

LOCAL NEWS.

Guard your complexion this month, Peroxid Cream will prevent any roughing or chaffing 25 cents Fuhrman's Pharmacy.

Fred Tuttle, of Bandon, went to Marshfield, Wednesday.

Pongee, Koba and Poplin silks at Robinson's.

Capt. Aasen was down from Arago on Saturday.

Garden, grass and field seeds at Knowlton's Drug Store.

H. L. Carl, of Norway, went to the Bay Saturday.

The new long sleeve waists are in at Robinson's.

Harry Guerin, of Myrtle Point, went to Bandon Saturday.

Nice line of spring caps for the school girls at The White House.

Chas. Lesnenni, of Norway, transacted business in this city last Saturday.

Remember the cash store, Rose's place, opposite Hotel Coquille.

W. T. Kerr, of this city, returned from a business trip to the Bay Saturday.

Fresh oysters—Any style, or in can on at Maryland Cafe.

D. C. Krantz, of Dora, made our office a pleasant call while in town Friday.

Rolled barley, shorts, bran and wheat at Robinson's.

Senator Chase arrived home Friday after attendance at the special session of the legislature at Salem.

Three papers garden seeds for 10 cents at Knowlton's Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Briggs, of near Riverton, visited their daughter, Mrs. Chas. Zevely on Thursday.

Saws gummed, filed and set at Quick & Curry's shop.

Mrs. Jas. Brown, of Myrtle Point, returned home Wednesday after a visit with her mother, Mrs. G. A. Brown, of this city.

The very best northern grown seeds, at Knowlton's, three papers for 10 cents.

J. A. Radabaugh was down from Arago, Monday, and reported la grippe quite prevalent in this section, even the shinglemill being sufferer from the dreaded malady.

I am nearly sold out and want to list more timber lands. E. H. Kern, Coquille, Oregon.

E. E. Dickson, formerly a resident of this county, and spent a year or so at Murphy, this state, but went to Oakland, California, last Fall, was in town a day or so last week renewing old acquaintances.

You can buy more goods for the cash, at Rose's Cash store than any place in town.

Buy your tickets for Portland on Steamer Alliance which sails on March 25th. This boat has been equipped with wireless telegraph which makes it a pleasant and safe journey. Remember the date.

Barred Plymouth Rock eggs one dollar per setting of 15 for sale by J. Quick, Coquille, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Angell, of Myrtle Point, came down Thursday to consult Dr. Richmond in regard to the latter's health, she have been considerably under the weather of late from an attack of rheumatism.

The poorest family can afford meat when bought from the People's Market, Dean & Company.

Chas. Kime was engaged since our last in moving his family from Bandon to Myrtle Point. While so engaged his place in the engine room of the Echo was filled by Claude Fox.

Tozier's Celebrated Logger Shoes have won popularity with the woods boys. E. L. Tozier maker, Coquille.

Major Tower, Custom House officer at Coos Bay, came over one day last week to make a survey of the new gasoline boat of Chas. Ashton, the Star, which is an exceedingly nice boat, is finished up in style and is ready for work.

Goff & Goodman have an assortment of good, stout, serviceable overalls. Come and see them, workmen.

Mrs. J. A. Travis of Fortuna, California, is still in this place in attendance at the sickbed of her father, W. M. Lafferty, who has been seriously ill for some time. Mr. Travis returned to Fortuna three weeks ago.

Get your table legs turned at Quick & Curry's. They have some patterns already out. Hard wood, $1 per set.

E. A. Wimer was down from Fishtrap on Saturday.

New goods on every steamer for Rose's Cash store.

Geo. Heninger, of Fistrap, had business in town Saturday.

Choice onion sets at Knowlton's Drug Store.

Geo. T. Moulton pays the highest price for wool and chitham bark.

New spring ginham at Robinson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Zevely were passengers to the Bay by Saturday's train.

New laces and band trimmings at Robinson's.

T. H. Mehl was confined to his home with illness the latter part of last week.

Opening of white goods at Robinson's this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carl, of Coquille, went to Bandon last Wednesday.

For bargains in shoes, see Drane at his new store.

James Richardson, of Parkersburg, came up to this city on business Saturday.

Tozier, the expert shoe manufacturer. Keep him in mind.

