

LOCAL NEWS.

Toys of all kinds at the Racket. B. F. Smith, of Riverton, was up Thursday.

Round thread art linen at Robinson's.

Frank Byers, of Lee, was in town Thursday.

Order your Thanksgiving fowls from Slagle Bros.

Fall suits for men at Robinson's.

W. D. Roberts, of Riverton, was a Coquille visitor on Thursday.

The Pioneer Meat Market for Thanksgiving turkeys.

Geo. H. Sell of Riverton, made Coquille a business visit on Thursday.

The finest of hot and cold baths at the O. K. Barbershop.

Miss Gertrude Miller, the stenographer, came over from the bay Saturday.

For a nice fresh steak phone No. 21. Slagle Bros.

Attend the Heazlet Theatre tomorrow night and the two nights following.

Ladies' Coats, Capes and Sweaters at Robinson's store.

F. F. Eddy, the Prosper dairyman, had business in town Thursday of last week.

Saws gummed, filed and set at Quick & Curry's shop.

Born—In Eugene Oregon. November, 7, 1909, to Dr. and Mrs. K. A. Leep, a son.

For a good smoke try the El Toro, at the Oregonian.

Jardiniers, Flower Pots, vases, Lamps, Crocks. Anything you are in need of, call at the Racket.

V. E. Hixon, of Bills creek, was in town Thursday on his return from a business trip to Myrtle Point.

Full stock of grass seed at Knowlton's Drug Store.

Mrs. Chas. Lorenz of Bandon, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Skeels, other relatives and friends of this city.

William Jenkins, of Bandon, was in town Thursday on his way to Myrtle Point to see old-time friends of his former home town.

New and up-to-date suits for boys and little tots at Robinson's.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wilkinson, of Bandon, were in town Friday on their way to Myrtle Point where they went to see friends.

Harry Flanders, the teamster will fill orders for House coal.

Luther Williams, of the Bridge neighborhood, was in town Friday, bringing in with him a wildcat hide, upon which he received a bounty.

Capt. Hans Christenson, well known on the Coquille, who has been employed at the ship yards at Portler for some time, came over by Saturday's train and proceeded to Bandon by the Coquille, where he will enjoy a visit with old time friends.

Telephone for meat to be delivered at any time from Slagle Bros. Phone No. 21.

F. J. Hayes, who has been running an optical parlor in Marshfield for the last three years, after numerous requests has decided to visit Coquille on the 24th and 25th of November, and the same dates thereafter each month. He comes well recommended and guarantees expert service and honest prices. He is the only optometrist practicing in Coos County that has passed the state board examination. Office at Dr. Richmond's on above date.

Say! Brother, would you like any of those up-to-date hats in the latest shades? Robinson has them.

Hand Painted chamber sets. Best to be had at the Racket.

That's what they all say, "Slagle Bros. for choice meats."

W. C. Brooks was down from the upper Fishtrap settlement on Monday.

Get your shoes at Lyons & Jones, there stock is new and up-to-date.

See the elegant table cutlery and spoons in Alvin Silverware at Lilly Schroeder's.

Attorney C. F. McKnight, of Marshfield, was a Coquille business visitor the first of the week.

New drygoods of every description, new and of the best quality for the money at H. N. Lorenz's.

Thos. Coats, of Bandon, returned Monday after two or three days' visit in this city and up the river.

Every thing in men's toggery, stylish, well made and as good as can be had for the money at H. N. Lorenz's.

A fine line of Glassware, all grades, at the Racket. Cut Glass a specialty.

Call and see M. M. Hersey's mammoth stock of Holiday Goods and get prices. A pleasure to show goods.

Just arrived, gents', ladies' and children's wool underwear at Robinson's.

Will and James Stauff, of Marshfield, were in Coquille yesterday on their way to their father's farm near Arago.

Wm. Candlin, the commercial man, went to Myrtle Point on Monday to interview his many customers of that place.

See the Heavy Flannel Shirts at Lyons & Jones, just the thing for winter.

Dolls, Doll Heads, Doll Bodies, Doll Baggies, everything you can imagine in the line of dolls at the Racket.

C. M. Goodman & Co., dealers in new and second hand goods, Phone No. 364.

A full stock of 1843 Rodgers Brothers' silver ware. Also sterling Silver teaspoons, tablespoons and other pieces at the Racket Store.

Those wishing Thanksgiving turkeys may get them at the Pioneer Meat Market.

Several persons from Myrtle Point and this city attended the annual ball of the Knights of Pythias at Bandon on Saturday night. On their return Monday they reported the ball a grand success.

Did you get a pair of those high-top shoes at Lyons & Jones? All sizes for little folks.

Levi and Grant Bunch returned the latter part of last week from Roseburg with a pair of thoroughbred heifers for the dairy farm of their father, C. H. Bunch, of Rinck creek. Mr. Bunch believes in keeping a constant stock of the best when it comes to good stock. The boys say the road was very bad, and that there was a snow on the crest of the Coast range.

Santa Claus will make his headquarters at O. Wilson & Co's Front Street grocery store during the holidays.

