Resolution of Condolence. At a stated communication of Beulah Chapter No. 6—E. O. S. held in Masonic hall, Friday evening, March, 12th 1909 the following resolutions of condolence were unanimously adopted. Whereas, our sister Mamie Slagle, has suffered a deep grief and irreparable loss in the death of her mother, which occurred at Medford, Ore. March 8, 1909—therefore be it Resolved—That we the members of Beulah Chapter, No. 6—E. O. S. do extend to our sister our most sincere and deepest sympathy in the great loss she has sustained and further be it Resolved—That a copy of these resolutions be sent to our sister and a copy published in each of the local papers and a copy spread on the minutes of our Chapter. ERMA MERR, VIRGINIA LAMB, Susan Folsom, Committee on Resolutions. A Booster's Creed. "If there is a chance to boom business, boom it. Don't be a knocker. Don't pull a long face. Hope a bit. Get a smile on you. Hold up your hand. Get a hold with both hands. Then pull. Bury your hatchet. Drop your tomahawk. Hide your little hammer. When a stranger drops in tell him this is the greatest town on earth. It is. Don't be snub. Don't roast. Be jolly. Get popular. Its dead easy. Help yourself along. Push your friend with you. Soon you'll have a whole procession. Be a good fellow. All men are not alike. Once in a while you may find one who is very much alike. But some are different. You're not the only shirt in the wash. If you don't like their style let 'em alone. Don't knock. You'll get used to it. There's no end of fun in minding your own business. And it makes other people like you better. Better have others get stuck on you than get stuck on yourself. Nobody gets stuck on a knocker. Don't be one. Be good.—American Printer. Harriman Seeks Beggar. Tucson, Ariz., March 9.—A beggar to whom E. H. Harriman gave a dime while in this city Thursday last, is being sought by railroad detectives under instructions from the railroad magnate, who is now in Sinaloa, Mex., and who has kept the wires hot in an effort to obtain some trace of the man. Trainmen have been instructed to be on the lookout for the man, whose description has been telegraphed to all points along the line. What has occasioned Mr. Harriman's sudden interest in the man is not known here. While Mr. Harriman and a party of friends were talking on the depot platform the beggar approached him and told a story about having been crippled while in the service of the Southern Pacific. It is presumed that the magnate's interest was aroused, and that on second thought he had decided to assist the man if he could be found.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Winnifred Gaffey was born in County Roscommon, Ireland, in the year 1844. Her maiden name was O'Farrel. She came to America at the age of 18, was married to Patrick Gaffey in the state of New Jersey at the age of 25. To this union were born seven children, five sons and two daughters. The father and two children, a son and daughter, passed to the great beyond a number of years ago. One daughter and four sons are left to mourn the loss of as good, kind and unselfish a mother as children ever possessed. She passed away at Coquille March 11, 1909, aged 65 years and seven months, after an illness of ten weeks. Everything that loving hands and aching hearts could do to make her last days on earth comfortable was done, and her demise has cast a gloom on the community in which she lived. The writer heard a little child of eight years say, "Take these flowers to Mrs. Gaffey's funeral. I do not want to go, I loved her so. If it were some one else it would be different, but I want to remember her as standing in the door as I used to see her." Those left to mourn her loss are Mrs. Katherine McGee, Thomas, William, John and Bernard Gaffey, and residents of Coquille. The remains were laid to rest in the Marshfield cemetery on Sunday, March 14, beside her husband who preceded her in the year 1901. May the dear soul rest in peace. She leaves a host of friends to mourn her loss, besides her family who have the sympathy of the entire community. M. M. J. Coquille papers please copy. Dearest Mother, thou hast left us, And our loss we deeply feel, But 'tis God who has bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal. Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life is fled, And in heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no farewell tear is shed. Rest in peace thou dearest Angel, Till our storms of life are o'er, Then we'll come with joy to greet thee, On that happy, golden shore. Legs Damaged by Fire. San Francisco, March 9.—A special from San Jose states that when George Campbell, of Sunny Vale, was roused by the members of the Fire Department of that place, he discovered that both of his wooden legs were merrily blazing. Campbell was sleeping in the American Hotel when a fire broke out. His life was probably saved by the daughter of the proprietor, who discovered the blaze and ran in her night clothes to warn the fire department. The blaze was practically confined to Campbell's room, and he slept blissfully while his wooden extremities provided fuel for a lively bonfire. The chief damage was to the legs.
