Death of Creede Rose.

The Myrtle Point Enterprise of June 4, has the following:

Creede Rose, aged 30 years, 3 months and 22 days, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Rose of this city, Friday, May 28th, and the funeral was held from the Brethren church Saturday afternoon, interment in the Myrtle Point cemetery. The funeral service was in charge of Rev. Thomas Barklow, and the building was filled with friends and acquaintances of the deceased, many beautiful flowers being presented to show respect for the deceased and sympathy for the living.

Creede Rose was born in Coos county, near Gravel Ford, on February 6, 1879, and has lived in this locality almost continuously since his birth. His sickness covered a period of about six months. While working on his homestead he cut his foot with an ax. The wound bled badly while he was being brought to town for treatment and a weakened condition resulted which left him an easy prey to the disease which resulted in his death, which occurred on the marriage anniversary of his parents. He was popular with a large number of friends, all of whom will regret his death.

Pioneer Ship Builder Gone.

Stian Danielson, a well-known ship builder of the lower river, passed away at his home near Parkersburg early Monday morning at the age of 66 years, 2 months and 12 days, from a stomach trouble, pronounced by some to be cancer, which has been troubling him for a number of months.

Be'ow we give a sketch of the deceased and family which is correct with the exception that Miss Tora Danielson is now Mrs. Martin Randleman.

The funeral will take place today at the Masonic cemetery, conducted by the Rev. G. H. Fesee after the arrival of the steamer Dispatch, which boat will not return to the lower river until after the burial. The sketch, which is taken from the "Portrait and Biographical Record of Western Oregon," reads as follows:

Mr. Danielson is at the present writing a successful dairy farmer, residing six miles east of Bandon, Coos county, Ore. During his life, he has followed various occupations, such as carpenter work, boat building, saw-mill work, etc., and has shown himself to be a man of marked ability and enterprise. He was born near Arendal, Norway, March 26, 1843, and at the age of 16 had the misfortune to lose by death his father, a miner by occupation.

Stian Danielson received his early training in the district school, and when a young man took up the trade of a carpenter. He followed this trade in his native place until 1865, the date of his departure for America. He arrived safely in the United States, and for the next three years he followed carpenter work on board ships, going from New York to San Francisco. He was a good workman and was master carpenter of eight or ten ships, while thus engaged. Mr. Danielson settled in Coos county in 1868, his first work being as carpenter in a sawmill on the Coquille river, near Bandon. Shortly afterward he purchased one hundred and sixty acres of land six miles east of Bandon, and he made his home there and in Bandon until 1893, when he bought the place where he now lives. This place consists of one hundred and thirty-nine acres and adjoins his first farm. He has improved both of his places, and on his home place has a fine modern residence and good outbuildings. He carries on general farming and dairying and owns in all about two hundred and ninety-nine acres, about one-half of which is bottom land.

Mr. Danielson was joined in matrimony, January 25, 1892, with Elizabeth Thrush, a native of California. They have had nine children, one of whom, Frank D., is dead. The others are as follows: Louisa Smith, of Coos river vicinity; Rosetta, living at home; John E., of Bandon; Lillie Davidson, also of Bandon; Tora, Rena, Richard and Christopher, who are still at home. Mr. Danielson is a man who takes little interest in politics, and who is an Independent. He has many excellent traits of character and is a broadminded and public spirited citizen.

Eighth Grade Graduation.

The eighth grade class of our public schools, under the tutorage of Miss Helene Hughes, gave their graduating exercises at the M. E. Church South, on Thursday evening. The class consisted of 14 members, one leaving dropped out during the term, and one failed to pass in two branches who had joined the class when the term was well advanced, and 13 graduated. Highest average 96 2/3; lowest 85; average of averages 91 1/2-27. The number of bouquets given the class and teacher and Prof. Anderson, 316. Class colors, lavender and maize; class flower, cream rose; class motto, "We have Crossed the Bay, the Ocean Lies Before Us; Watchward, 'Don't Give Up the Ship." The class were as follows: Margaret Curry, Ray Miller, Nina Kelley, Clay Knowlton, Pauline Custer, George Strang, Reuben Mast, Edward Levine, May Lund, Roy Dunham, Edna McDonald, William Benham, Walter Snyder, William Barrow.

