The Cody Mill Burned.

Devastating flames Thursday night destroyed the saw mill...

The fire originated in the engine room, and it is supposed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion...

The Cody Lumber Company is a very strong concern financially, and the principal owners are Col. C. E. Coach...

This forecast is substantiated by the fact that Moore and Coach control extensive timber tracts in the Coquille country...

L. J. Cody was manager of the destroyed mill and M. J. McKenna was secretary of the concern.

The actual loss to the Cody Lumber Company is hard to estimate, but it is placed at something over $125,000.

Bandon Recorder.

The preliminary survey of the Bandon Port Orford railroad is all complete and the work of setting grade stakes and preparing for actual construction is now under headway.

An easy grade all the way has been found and the cost of the road will be many thousand dollars less than was first estimated.

The work of securing right-of-way is progressing nicely, and there is but little difficulty in getting this matter arranged.

People living along the line are interested in the project and anxious to see the work commenced as soon as possible.