Attorney Pulford, of Myrtle Point, had business which called him to the Bay on Saturday.

Something doing every minute at Rose's Cash store.

Mrs. Dave Carey, of Bandon, returned from a visit to Myrtle Point by Friday's train.

Robinson's new spring shoes are in.

Judge Coke came over from Marshfield to the County seat Wednesday of last week.

Money saved for you if you buy dry goods at O. Wilson & Co.

Mrs. C. J. Randleman, of Parkersburg, visited relatives and friends in this city a day or so last week.

Guns of all kinds for sale or rent at Goff & Goodman's 2nd hand store.

T. Nicols, the commercial man of Marshfield, interviewed his many patrons in this valley last week.

Make your washing easy by using Washing Tablets at Drane's store.

F. E. Allen, the "paper man," was in town a day or so last week taking orders for goods in his line.

P. E. Drane keeps puffed rice a delicious dish for breakfast and for sick folks.

J. H. Oerding, the cement brick and block man, of this place, made a business trip up the river Wednesday.

Clark's O. N. T. thread 5 cents a spool at Robinson's.

John Nielson, of Prosper, had business which called him to Coos Bay Wednesday. He returned the last of the week.

FOR SALE.—In first class order, one eight-horse boiler and engine. Inquire of J. Nelson, Bullards.

Ed Gillespie, of Prosper, who has been considerably under the weather of late, came up last week to see Dr. Richmond who is bringing him out all right.

The shoes for woodmen; Tozier's Logger Shoes. The gloves for wear.—S. F. Fear Gloves. E. L. Tozier.

Mrs. J. T. Bridges, formerly of Myrtle Point, who now lives at Cordova, Alaska, came down last week and is here looking after some unfinished business of Mr. Bridges. They are now engaged in the general mercantile business at Cordova, and are doing nicely. Her many friends are pleased to see her.

The best and most wholesome meats; the purest lard. Go to the People's Market.

Peter Brack, a Coos county pioneer and for many years a resident near Myrtle Point, was in the valley several days lately visiting old friends. He now makes his home with his son Dan Brack who lives at Vancouver, Washington. The old gentleman started on his return the last of the week.

If you don't want to sell your land don't list them with E. H. Kern, Coquille, Oregon.

Steve Cronley, one of the most noted of the long distance pedestrians of the country, was in Marshfield last Friday on his way around the United States on foot. He has been hiking since Oct. 25th, 1907, on a wager of $2000, starting from Toledo, Ohio, and is supposed to finish "circumnavigating" the nation by June 25th, 1910. He is ahead of time now.

Wear Tozier's Logger Shoes and S. F. Fear Gloves. None better are made. Call on E. L. Tozier.

Z. T. Boyce, of Bandon, was in town yesterday.

New line of spring hats for men at Robinson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Whetstone came over from the Bay yesterday.

Spring millinery is now on sale at The White House.

Frank Nelson, of Norway, was a Coquille business visitor on Monday.

Big line of the new gloves just in at The White House.

E. W. Sturtevant, of Riverton, had business in Coquille on Monday.

Anything you want in groceries at Robinson's.

Adam Pershaker, of Prosper, was a passenger to Marshfield on Monday.

Pie apricots one gallon can for 25 cents at Rose's Cash store.

Attorney A. S. Hammond, of this city, went to the Bay on business Friday.

The latest creations in ladies' princess suits at Robinson's.

Frank Williams, the shooting gallery man, went to the Bay Friday to visit friends.

Robinson's store has new spring belts.

Dr. Wetmore, of Myrtle Point, was a passenger to Coquille by Monday's train.

White River flour makes white light bread. Robinson has it.

All accounts due E. J. Slocum for drugs etc., have been left with Wm. Oddy for collection.

Some Rain Coats and Mackintoshes below cost at Robinson's.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fouts, of this city, is becoming very feeble. The old lady is now a sufferer from paralysis.

Tan! Tan! Tan! Ties for gents ladies and children at Robinson's.

George Crow, of the gardening firm of Crow & Allen, of Myrtle Point, was a county seat visitor on Thursday.

New white goods at Robinson's.—Batsiste, nanook persian lawn, long cloth, butcher and indian linen.

Miss Dollie Skeels returned home Saturday from an extended visit at Payett, Idaho, with her sister, Mrs. Geo. H. Baxter.

