To the Public.

The question of our school remaining in Coquille indefinitely must be settled within the next few weeks. We appreciate very much the encouragement and liberal support we have received in this city, but as a strict commercial proposition, we are forced to make the following announcement:

We have received two offers to establish our school work at other points, and we will be compelled to make some reply to these offers. Our present classes will have completed their studies within the next two or three months, and unless we see there is sufficient material to justify us in remaining, we will of course remove the school.

We would like nothing better than to remain in this city permanently and carry out our work. We are endeavoring to give the people here a good school, such as their very liberal patronage in the past has justly entitled them to have. If the enrollment for the coming term should warrant, we will spend the next year, at least, in Coquille.

Pupils will be enrolled up to July 15, for the regular full courses, but unless the indications are particularly good for a large fall term, we will be forced to decline any other pupils after that date.

Respectfully,
FRANK B. ANDERSON, Principal,
Anderson's Business School.

A New Enterprise.

Messrs. Dr. J. H. Bowen and James A. Loucks, of Dolgeville, New York, whom we mentioned in our last issue as having arrived here with a view to locating and launching out in some enterprise, are highly pleased with our section and are fully determined upon remaining with us. They have in view the starting of an enterprise which would be a paying investment for themselves and also a great benefit to the community, and it now behooves our people and their commercial club to come forth and do the things necessary to show their appreciation of these good people and do what they can in the way of assisting them in securing a good site for the location of their enterprise. These gentlemen will be associated with first-class mechanics and will have the financial backing to make a thorough success of their undertaking in case they should see fit to make a start in this place. They anticipate the starting of a shingle mill to begin with, but a woodpulp mill will be added just as soon as it is possible to arrange for the necessary buildings, machinery, etc.

This is a good opportunity for the people of this city to make a showing in the way of giving a boost at the right time and for the right purpose.

A Sad Home Coming

Dr. J. C. Bogue, of Sherman, Texas, arrived here the last of the week with the body of his beloved wife who had died on the way from their present place of residence to this city where they anticipated an enjoyable visit at their old home with the parents of the deceased, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hill, of this city. They started several days ago from Sherman where Mrs. Bogue's health had not been very good for some time, and as they neared Junction City, Kansas, she was seized by a severe hemorrhage of the lungs and soon swooned into unconsciousness. At Junction City medical aid was called, but to no avail. Shortly after the train pulled out of that city she passed away, it being on Sunday, the 13th inst.

The deceased will be remembered as Miss Edna Hill, a former teacher of this county, while her husband, Dr. J. C. Bogue lived here some time, practicing his profession, that of dentistry, both being well and favorably known throughout the valley.

Mrs. Bogue was 36 years old at the time of death and leaves a husband and 13-year-old daughter to mourn her sad departure.

The funeral took place at the Myrtle Point cemetery yesterday forenoon, conducted by Rev. Hamm, of that place.

Tupper vs. Tupper.

The above case which has attracted some attention and which was decided in favor of Martha A. Tupper and the heirs of B. F. Tupper, plaintiffs, and against J. P. Tupper and Baxter Bros., by Judge Hamilton here was appealed to the Supreme Court and before the briefs had been filed or any steps had been taken in the Supreme Court, an agreement was reached by which the defendant paid to the plaintiffs, eight thousand dollars, and each party paid their own costs.

The amount originally involved was twelve thousand dollars and upon eight thousand being paid the plaintiffs, a stipulation was entered into by which the decree of the Supreme Court followed by an agreement, and not by any reversal of Judge Hamilton's ruling, except in accordance with the above settlement.

The Sentinel and the Times had gained the impression that the case was tried anew in the Supreme Court and Judge Hamilton's decision reversed. This is not correct.

The suit involved property, which has been sold to Baxter Brothers for twelve thousand dollars and J. P. Tupper paid the plaintiffs eight thousand dollars in settlement of their claim.

A Pretty Wedding.

On Wednesday of last week about fifty invited guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Lorenz, the occasion being the marriage of their son Edward W. to Miss Gertrude Wilson.

The decoration of the rooms was very elaborate and beautiful consisting of roses, ferns and Oregon grape, and from the ceiling was suspended a large bell, made of roses, under which the contracting couple stood while the Rev. G. H. Feese pronounced the words which bound them together for life.

Promptly at 9:30 Mrs. Geraldine Morris began the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March and the bride beautifully gowned in white Mes-selaine and carrying a large bouquet of Bride Roses, entered, leaning on the arm of the groom.

At the close of the ceremony little Gertrude Butler, of Medford, Oregon, pulled a ribbon attached to the bell and precipitated a shower of rose petals on the bride, after which dainty and delicious refreshments were served.

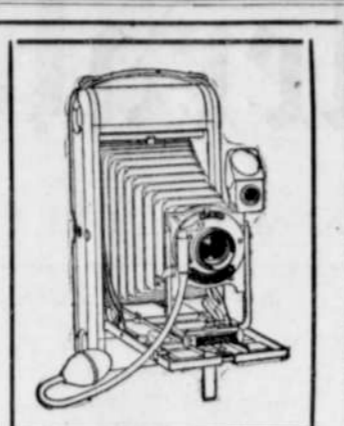

The bride is one of Coquille's most beautiful and popular girls. For the past three years she has been a teacher in our public schools and is alike popular with both students and parents, as well as in society circles.

