FAIR NOTES

Interesting Facts About Seattle Exposition.

Seattle, July 14.—Lumbermen from all parts of the United States, representing interests that control the entire timber wealth of the country, will congregate at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition from Monday, July 19, to Wednesday, July 27.

The Logging Congress, which will be held in Seattle at that time, is one of the greatest annual industrial congresses now held in the United States. Hitherto these sessions have been held in the East. The western lumbermen consider this as the most important event ever known to the lumbering interests of the Pacific Coast.

The meetings will be held in the Hoo Hoo building which was built on the Exposition grounds especially for this congress. The structure was put up by a number of Seattle lumbermen at the cost of $10,000. The amount spent for entertainment, it is estimated, will bring the cost to over $25,000.

The Hoo Hoo building itself has been designed as an exhibit of what the West can do in lumber. All of the finishings are of the finest lumber which could be picked on the Coast. One room is furnished in Redwood from Humboldt county in California. Another room is in picked Douglas Fir.

The purpose of the lumbermen of the state is to familiarize the visitors with western timber. It is expected that it will do more to advertise this great resource of the West among the investors of the East than any other event.

Baby Christening Day on July 20 is one of the unique features of the week. All babies born in Seattle during the month of June will be christened at the Exposition with appropriate exercises.

Portland Day on Tuesday, July 20, will be well attended. The Portland Commercial Club accompanied by the Oregon Journal Carrier's band of 25 pieces will come in a body. There are already at the Exposition a large number of Portland people and this crowd will join with the official delegation in making the day a notable one.

The Japanese of Seattle are planning an Oriental celebration for Wednesday, when the Japanese building will be officially dedicated.

Butte and Anaconda will be the center of attraction on Thursday, July 22. A special train of eight sleepers, two diners, an observation car and a baggage car, will leave Butte on the 20th bearing a large delegation from Montana.

Thursday will also be Redmen's Day. The parade will form at the stadium in the morning. This day follows the adjournment of the Great Council at Tacoma.

The State Medical Associations of Washington, Oregon, Idaho and British Columbia will convene at the Exposition from July 21 to July 24.

Another Prediction.

According to a Portland midget the end of the world is about due. But we are not going to take any stock in the prediction. Almost every eight or ten months now for the past 20 years we have packed up our suit case and paid our board bill, put on a clean collar and otherwise prepared to leave in a hurry, only to be compelled to unpack and begin all over again to acquire another board bill. They don't fool us that way any more.

Help for Those Who Have Stomach Trouble.

After doctoring for about twelve years for a bad stomach trouble, and spending nearly five hundred dollars for medicine and doctors' fees, I purchased my wife one box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which did her so much good that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all of the medicine I bought before.—SAMUEL ROYER, Folsom, Iowa. This medicine is for sale by R. S. Knowlton. Samples free.