If you don't want to sell your land don't list them with E. H. Kern, Coquille, Oregon.

John Kronenberg, of this city, went to the lower river by Saturday's Dispatch to visit his son, J. L. Kronenberg, and many friends.

Go to the People's Market, Dean & Hensley Prop'rs, for the best bacon, lard, hams, and meat of every description. They treat you square.

D. S. Rouse, the Riverton coal man, who returned from San Francisco on the Fifeild, had business which called him to Coquille on Saturday.

I have more inquiry for all kinds of lands than I can supply. Send me your lands for sale. E. H. Kern, Coquille, Oregon.

M. L. Buckingham, of Corvallis, was in this city a day or so last week. He visited his relatives-in-law, H. I. Reese, of Johnson's mill while here.

Knowlton has on hand a large supply of field corn, also No. 1 vetches.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Deyoe, of Myrtle Point, who have spent several months last past in Southern California, arrived here by Monday morning's Coquille from Bandon in time to take the train homeward. They had arrived from San Francisco by the steamer Fifeild, to which point they had driven from the southern part of the state, greatly enjoying the outing. They are feeling fine over their trip.

For Sale—Two mares and one gelden, also two-horse farm wagon, double buggy, good set of double harness and good set of single harness. Inquire of Frank Burkholder, Coquille.

Elder Chas. E. Crumley, of the Latter Day Saints church, formerly in charge of the work at Myrtle Point and Bandon, but now making his headquarters in San Francisco, dropped in on his friends in this county last week and is thoroughly enjoying a visit. It is several years since he left here and he notes many changes in our valley towns, and much improvement in the farming district, at which he is highly pleased. His many friends were greatly pleased to see him looking so well.

Father Donnelly, of Marshfield, came over Monday.

Peter Loggie, of North Bend, was a business visitor to Coquille on Monday.

Some of Geo. A. Robinson spring clothing for men has arrived.

J. C. Savage, of the Sentinel, went to Marshfield for a brief visit with his mother.

New collars for ladies at Robinson's.

Will Albee was down from Arago yesterday. He is recovering from a spell of grip.

Mrs. J. L. Kronenberg was up from her home at Parkersburg yesterday.

Lost.—A Gold watch and fob. Finder please return to this office and receive reward.

County Clerk James Watson went to Marshfield Monday afternoon for a short visit.

If you want a trunk or suit case you will find it at Robinson's.

Miss Lorena Dobbins, of California, will visit the family of J. F. Lee, at Riverton, this week.

Just received a new line of mens neckties, Robinson's store.

L. L. Paulson, the Riverton coal man who recently returned from a visit to Portland, was in town yesterday.

Fred Nelson, of the Marshfield Iron Works, made this city and Myrtle Point a business visit Monday and Tuesday.

Ex-Marshall Reuben Gardner, of Bandon, passed through town yesterday enroute to Seattle where he expects to locate.

Robt. Richmond, who has been visiting his brother Dr. James Richmond, for several weeks leaves today for his home in Pigeon, Mich.

The ball game played here Sunday between the Norway and Coquille boys resulted in a score of 9 to 13 in favor of the Norway boys.

Roy Chapman of this city went over to Marshfield last week and accepted a position as assistant mixologist in the Hotel Chandler sampling rooms.

Kenneth Lawrence left for Bandon Friday to take the steamer Elizabeth for San Francisco. He hopes to secure employment in that city or Oakland.

O. R. Ball, of Portland, manager of the American Type Founders Co., at that city, accompanied by his estimable wife, are here looking up business among ye printers. They made our office a pleasant call Monday afternoon.

W. E. Matthews, the dairyman of Norway, goes to North Bend in a few days to meet his wife, who arrives from Humboldt county, Cal., on the steamer Eureka. Mr. Matthews is a brother-in-law of William Neathery, the expressman.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lundy, of Myrtle Point, were passengers from the Bay by yesterday's train, being on their way home from a trip as far east as Missouri. They had a very pleasant trip, but Mr. Lundy says he did not see any place on his journey that looks as good to him as Coos.

Mrs. Black, of Sumner, returned home Monday after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Byers, of this city.

Two pair of good varmint dogs for sale reasonably. Call on or address Fred Coleman, Coquille.

