Another Railroad Disaster.

Cottage Grove, Or., June 7.—The home-bound passenger train of the Oregon & Southern Railroad fell through the Carrin bridge, five miles east of here Saturday at 4:30 P. M. There were about 20 passengers on the train, all of whom were injured except Fireman John Cooter. The entire bridge gave way at once, and went to the bottom of Row River, some 25 feet below. The cause of the wreck is said to have been decayed stringers. Some of the passengers and Engineer Ostrander were seriously hurt.

The injured are: Price Rogers, jaw and leg broken; F. H. Hall, left leg broken below knee; Will Ostrander, engineer, dislocation of breast bone; Judge W. B. Foster, left thigh broken; L. Haney, crest of hip bone fractured; bruised; Mrs. William Southworth, two ribs broken and her three children slightly injured; J. B. Protzman, auditor, bruised and left leg broken; F. H. Hall, left leg and face cut. There were a number of others injured, but not seriously. Earl Garrouthe, 13 years of age, saved Claude Kime from drowning. The lad had gone down once and was disappearing again when caught by Earl. There were a number of women on the train when it went down.

T. K. Campbell of the Oregon Railway Commission is here investigating the cause of the wreck. Traffic on the road will be suspended until the bridge can be repaired, which will be about a week.

Pioneers Gone.

James Durrand Sr., one of the old and prominent residents of this section, died Tuesday from injuries received a fortnight ago in the North Bend furniture factory. His passing is mourned by many warm friends. Deceased came to the bay from Gardiner some thirty years ago. Running a planer in a sawmill was his forte, and he always found employment in this line. Deceased was 69 years of age. A wife and three children are left to mourn his loss.

Mrs. John Golden a pioneer woman of Coos Bay, died at Mercy hospital at 10 o'clock last evening after a brief illness of pneumonia. She had been a resident of Marshfield since 1878 and was sixty years old. Mrs. Golden had been ailing for a couple of months. Tuesday she was up and around as usual but yesterday became suddenly ill and was taken to the hospital about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Six hours later she was dead.

Mrs. Golden was born in County Mayo, Ireland, and came to America at an early age, settling at Seranton, Pa. In 1878, she came to Coos Bay and in 1885 was married to John Golden. No children were born to the couple.

The funeral will be held from St. Monica's Catholic church at 9:30 Saturday morning.—Coos Bay Times.

Coquille 7 Myrtle Point 1.

In the first league game of the season at Myrtle Point last Sunday, Coquille defeated Myrtle Point by a score of 7 to 1.

The game was a good one from start to finish and was witnessed by a good sized crowd.

"Bub" Gardiner, who was Coquille's twirler a year ago, was in the box in Sunday's game and pitched a good game, having perfect control of the ball at all times during the nine innings played. Poland acted in the same capacity for Myrtle Point, and proved himself to be a coming man.

Lorenz acted as the man behind the stick for Coquille, while Folsom held down the same position for Myrtle Point. The fielding and base playing were fairly good.

There was only one clean two bagger made during the game and that was by Gardiner for Coquille.

Coquille with its imported men has a strong team, but the showing of Myrtle Point's home talent was more than pleasing to the local fans. Both sides played fast, snappy ball, and the large crowd in attendance departed, all seemingly satisfied that they had witnessed this, the first game of the season.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Burns and their son and daughter Ray and Cora, returned Saturday from their extended trip to Michigan and Canada and many other points of interest.

Mrs. E. W. Lewis and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Chance, of Marshfield, who had been on a visit of several days with Rev. and Mrs. C. D. Price, at Bancroft, returned home Saturday.

Late advice through her daughter, Mrs. H. N. Lorenz, from Mrs. R. Pomeroy, of Lampa, who is now in Texas for her health and medical treatment, is to the effect that she is not much if improved if at all.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Baxter arrived here Saturday from Payette, Idaho, and are enjoying a visit with Mrs. Baxter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Skeels, and their many friends of this place and community.

Engineer J. A. McCord, of Bandon, made a trip or so on the Coquille last week for Wm. Panter. He expects to take the throttle on the Echo in a short time, as H. W. Dunham, now in charge, will start for Alaska soon.

Mrs. S. P. Johnson who had been visiting at Portland with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gardner, returned last week accompanied by them. Mr. Gardner plays ball with the Coquille team this season.

Bertie Randleman returned last week from a trip to Mapleton, this state, where he had been to see his father, J. L. Randleman, who has been somewhat indisposed of late, but was, we are pleased to state, improved at last accounts.

J. H. Prewett, an old settler of the Parkersburg section, started Monday with Mrs. Prewett who has been in failing health for some time. They went with wagon and team and will take in the Willamette valley and other parts of the state for her benefit.

Miss Bertha Tyrrell and two Misses Hansen, of Ferndale, California, arrived by the steamer Eureka and are enjoying a visit with the former's aunt, Mrs. L. R. Woodward, of Arago, to which place they were accompanied by Mrs. D. D. Pierce, of this city.

Frank Deveroy, of Bridal Veil, Oregon, is here taking a general good look at the country, and may conclude to remain with us. He is a carpenter and millwright, and was employed with one company for over 20 years in that capacity, and thought he wanted a change.

There will be a celebration at the old Davenport place 2 1/2 miles below Coquille, July 4th. This will be one of the best places in the county to spend your holiday, having a large cedar grove and picnic grounds. There will be a ball game, races, sports, barbecue and picnic dinner.

MARRIED: Claude Stutsman, of Coquille, and Alice Rehfeld, of Marshfield, were quietly married last Saturday morning at the South Methodist Parsonage in this city. Rev. C. H. Cleaves officiating. Only two were present at the ceremony, Miss Clara Rehfeld, sister of the bride and Mr. Stutsman is engaged in the real estate business here, and the couple will make Coquille their home.

What is believed to be the largest salmon ever caught in the Rogue river was landed at Grants Pass recently by Joseph Wharton, a well known former resident of Roseburg. The fish weighed 85 pounds. Mr. Wharton used a six-ounce fly rod and a No. 1 brass spinner. In its mad efforts to snap the line the salmon churned the waters of the river from the White Rock riffles to the foot of Sixth street.

A spark from the smoke stack of the O. K. Creamery took effect on the roof a week ago Monday, and only for the prompt and effective work of the boys with the appliances kept at hand, the creamery would have doubtless gone up in smoke.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Fish and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Keil arrived here Wednesday from Minnesota and proceeded to Bandon where they will visit Mr. Fish's brother, H. M. Fish, of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hite and son George and wife and Henry Adams returned Tuesday from a year sojourn in California and the southwest. They were glad to get back and say there is no place like Bandon. They say that business is very dull in California.—Recorder.

C. J. Millis, the railroad manager, was over from the Bay last Saturday accompanied by his son Harold, who is a student of Berkeley, California, and came up here to spend his vacation. Young Mr. Millis is taking a course in mining engineering, is leader of the band and bears the rank of captain in the military organization of the school.

W. A. Barnett came up from Prosper Wednesday and took his boy home with him, the lad having been here several days for medical treatment, having suffered a severe attack of bloodpoisoning in one hand and arm. It begins to look as though an operation may be necessary, as the bone of the forearm appears to have become diseased.

Mrs. N. Plyler, of this city, was a passenger on the Fifield for San Francisco last Thursday, accompanied by Mrs. Mary E. Plyler, her husband's mother, who goes to Oakland, California, where she will reside at least for the time being with a son and daughter who live there. The former will return by way of Oakland, Oregon, where she will visit with friends.
