendable. The extreme tendency of the people in moments of passion to do and say things that seem out of place in milder conditions will do more to kill the real spirit of school athletics than any one other factor. There is more to be gained from sports if they are pursued in the right channels, than mere score victory. The following from Spalding's: "How to Play Basket Ball" tells the real purpose of sports:

"There is no interest connected with the aim of a boy or youth which reveals his character so much as the sports in which he engages. The teacher may meet him constantly in the class room, the father and the mother may meet him and study him in the home, but if they have not watched him on the playground and often, too, engaged in active, earnest and competitive sport, have not seen him as a member of some team opposed to another team, they have failed to see one of the best revealing of character. All the nobleness, the generosity, the truthfulness or fairness of character on the one hand, and on the other the viciousness, the treachery, the trickery, the lack of control, the dishonesty, are shown forth. Individuals competition will not show this."

"The man who can play through a hard active game as one of a team without losing his temper, without taking unfair advantage of an opponent, without thought of himself and only of his team's success, can take his defeat goodnaturedly, has learned that selfcontrol by the training received through his boyhood and youth while engaged in play, and the characteristics he shows there will be true of him in all the duties and pleasures of life. The man who exhibits the opposite character has failed in boyhood and youth to grasp the great training of sports. A true sport is a true gentleman."

Riverton Pick-Ups.

Some sickness in our town, including C. A. Peterson, Sr., Steve Steward and O. A. Kelly.

Mrs. Etta White was visiting her parents several days.

The storm dislocated most of the tramway from the river to the coal mine owned by the Eureka Co.

W. J. Floyd and his sister, Rose Ferry, are visiting relatives in Marshfield.

Mrs. Cessna has broken up house-keeping at Bandon and moved back to Riverton.

The coal business seems to be improving. Everything shows a lively industry in our neighborhood. There is now in actual operation six coal mines working around our town. D. S. Rouse and George Gage each are working mines below town, while Adams, Peterson & Co. and the Eureka Company are above town. Just back or east of town; W. W. Kight operates one mine and Vowell and Harrington another. They all have good domestic coal. We wish each and all success as their success means the future welfare of our town.

We continually hear the croakers, cursing the climate of Coos County and at the same time portraying the climate of California in glowing colors, making California appear a paradise beside this climate of ours. I left Bandon Jan. 14th and returned on the 24th. During my absence there was but a half day of fair weather; the rain poured down in torrents and the streets of Oakland and San Francisco would disgrace any streets of our towns in Old Coos. DONA ANA.

"For several winters past my wife has been troubled with a most persistent und disagreeable cough, which invariably extended over a period of several weeks and caused her many sleepless nights," writes Will J. Hayner, editor of the Burley, Colo., Bull. "Various remedies were tried each year, with no beneficial results. In November last the cough again put in an appearance and my wife, acting on the suggestion of a friend, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The result was indeed marvelous. After three doses the cough entirely disappeared and has not manifested itself since." This remedy is for sale by R. S. Knowlton.

W. A. Goodman has re-entered the house moving business, having bought back the tools and outfit which he sold to Heaton & Shuck some months ago. Mr. Goodman is too well and popularly known as a house mover to need introduction at our hands, so it is sufficient to say that he is back in the business.

Foley's Orino Laxative is a new remedy, an improvement on the laxatives of former years, as it does not gripe or nauseate and is pleasant to take. It is guaranteed. E. J. Sloum.

Sewing Machines
For Sale or rent at Goff & Goodman's.

You will pay just as much for a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as for any of the other cough medicines, but you save money in buying it. The saving is in what you get, not what you pay. The sure-to-cure-you quality is in every bottle of this remedy, and you get good results when you take it. Neglected colds often develop serious conditions, and when you buy a cough medicine you want to be sure you are getting one that will cure your cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always cures. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.
Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed administrator of the estate of Margaret A. Baker, deceased, by the County Court of the State of Oregon for Coos County. All persons having claims against the estate are required to present the same to me at Coquille, Oregon, verified according to law, within the time designated by the statutes of the State of Oregon.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for the County of Coos.

Lillian Curran, plaintiff, vs.
Horrace A. Curran, defendant,
Suit in equity for divorce.
To Horrace A. Curran, the above named defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon You are hereby notified that you are required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: within six weeks from the 27th day of January 1909, the same being the date of the first publication of this summons.

And if you fail to appear and answer on or before the 10th day of March 1909, the same being the last day of the time prescribed in the order of publication, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in her complaint, a substantial statement of which is as follows:

That the marriage contract heretofore and now existing between the aforesaid plaintiff and herself, the said defendant, be wholly dissolved and held for naught, and for such other and further relief in the premises as to the Court may seem just and equitable.
Service of this Summons is made by publication in pursuance of an order made and entered of record, said order being made by the Hon. John F. Hall, County Judge of Coos County, Oregon, said order being dated January 21st 1909 directing that service thereof be made by publication of said Summons once a week for period of six weeks, in the Coquille Herald, a newspaper published at the City of Coquille, in the said County of Coos and State of Oregon.
Dated this 21st day of January, 1909.
R. H. Smith,
Attorney for Plaintiff.