F. W. Smith, the salmon hatchery man of Coos river, was a passenger to this city by Monday's train.

Dave Morgan, of Empire, spent two or three days here last week, visiting friends, as well as his sister, Mrs. Peterson, of Arago.

Alfred Johnson, the sawmill man, returned from San Francisco yesterday, having been down visiting his daughter, Mrs. Dave Albert, and also Mrs. Johnson, who is making an extended visit in California, whom he reports as being improved in health.

Oil clothing, paraffine clothing, rubber boots and rubbers at Robinson's.

H. Brenwald was a passenger from the Bay by Saturday's train. He has just returned from a trip to Mexico, and reports that he is highly pleased with the country. The section where he visited gets 120 inches of rain, and every day in the year is seeding and harvest time.

J. A. Tawse, who returned from San Francisco last week, informs us that he has taken a position with a wholesale fuel company in that city, and with his wife, will move below very shortly. Mr. Tawse has been connected with the Eureka Coal Co. of Riverton as superintendent.

Orvil Dodge, who has been at Washington City the past three months on mining business and as a delegate from this valley to the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, arrived home via the bay last Friday. He went at once to Myrtle Point to see his children and other relatives.

I. R. Nosler and wife reached Coquille last Saturday on their return from San Diego, California where they passed the fall and winter months most pleasantly. Both Mr. and Mrs. Nosler look well, and is says he is satisfied to remain in Coquille during the spring and summer at least.

A surprise dinner party was given Grandma Bunch at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Watkins, on March 16th in honor of her eighty-third birthday. A number of friends and relatives gathered and a social time was enjoyed by all. Just one week later a pleasant surprise of the same kind was given Miss Inez Bunch, it's being here 21st birthday anniversary. Many valuable and useful presents were received by both parties.

A reunion of birthdays took place at the Schroeder residence at Arago last week, and a general good time was had. Mrs. J. H. Schroeder celebrated her 64th, her son Henry his 21st, her granddaughter, Miss Maggie Hanley her 19th, and grandson Earl Schroeder, his 15th. While their birthdays are not all the same, they all come within three days and they joined forces in the celebration. Mrs. W. H. Schroeder and children, of this city spent the week there, returning Saturday.

The Scuffer Shoes for Boys and Girls

The most sensible shoe ever made for boys and girls. They wear longer and look better than any other shoe

They Fit The Feet

We have them in the Black, Patent Leather and Tan. Come in and look them over.

O. Wilson & Co.
Coquille

CLOSING OUT

I am going to dispose of all the following goods at a great sacrifice.

Men's Suits, Wemon and Misses Coats, Skirts, Waists, Mackintoshes and Raincoats.

J. R. MILLER

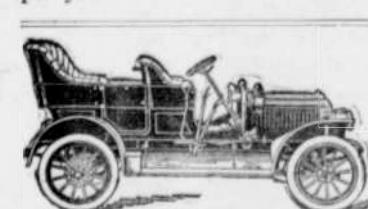

TIMBER LANDS!
Have You Any For Sale?

Send description, prices and kinds of timber to E. H. KERN, Coquille, Oregon. Also any other lands. I have customers if prices are right.

GYMNASIUM

Lyons Building, Front Street, Coquille, Oregon
J. S. LYONS, Proprietor

RATES:—$2 per month; $5 per quarter; $9 per 6 months; $12 per year.

Handles Maxwell Autos, all kinds of Sporting Goods.
Bicycle and Auto Garage.

Anderson's PRACTICAL BUSINESS SCHOOL

Individual instruction in Book-keeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, Penmanship, Rapid Calculation and Commercial Usage. Prepares students to competently enter counting rooms, not only with a theoretical knowledge of these branches, but with practical views of business, gained from an expert accountant, a successful teacher and business man.

FRANK B. ANDERSON
Coquille, Oregon

See him and he will demonstrate his fitness as a teacher, and show to you his former connections in the World of Business as an auditor and accountant.

UNITED WIRELESS TELEGRAPH COMPANY.

7 per cent, preferred, participating, full paid and non-assessable stock offers the best investment known to the American public today. For full particulars address

O. L. HOPSON, Fiscal Agent
Coos and Curry Counties, Box 323, Marshfield, Ore.

When You Want Good Coal Buy PEART'S COAL

Leave Orders at the Scales