An exceedingly enthusiastic and interesting dairymen's meeting was held in this city Thursday at which a temporary organization was effected and much other business transacted. F. F. Eddy, Bullards, was elected chairman, and Thos. Hanly, of Lampa, secretary. Another meeting is called for the 27th inst, at which a large attendance is desired. The dairymen of this county are beginning to realize they have interests to protect and are determined to protect them.

Albatross, broadcloth, serge and suiting in patterns in the latest colors at Rose's Cash Store.

Rubber-boots, any size at Robinson's store.

Thanksgiving turkeys at the Pioneer Meat Market.

Get your tickets for Margaret Isles at Fuhrman's Pharmacy.

If looking for Shetland floss or yarn, Robinson's is the place.

The steamer Elizabeth arrived in the Coquille on Monday and will go to sea soon.

Hay, grain, flour and groceries always on hand at Lyons & Jones.

Wm. Howell, Jr., returned from a trip to San Francisco by the Elizabeth on Monday.

Rubbers, Rubbers, Rubbers, for everybody at Robinson's.

G. H. Sigby, of Arago, made our office a pleasant call while in town on Saturday.

Children's hats and caps in large variety and style at O. Wilson & Co's.

F. D. Fish, of Fishtrap, was in town Saturday with a lot of nice apples and farm produce.

To get your full money's worth of fresh groceries at prices that defy competition, go to H. N. Lorenz's.

W. M. Collins came up from Prosper Monday and proceeded to Norway where he will spend a few days visiting friends.

Make your washing easy by using Washing Tablets at Drane's store.

R. S. Knowlton, the druggist, has been somewhat indisposed for the past two weeks, but his many friends hope to see him out in a short time.

A. and F. C. Warren, late arrivals to Coos Bay from Washington, came over the latter part of the week and was looking up real estate with a view of purchasing. They were highly pleased with the looks of our valley.

Have you looked through that stock of ladies' tail red suits at Robinson's?

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Martin, who came from Medford lately, are moving into the Gallier property north of the courthouse. Mr. Martin is a painter and paperhanger, and is ready at any time to take up work in that line.

Avoid the annoyance of preparing Sunday dinner by going to the Baxter.

I desire to thank the lady who purchased the elegant alligator hand bag, and the gentleman who purchased the set of Sterling knives and forks and my many other customers for their patronage. Come and see me. I will treat you right.

BILLY SCHROEDER.

Parties wishing coal from the Roseburg mine will apply to Harry Flanders.

V. R. Wilson, for a number of years our leading jeweler and watch maker, arrived here with his family Monday and are enjoying a visit with Mrs. Wilson's sister, Mrs. W. Culin and family, as well as many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson came overland while Virgil arrived on the last Alliance.

Turkeys, Geese, Ducks and chickens for Thanksgiving at Slagle Bros.

W. C. Laird, the House Furnisher, has just received a full and complete line of wall paper.

Claude L. Kidder, formerly of Roseburg, has become a resident of Coquille, and is opening an abstract office which will be in the real estate office of Stutsman & Co., Front Street. This gentleman is an experienced and reliable abstractor who comes highly recommended for his trustworthiness.

Begin now to provide for a "rainy day," by placing your earnings in the Farmer's and Merchant's Bank.

Jonathan Quick received a letter from his daughter, Mrs. Mary Harvey, of Pendleton, Oregon, who has been very ill from typhoid fever for some weeks, and whose husband died a short time ago from the same complaint. Mrs. Harvey was able to sit up and write the letter herself, and is getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances of which her many friends will be pleased to learn.

Before selecting your list of holiday presents look over the big ad of E. C. Barker & Co., the jeweler, then go and see his stock.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Smith, of Grants Pass, came over the mountains last week, arriving here Friday. They deplore the condition of our overland outlet, but are well pleased with our town and surroundings. Mr. Smith is a carpenter and builder, and on Monday began on the new bank building. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are parents of Mrs. Cleaves, wife of Rev. C. H. Cleaves, pastor of the M. E. Church, South of this city, with whom they greatly enjoy a visit.

Come in and look over our line of goods. We are always pleased to welcome you. Rose's Cash Store.

Those men's suits at Robinson's are the latest fall styles.

J. W. Evans was down from Arago Monday.

F. B. Robison was down from Fishtrap on Monday.

A fine line of fine cutlery at the Racket Store.

J. W. Meadows, of Arago, had business in town Monday.

Mrs. H. Coates, of Lampa, did shopping in town Monday.

Mrs. T. P. Hanly was up from the Lampa section Monday.

Don't miss seeing those swell comforts at Lyons & Jones.

Try that old-fashioned mince meat and apple-butter at Robinson's.

Mrs. John Lindebeck, of Arago, was in town Monday between boats.

Thoroughbred Berkshire pigs, both sex, for sale by J. C. Watson.

Ed Clinton, of Parkersburg, returned from the bay by Monday's train.

Call up Lyons & Jones by phone and get your order filled promptly.

