Death of Washington L. Hayter.

The funeral of Washington L. Hayter was held at the Upper Fish-tap cemetery last Friday at 2 p. m., he having passed away on Wednesday, July 21, 1909, at the age of 84 years, 4 months and 9 days. He had been in feeble health for some time, but was not supposed to be in a critical condition until a week or so before his death when he suffered a stroke of paralysis which terminated in death. The deceased was born in Howard county, Missouri, in 1825. He came to Oregon in 1854, first locating in Polk county. He came to Coos in 1865, first settling on Fish-trap, afterward living at different places in the county, his wife having passed on before some 24 years ago in Coquille. To this couple were born fifteen children, fourteen of whom are living as follows: Theodora; R. M.; Melvin; Jas. T.; W. R.; Mrs. R. S. Knowlton; Mrs. Ella Long; Mrs. John Lindebeck; Robert, E. L.; Mrs. D. G. Baal; Mrs. Alva Lee; Wilbur, Chas. and Andrew.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. Chas. Barklow, and was attended by a large number of his old neighbors and many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayter crossed the plains by team and underwent all the trials and dangers of a trip of that kind, and have done their part toward the settling of the Coquille valley.

Mr. Hayter was for many years a consistent Christian and an ardent member of the Baptist church.

Tom Kelly for Japan.

Tom Kelly, manager of our local baseball team, has signed up with the University of Oregon ball team and will coach them next summer. Tom also expects to accompany the team to Japan where it is planning a trip. He has just received a fine sweater jacket in appreciation of his work at the university last summer, and is very proud of it.

Tom leaves this city about the first of September for Santa Clara, which team he will coach this fall. Tom's many friends are congratulating him on his success in the baseball line and are wishing him the brightest of future.

They find the people of Douglas county highly in favor of a good winter road to Coos county, and that they favor the Middle Fork route. They, as well as ourselves, fully realize that nothing short of a railroad or electric line would help to bring Douglas and Coos together as would a road upon which vehicles and automobiles could pass over at all times of year.

A Real Scrap.

Not on the order of fistic bouts like which have been popular at the "Gim" of late, but the real thing with one of the largest bears which have been put out of business in this section "since the woods were burnt." This one took place last week on what is known as Mt. Boliver, on the North Fork. The party's taking part were Harvey Dunham, of this city, and Glenn and Jess Barker and Fred Johnson, of Fairview. These young men were out with some fine varmint dogs for the ostensible purpose of dispatching some panther or cougar which make themselves obnoxious in that part of the country, but at this time came very suddenly onto a very large female bear with two large cubs. Four excellent dogs made a dash for the game, but wise old bruen managed to get the cubs up a tree, while she made fight. There were about eight shots from two 30-30's and two 25-20's fired into her body, and while of a fatal nature, she remained able to put up a fearful fight. She managed to get one dog by the foot and tore about half the member of the creature away. Then another was knocked by a blow that sent him over a cliff and it took several minutes for him to return, and while the other two dogs and all of the boys closed in till shooting became more dangerous to others than the game, the boys began to use their guns as clubs, breaking them up pretty badly, and Harvey Dunham got a scratch on the hand and a glancing blow in the side which took away a chunk of his shirt and pants, but luckily did not get a rib. Just before she gave up, one of Glenn's fine dogs made an attack and got slightly mixed up with a limb of a tree or bush and was thrown to the ground, and the bear at one stroke literally disemboweled the creature, killing it instantly.

This was equal to some of the experiences of Teddy and party.
