Fair Notes.

Seattle, July 7.—"See Hi Gill, the albino lady."

The President of the Seattle city council will soon be the feature of the barker's cries at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition. He has announced that he will assume this important part in the Elk's Hippodrome at the Exposition on July 28.

He announced this without blushing and before a crowd of 600 cheering fellow citizens. He said he would be only too glad to do it.

The crowd also applauded the announcement that Judge J. E. Humphries would be living skeleton in the same side show. Tom Miles, traveling man, six feet four, and Sidney Smith, newspaper man, four feet, are to be the Siamese twins. Capt. P. D. Hughes will play a tom-tom; Joe Schiump will be the leader of the rube band, John Carrigan will be the wild man from Borneo, Bob Boyd, general agent for the Milwaukee, six feet tall, will be the lady chariot racer, and T. J. E. Schones will be Little Egypt.

It is expected that 40,000 Elks from Los Angeles, on their way home from the national convention will attend the Exposition on July 28, and it is for their entertainment that the prominent Elks of the city will sacrifice their dignity for the night.

Parades, picnics, music, fireworks and sporting events will mark the celebration of Farmer's Day at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition September 8.

G. D. Wilson, of Poag, Ill., has been appointed director general of the day and is preparing an elaborate program in which all farmers of the Northwest will be interested. At both the St. Louis and Jamestown exhibitions all arrangements for the day set aside for the farmers were made by Director General Wilson.

The morning parade at the Exposition on Farmer's day will be participated in by agriculturists from Washington, Idaho, Oregon and British Columbia. Then will come the address of welcome by President Chilberg. Shortly after 12 o'clock the farmers will assemble on the grounds near the shores of Lake Washington for a basket picnic.

During the afternoon it is proposed to have an unusual feature known as the Bells of Christendom in which 700 young girls from various parts of the United States will take part. Wire connections will be made with bells in Seattle and about the cities of Puget Sound and at a given signal the young girls will press electric buttons ringing hundreds of bells.

The rainbow banquet in the evening will be an international affair, for invitations are to be sent to foreign countries to have representatives present on Farmer's day.

Farmers from all over the Northwest will come to Seattle in great numbers for the celebration of Farmer's day and September 8 will no doubt be a banner day in the history of the Pacific World's.

Re-Travels Trail.

Portland, July 7.—Captain W. H. Pope, one of the well-known river pilots, who came to Portland from New York in a sailing vessel in 1851, has returned home after retracing the old Government wagon road running from The Dalles to Fort Simcoe. Half a century ago this was one of the best-known roads in the West, having been built by the Government at great expense. But where it crosses the Cascade Mountain Range now Captain Pope says it is about obliterated. Fallen trees block the way, and it is difficult to get around them. The road has not been used to any extent for years.

Accompanying Captain Pope on this expedition were Albert Bancroft, or San Francisco, Mrs. Brooks Trevett and Miss Trevett, her daughter, both of Portland. Instead of starting out at The Dalles, the party went by boat and rail to Goldendale, Wash., and from there by team. About six miles out the historic road was found. Among the first places looked over by the travelers was the site of the old blockhouse. It had been torn down and the logs of which it had been built taken to Goldendale. The building will be re-erected there and preserved.

Arriving at Fort Simcoe over the road, which is 65 miles in length, the members of the party were agreeably surprised to learn that the Indian school there had just closed for the summer. The Indian parents of the children began to arrive to take the youths to their homes on the Yakima Reservation. Many of them had fine top buggies and thoroughbred horses which were described as being as fat as seals.

From 1859 to 1863 Captain Pope was a clerk in the commissary department at Fort Simcoe, and this is the first time he had been there since. When a young man Bancroft was at the fort for a while, and both he and Pope had long been planning this trip. It was just 50 years since they had left, and it was to celebrate the anniversary of their departure that they decided to take the trip. Captain Pope returned home by way of Seattle, where he visited the fair.

Passes Away.

Mrs. Eliza Woodruff, widow of the late Delos Woodruff, died at her home on Euchre creek on Monday, July 5, 1909. A few weeks ago she suffered a stroke of paralysis, which complicated with serious heart trouble, left her in a helpless condition and her death had been expected for some time.

Mrs. Woodruff—nee Willard—was born in Aurora, New York, was married in San Francisco, and came to Curry county in 1874. She is survived by her aged mother, who is now near the century mark and whose enfeebled condition requires constant care, and no daughter was ever more dutiful in her devotion to her mother.

The deceased was buried by the side of her husband in the Euchre creek cemetery at one o'clock P. M. today in the presence of a large concourse of friends and neighbors. —Port Orford Tribune.

Within a few days, all that remains of the old Cape Arago Lighthouse will be blown into the sea. This announcement was brought in today by men who have been working on the new station.

The old lighthouse has been or will be shortly vacated and the government proposes to have it destroyed. It has been undermined by waves and is likely to collapse soon. It is feared that if it is allowed to stand, visitors may get around it and be injured when it falls from its own accord or rather from the action of the elements.

Sometime ago, it was stated that it would not be dynamited owing to the danger to the new station which is near the old site. However, it has been decided to use light shots of dynamite and gradually blow it to pieces.

The machinery and other removable goods in it will be first taken out and placed on board the Henthler or some other craft and used in some other station.—Coos Bay News.

Miss Oshier is a very accomplished young lady and during her short residence in this city gained a great many friends. Mr. Felter has for years made his home in this city until about six months ago when he returned to his former home at Bandon. He is a very energetic young man and while in this city was employed by the Simpson Lumber Co. The many North Bend friends of the young couple join with the Harbor in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

They will make their home at Bandon.—Coos Bay Harbor.

Aberdeen, Wash., July 8.—Two thousand men went to work this week, when, after a month's shutdown, five Aberdeen lumber mills resumed operations. Five more will also resume.

If people with symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble could realize their danger they would without loss of time commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. This great remedy stops the pain and the irregularities, strengthens and builds up these organs and there is no danger of Bright's disease or other serious disorder. Do not disregard the early symptoms. For sale by C. J. Fuhrman.