Dr. Harrison, the veterinary surgeon, made a trip down the river last week.

J. A. Peart, the strawberry man, has plants for sale—$5 per thousand.

Fuhrman's Pharmacy is the place to get your tickets for the Heazlet Theatre.

Henry Sengstacken, of Marshfield, was over to the county seat on business Monday.

C. M. Goodman & Co., received a large consignment of new chairs last week.

R. W. Lundy, the Myrtle Point hardware man was a passenger from the bay by Saturday's train.

Ladies coats, best quality and up-to-date cut, all colors and sizes; $25 values for $20, at H. N. Lorenz's.

Kenneth Lawrence and Chas. Mansell, of this city, who have been in San Francisco and Oakland, California, for some weeks, were passengers on the Elizabeth which arrived in the Coquille Monday.

If you contemplate papering your home or any portion of it, see the fine line of wall paper at W. C. Laird's.

Mrs. A. G. Aiken, the milliner, came over from Marshfield Monday morning to look after business matters in connection with her branch store in charge of Miss Nellie McIntosh, was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Otto Schutter, who came to see friends.

If You Want to get there on time and at the right time get a South Bend watch. I have them in both ladies and gents sizes. Billy Schroeder.

Capt. Moomaw has been at the wheel of the steamer Echo on the Coquille Myrtle Point run for a day or so the last of the week. While he was in charge of the Echo, Capt. Panter took the Myrtle and made a trip up the South Fork, going as far as the Capt. Harris ford, which, we understand, is the furthest a steamer has ever been up that branch of the Coquille. It is the intention of Messrs. Panter and Kime to make several runs up that stream as well as up the North Fork, from this sections large quantities of produce will be brought out, which will prove a good thing for farmers of the upper river.

When you want the latest styles in men's clothing you can find them at Robinson's store.

K. Holverson has opened a Tailor Shop one door west of the Sentinel office. He does all kinds of tailoring and work guaranteed.

Santa Claus' head quarters at M. H. Hersey's Racket Store. Don't forget the place.

Mr and Mrs. C. Timmons of Bandon, were Coquille visitors between boats Saturday.

New goods in large bundles to arrive by first steamer, at Rose's Cash Store.

W. L. Mast, of Myrtle Point, spent a couple of days in Coquille the latter part of the week.

Say! It's going to rain. Go to H. N. Lorenz's and get one of those best umbrellas.

The Flanagan & Bennett Bank, of Marshfield, celebrated its 20th anniversary last Thursday.

Registered Berkshire pigs for sale—both sex. J. C. Watson, Coquille.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Gehlke, of Parkersburg, came up Saturday and transacted business in town, after which they proceeded to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gehlke, for a visit.

Ladies—When looking for toe rubbers call on Lyons & Jones, they can fit you.

Geo. S. Davis was down from his ranch Monday and left with us four stock carrots that he raised this year, the aggregate weight of which was about thirty pounds. The largest of the four weighed eight and one-quarter pounds. These are a fine dairy-cow feed and produce largely to the acre and should be grown extensively by dairymen, particularly those who have no silos.

All kinds of Dishes. Some of the Finest Haveland China and Hand Painted China of the latest patterns to choose from ever brought to Coquille.

Revival Meetings.

State Evangelist Samuel Gregg has arrived in the city and will begin a series of meetings in the Christian church tonight. These services will be full of earnestness and zeal, and all that come will be benefited. Miss Ellen Flook, of Portland, will have charge of the music. The public is invited.

Come in and See What

5c

Will Buy

You will be Surprised to see the Enormous Values we are giving

For
5c
10c
15c
20c
and
25c

You Can Get Unheard of Values

Come in and visit our Racket and Toy Department.

You Are Welcome

O. WILSON & CO.

Grocery and Racket Department—Front Street

REAL STATE INSURANCE

We have some of the best buys in Coos County. We have at present some snaps in Town Property, Timber, Farm and Coal Land. See us before buying your home. We will give you the best deal in Business Property.

There will soon be a Railroad here to connect Coos County with the outside world. We know where you should buy to make money. Call in at our office and we will tell you why. When you come don't forget to ask about Sunnyside lots---80x100 for $200.

Stutsman & Co.

Marshfield Office C and Front Streets. Coquille Office, Opposite Baxter Hotel.

What's Better Than Cranberry Sauce?

We have received a shipment of nice fresh Cranberries, and are selling them 1.00 per qt, 2 qts for 25c

O. WILSON & CO
The Store of Big Values and Little Prices.

Did You Ever Stop to Think

What the Average "Credit" Merchant Loses?

"MONEY TALKS"—Note the following prices and prove to yourself that our "CASH ONLY" system is Based on real business principles—

- Rubber Boots—Goodyear snag proof (Hip).....$6 50
- Stetson Hats ($5.00 Quality)..... 3 85
- Good Wool Underwear, the suit..... 2 25
- Regular 50c work shirts..... 40
- Blankets (1.50 values) the pair..... 1 15

High top water proof shoes in Great Variety.
We Save You Money.
HUB CLOTHING & SHOE CO.