The groom is one of our rising young business men and is known and esteemed as a man of sterling worth and honest integrity, liked best by those who know him best.

Those present from out of town were, Miss Kittie Wells, of Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lorenz of Bandon, Master Geo. Lorenz and Miss Marjory Lorenz of Bandon, Mrs. Sam Norton of Redding, California, and Dr. and Mrs. H. N. Butler and daughter Gertrude of Medford, Oregon.

Aside from the presents received at the wedding the bride received quite a number from her friends in Medford where a shower was given her at the home of Dr. Butler. The presents were sent her in a box, on the outside of which was written, "A gentle Oregon Mist from home."

A shower was also given at the home of Mr. Fay Jones at which the bride received many costly presents from her Coquille friends.

Coquille Meets Defeat.

By a score of 5 to 3 Marshfield defeated Coquille last Sunday. The game was a good one from start to finish.

Gardiner got fourteen strike outs but made several wild pitches. Among the players some blamed Catcher Flanagan more for the passed balls than Gardiner. A number of these were high and could hardly be reached by Flanagan's mit, and could hardly be counted as errors against him.

Meiler, Marshfield new twirler, showed up well, but pitched better ball in the latter than in the former part of the game.

Coquille made its only runs in the fourth and fifth innings.

In the fourth Kelley flew out to left, Porterfield singled and went third on Flanagan's wallop. Porterfield scored on Gardiner's hot one through pitcher, Flanagan taking third. Collier walked, filling the bases. Howell hit hard to Merchant, Flanagan scoring on Merchant's error. Gardiner tried to reach home, but was thrown out at the plate. Howell was caught napping at second, ending the innings.

In the fifth Johnson singled over second, taking second on Lorenz's single between third and short. McBride bunted, Meiler fumbled the ball, filling the bases, Kelley hit, scoring Johnson, Porterfield hit to third and Lorenz was caught at the plate. Flanagan struck out, Gardiner hit to short and Porterfield was caught at second on force play.

In the fourth for Marshfield McKeown hit and took second on Kelley's miff of Flanagan's throw. Thompson and Meiler walked and the sacks were full. Merchant hit to Gardiner who was a little slow in handling the ball, McKeown scoring. Merchant was thrown out at first. Flanagan missed one, letting Thompson score. McDonald struck out, ending the innings.

In the fifth McCutcheon hit to Johnson and thrown out at first. Trosch walked, took second on Kelley's error and went third on Monohans sacrifice. McKeown hit to right field, scoring Trosch, but was caught trying to take third.

In the eighth McKeown singled, took second and third on Flanagan's error. Nichols came to bat and walloped the air three times, but Flanagan let the fat one go by and McKeown scored. Nichols taking second and went third on Flanagan's error and home on Gardiner's wild pitch. Thompson and Meiler struck out. Merchant hit to Kelley and was thrown out at first.

On last Sunday, the 20th, the Myrtle Point team defeated the North Bend's at North Bend by a score of 7 to 6. The game should have been North Bend's, but in the latter part of the game the fans did not think there was "enough doing" and purposely allowed the Myrtle Pointers to swat the ball, which somewhat rattled the other players, with the result that the home team were the losers.

School Meeting

The annual school meeting for district No. 8 resulted in the election of J. J. Stanley as direction for three years, and George T. Moulton, the present incumbent clerk for one year.

A resolution was passed ordering the board directors to procure options on tracts of land of not less than three acres as near the center of the district as practicable for a site for a new school building.

The board was also instructed to procure quarters for two classes outside of our present building, for the coming term of school.

Millinery at Cost
Mrs. A. G. Aikens, commencing Thursday, June 24th, will close out her entire stock of summer millinery at cost. Everything must go to make room for the fall stock.

Coming Boxing Contest.

There will be three boxing contests pulled off at the Coquille gymnasium on next Saturday evening, June 26th. Each bout will be for three rounds. Hank Benham of Coquille will meet Earl Chism of Aasen's Camp; Earl Nosler of this place will meet Kid Parsons of Marshfield and Al Fish, also one of our home boys, will take on Fred Spires of Myrtle Point.

The above participants have been training hard, and the bouts will be the fastest and cleverest ever pulled off in the Coquille valley.

The contests will commence at 9 o'clock sharp, and the tickets will be, ring side, 75 cents, while the price of general admission will be 50 cents.

There was quite a wreck on the railroad a couple of miles north of town Monday. As the afternoon train from this place to Marshfield was passing Cedar Point a log which had been lying on the hillside above the road slid down abraded the track and No. 3 came out it too suddenly to stop. The locomotive was derailed and the track badly torn up for a short distance, but no one hurt. Two other locomotives were sent for and came out from Marshfield and soon got her back on the track.

Services next Sunday as usual at M. E. Church South. At the evening service the Pastor will preach from the same text he preached his first sermon from, six years ago in Kansas. Subject: "The Saviour's Knocking." Sunday night July 4th, there will be a "Favorite" Song and Praise Service. The ten favorite songs will be sung. Everybody asked to send their ten favorites to the Pastor. This will be a Musical Program—no sermon. Plan to be there.