A very pleasing and interesting program was rendered to a throng filling the church to overflowing in a manner which reflected great credit upon the pupils and teachers.

In Memoriam.

Harvey William Gilman, aged 24 years, 5 months and 4 days, died at the home of his mother near Coquille, May 27, 1909, and was laid to rest May 28 in Masonic cemetery. The funeral was conducted at the Masonic Hall by Rev. G. H. Fesee and was attended by a large number of sorrowing friends.

The deceased suffered a severe attack from hemorrhage of the lungs some months ago, from which time he continued to decline in health. A trip to the eastern part of the state gave no relief and death relieved his suffering.

Fatally Burned.

Inez McDaniel, aged 16 years, died at Marshfield Monday at 9 a. m. from burns she received at an early hour in the office of the Home Telephone Co., in which she was night operator, by her clothing catching on fire from an oil stove. She was burned from head to foot and had evidently made quite a fight against the flames from indications in the office, but it was to no purpose, and when her cries for help attracted attention, it was too late to rescue her from a horrible fate. She will be remembered by many young friends and schoolmates in this city.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by my wife, I lunch Cook. Dated this 2nd day of June, 1909. JOHN COOK.

The Base Ball Schedule.

The Coos County Baseball League so far as a playing schedule is concerned has been revived but no rules or regulations for its government have made. Myrtle Point, Coquille, North Bend and Marshfield compose the league this season Bandon having dropped out.

While it is the understanding that home talent will be played, no agreement has been reached. Some of the clubs are planning on limiting their importations to a battery but later in the season, if sufficient enthusiasm is worked up, more players will probably be brought in from time to time by the various clubs.

At a meeting Wm. Howell, Jr., and Charles Baxter of Coquille, T. Bender of Myrtle Point, Fred Johnson of North Bend and Arthur McKeown of Marshfield, here last week, the matter was gone over in detail. The decision was that it was useless to draft any rules or regulations for the government of the league as experience in the past has demonstrated that the clubs seldom if ever abide by them. Consequently, no agreement was entered into except as to the playing schedule.

The schedule has just been completed, the season opening June 13, and closing August 29. Marshfield and North Bend will play a practice game on the Marshfield grounds Sunday afternoon. The new diamond at the fair grounds is said to be greatly superior to the old diamond at the depot grounds.

The playing schedule is as follows:

June 13—Coquille vs. Myrtle Point at Myrtle Point; Marshfield vs. North Bend at North Bend.

June 20—Marshfield vs. Coquille at Marshfield; Myrtle Point vs. North Bend at North Bend.

June 27—North Bend vs. Coquille at Coquille; Myrtle Point vs. Marshfield at Myrtle Point.

July 4—Myrtle Point vs. Coquille at Coquille; North Bend vs. Marshfield at Marshfield.

July 11—Myrtle Point vs. Marshfield at Marshfield; Coquille vs. North Bend at North Bend.

July 18—Marshfield vs. Coquille at Coquille; North Bend vs. Myrtle Point at Myrtle Point.

July 25—Coquille vs. Myrtle Point at Myrtle Point; Marshfield vs. North Bend at North Bend.

August 1—Marshfield vs. Coquille at Marshfield; Myrtle Point vs. North Bend at North Bend.

August 8—North Bend vs. Coquille at Coquille; Myrtle Point vs. Marshfield at Myrtle Point.

August 15—Myrtle Point vs. Coquille at Coquille; North Bend vs. Marshfield at Marshfield.

August 22—Myrtle Point vs. Marshfield at Marshfield; Coquille vs. North Bend at North Bend.
