State of Oregon vs County of Coos

I, James Watson, County Clerk for Coos County, and State of Oregon, ex-officio Clerk of the County Court for said County and State, custodian of the records, archives and files of said County, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct statement of the amounts of bills of Expense, in whose favor allowed, continued and not allowed, on the various funds of the County, as audited by the County Court of said County and State, at the adjourned March 1909 Term of said County, as the same appears in the Journals of said County now in my office and custody.

Witness my hand and the seal of the County Court affixed this 12th day of April A. D. 1909.

JAMES WATSON, County Clerk.

FOR SALE.—A 1000-pound DeLaval Separator and 3-horsepower boiler, 60 gallon tank, pipe fittings, buckets, etc. J. T. Jenkins, Coquille.

Joseph Nay, a well-known pioneer of Coos and Curry counties, and who has been on the Pacific coast for about 50 years, passed through our city Monday en route to Boston, Massachusetts, where he will visit relatives and friends whom he has not seen for five decades. While Mr. Nay is nearing the 80th year of his life, he is in vigorous health and no doubt but his friends will be surprised to see him so well and active at his age. He is in full possession of all his faculties and is more active than the average man at two-thirds his age.

FOUND.—A purse near steamer landing in Coquille. The owner may have the same by calling at this office, proving property and paying for this notice.

The Margaret Iles Co. began a series of plays at the Masonic opera house Monday night which is proving a great source of entertainment to theater goers. On Monday night they presented "The Westerner", and last evening they gave "The Lightningrod Agent", to good houses, and tonight will be "The Texas Ranger", tomorrow, Thursday night "Fauchon, The Cricket", Friday night, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and on Saturday night, "45 Minutes From Broadway." This exceedingly interesting program should bring out a good house each night. The Company has arranged for a stunt in high class vaudeville between acts which keeps interest up, there being something doing every minute. This company is so well known to our people that an introduction or recommendation is unnecessary from us. You may come out with the full assurance that you will be highly entertained.

We often wonder how many persons can be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung trouble. Do not be fooled into accepting "own make" or other substitutes. The genuine contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package. Fuhrman's Pharmacy.

They All Want It and They Will Have It.

The following two letters, two months apart, explain better than anything we can offer that the public know a good thing when they see it, and the housewife knows when she is using Sound Ring Flour that she is using the best and will always ask for it.

Bandon, Or., Dec. 27, '09. Mr. F. S. Dow,

Dear Sir: I shipped back to your Coquille agency the Sound Ring Flour as requested; I wish you would send me a credit memorandum for the same I find I cannot sell that kind any more owing to the trade having lost faith in it.

Yours truly,

A. J. HARTMAN.

Two Months After.

Bandon, Or., March 30, '09. Mr. F. S. Dow,

Dear Sir: I wish you would ship me the amount of Sound Ring Flour that I sent back to you "as soon as possible." The trade is inquiring for it; also send prices of grain and feed.

Yours truly,

A. J. HARTMAN.

Every sack of flour sold by the Sperry Flour Company is guaranteed. Mr. Hartman allowed a competitor to convince him that his flour was better than Sound Ring, and as soon as he lost faith in it, his trade naturally did the same. We took the flour back without a murmur, gave Mr. Hartman the credit memorandum asked for, and now received his letter of March 30th, which proves even better than the test that was made on this particular lot of flour in San Francisco, that Sound Ring Flour is all right; in fact, we think it is just a little better than the best. Ask your grocer for it and see if it were not right.

Death of Mrs. Wm. Moore.

Mrs. Wm. Moore, a well-known pioneer of this county, died at her home at Coaledo on Saturday, April 11, 1909.

Mrs. Wm. Moore was formerly Miss Helen A. Green, and was 42 years, 5 months and four days of age at the time of her death. Her death comes as a great shock to her friends as her illness was of short duration, she having suffered a severe attack of pleura-pneumonia only a few days since which proved more than her strength could overcome.

She leaves a husband and a large circle of friends to mourn her untimely end.

Father Curle, of North Bend, was summoned and accompanied the funeral cortege from Coaledo to this city, but owing to his inability to go further, the funeral services were conducted on board the steamer Wolverine at this place, and the reverend father returned to prepare for his regular trip down the coast. The burial took place at Bandon Monday afternoon.

M. E. Church South.

Services on Easter Sunday were splendidly attended. At the morning hour the Pastor preached an Easter Sermon. At night was a musical program and an address by Mr. Tilton of Bandon. Many spoke in high terms of the excellent music. The decorations were beautiful, and those who had charge of the decorations showed excellent taste in arranging them.

Next Sunday the Pastor, C. H. Cleaves will preach at both services. At night the subject will be—"The Friend of Pleasure." Everyone invited.
